Carlisle Herald. CARLISLE, PA. WEDNESDAY NOV. 24, 1858.

CONTENTS OF THE HERALD, A late number of the New Orleans Picayur contains a letter from G. W. KENDALL, now s resident of Texas, in which he gives a graphic picture of the country about San Autonio. The letter contains much information which will be new as well as interesting to our rea ders, and we commend it to their perusal.-

We shall publish the conclusion next week; if will be found on our first page. On the same page, we have a selection of choice poetry. The impromptu lines of Maj. E. S. EGE, are, perhaps, familiar to some o our readers, but they are not the less worthly of being reproduced.

"THE OLD CHERRY TREE," was selected by a friend. The gentleman alluded to was wel known, some years ago, as one of the most popular magazing writers of the day.

" LOVE IN THE CLOUDS" is a pleasant story, well told. The "Lady Philanthropist," a De scription of Mount Vernon," and a College jest close up the contents of our first page '

Our fourth page has an interesting article for the agriculturalist, on the destruction of grain insects, and on the inside will be found the, usual variety of politics, news, and local items.

In sustaining the Administration of "ten cent Jimmy," Delaware stands where she always did with the minority.

······ U. S. HOTEL, HARRISBURG .- It was stated some time ago, that this popular House, so favorably known by the travelling community as Kanaga's Hotel, was to have passed into the hands of another proprietor. This is not the case. We learn that Mr. Kanaga, still remains at the head of the establishment, where he has carned for himself a reputation, as a caterer for the public, second to no Hotel proprictor in the interior of Pennsylvania.

To say that our town was exceedingly dull last Thursday, is a sufficient indication to those who know Carlisle, that Thanksgiving day, to all outward appearance, was generally observed. The stores, banks, and places of business were closed, and public services were held in some of the churches, but the weather beset by political buzzards from all-parts of the State, who will important them for favors, but let them remember that their first daty is to take care of the interests of their constitu-to take care of the interests of their constitu-tion and the state of the interests of the interest of the state of the state of the state of the interest of th melancholy as if their last friend had been taken from them; there was neither the "wine of refreshment nor the oil of joy." and the general aspect of the town was that of "fasting, humiliation and prayer " rather than a day of "praise and thanksgiving." Yet there the assertion that the States of Missouri and may have been a silver lining to this cloud of lowa, and the territorries of Kansas and Ne-braska, will send an emigration of ten thoudarkness ;- there may have been many sunny. homes rendered still brighter, by the re-union of long absent friends, and many a happy by the overland mail, and to the 5th ipst., by fireside that reflected living pictures of domestic bliss. Tears may have been wiped from weeping eyes, and hopes carried to the heart of the sorrow-stricken. If this be so, Thanksgiving day has not passed in vain. -

In the evening, in accordance with public. otice, a sermon to young men was preached before the Fire Companies, in the English Lutheran church, by the Pastor, Rev. J. Fuy. The Firemen-turned-out with full ranks, and the church was filled with a large and attentive udience. The text chosen for the occasion vas the 9th verse of the 119 Psalm :

" Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his ways? By taking heed thereto according to Thy word."

FACTORY STOPPED.-The linen mill on Fall The Reverend gentleman made no effort at display in his discourse ; _it_was plain and practical in its tendency, and well calculated to set before the minds of those for whom it was intended, the three most common vices, by which the ways of the young man are rendöred unclean; drunkenness, gambling, and licatiousness. He pourtrayed, in vivid colors, The Indianapolis Journal relates how the evils resulting from indulgence in these beartless desertion of an explorant bride took place in that city, on Thursday evening. The and improper reading, as the three most potent agents in leading young men into these dangerous paths. It speaks well for the Fire Companies, that so many of the members that very atternoon to Hartford, Indiana, to hould have responded to the request of the Pastor, on the evening of a day, generally given up to festivity, and if the truths uttered by him shall make the impression hoped for, we have reason again to say that Thanksgiving day has not passed in vain.

> FIRE ---- On Sunday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, our citizens were alarmed by the cry of fire. The flanies were found to proceed from the residence of Col. Armstrong Noble, on West High street ; the fire companies were soon on the ground and succeeded in extinguishing the fire before it had extended to any of the rooms except the one in which it had originated. The fire is supposed to have occurred from the accidental upsetting of a stove in a chamber on the second story. All the furniture in that room was more or less injured, but it is quite likely that much damage was done to other parts of the house by water. The loss is estimated at about 500 dollars. which, we are gled to learn, is fully covered by insurance.

Up-wards of fifty vehicles, besides a large num-ber of friends on foot, followed the remains of the deceased to their final resting place. Mr. . was sixty-five years of age.

SUMNER RIFLES.-This fine volunteer corps, had their second parade on last Saturday. They turned out about thirty rank and file, and made a very fine appearance as they marched through the streets. TYPOGRAPHICAL EBRORS --- Not the least of an Editor's troubles are the sad pranks which the types play us sometimes. The editor of the Louisville Journal, enumerates the following, which have recently come under his nog tice :

One of our exchanges says, "the wife crop of Gascoundo county, Mo., this year, is esti-mated at 25,000 galls.", The wine erop is ro-forred to, but 25,000 galls will make a good (orop of wives notwithstanding. This Hart-ford Times, noticing the death of an editor, as a the years high winder winder mand says, "he was a high winded gentleman, and a pungent writer." Perhaps he was a stump speaker of the high-winded school of oratory. A locofoco editor says, "the democracy are licked like a band of brothers," instead of linked; and another says, "we have wet the enemy and we are theirs."

These are bad enough, but not quite as much out of the way, as that of an editor in one o the northern counties, who came out one wee with the following correction :

" Erralum in our last." '

"For-Bumbleton Bayms restoring porrin-gers," Read-"Anderson's worm-destroying lozonges."

THE SECOND SNOW of the senson fell on Sunday last, and there was somewhat more of it than there was on the Monday previous, although it is fast disappearing. Those who pretend to be weather prophets, predict that we shall have ten snows the present winter ; and as we have had two already, their propheoy may come true. The weather, thus far, has not been cold.

A CHURCH ROBBED.-We learn from the Democrat, that some time ago the coal bin of the German Reformed church in this place, was, broken open and a considerable quantity of coal carried off.

What; rob a church ? The pitiful scoundrel who could perpetrate so audacious a sacrilege, will certainly be "hauled over the coals," if not in this world in that which is to come.

Ho Young MEN .--- Young men wishing to spend an evening each week profitably, would do well to attend the "Library Rending Room," in Education Hall, which is open every Thursday evening, at 7 o'clock. An hour or two passed in the company of good authors, will be of more benefit to the young, than if spent in bar-rooms, billiard-rooms, bowlingalleys) and resorts of a similar nature. -

DARING ROBBERY .---- Mechanicsburg ens to be infested with a daring set of burglars. On Monday night, the 15th inst., the store of Messrs. Rolglo & Herring was entered, by outting a pannel out of the door. The rob bers removed the iron safe from the door, took it some distance therefrom, and then blew it ópen, by introducing powder into the keyhole. Fortunately, there was only about eight dollars in the safe, so that the burglars were hardly paid for their trouble and risk. No goods were taken from the store, and the books.

and papers in it were undisturbed.
