Number I.—FAITH.

Faith is the eye of the trusting soul; The knowledge of the good and pure to bear; An anchor when all earthly fasts are gone...

Number II.—LOVE.

A pure, unselfish love, that in its soul, With heaven's love, is often found; To see our way from pain, with smiles and tears...

Number III.—PRAYER.

Prayer is the fountain of faith to heaven; Through which man sends all his wants to God; Whose promise is, for reaching, just and true...

Number IV.—MENTAL BEAUTY.

Like power to the soul, and winning tone, Like power to the heart, and sweetest song; To see our way from pain, with smiles and tears...

Number V.—SINGING.

Sing on, dear child! Thy sweet and soothing voice Has power to my straying thoughts above; In power, strange how pure and strong to love...

Number VI.—TRUTH.

Truth never dies! It finds a home with those Who cling to justice, as they cherish life; Whose hearts are true, and whose hearts are true...

Number VII.—DREAMS.

I love thee not alone in waking hours; I love thee in my dreams, thy waking grace; I love thee in my dreams, thy waking grace...

Number VIII.—FAINT HEART.

Faint heartedness leaves the heart of man; Faint heartedness leaves the heart of man; Faint heartedness leaves the heart of man...

Number IX.—TIME.

A mighty King is Time, the journeyer; With might and pleasure, riding through the world; The greatest triumph of mortality...

THE BELIEVED HUSBAND.

BY EDWARD STILES BOE.

"He dreamed that she came back to him." "Hark!—a light footstep is heard upon the stairs leading to the little conference room...
