PEOPLE'S STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL. THOMAS E. COCHRAN, of York County.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL. Gen. WILLIAM H. KEIM, of Berks County.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER. We are authorized to announce MAJOR JACOB RHEEM, as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the decision of the PEOPLE'S County Con-

STANDING COMMITTEE MEETING. At a meeting of the Standing Committee of the People's Party of Cumberland County held at the Hotel of Henry Glass, on Tuesday the 26th inst., Jacob Rheem of Carlisle, wa called to the chair, and J. C. Sample of Silver Spring appointed Secretary. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved. That the People of this county opposed to the "rule or ruin" policy of the Democratic party, are requested to meet at the usual time and place of holding their township and borough elections, on Saturday the 6th o August next, and elect two delegates to re-present them in County Convention, to meet in the Court House at Carlisle on Tuesday the 9th of August, at 10 o'clock A. M., to nomi next general election.

Resolved, That it be recommended to the County Convention, to transact their business with open doors, and vote viva voce, for the candidates in nomination.

JACOB RHEEM, Chairman. J. C. SAMPLE, Secretary.

DELEGATE ELECTION.

The citizens of Carlisle, opposed to the policy and principles of the National Administration, will meet in their respective wards on Saturday evening next at 71 o'clock to elect two Delegates to represent them in the County Convention to be held at the Court House in Carlisle on Tuesday the 9th

The West Ward will meet at Han non's Hotel.

The East Ward at Kline's Hotel: By order of the Standing Committee.

THE DELEGATE ELECTION. Our friends will bear in mind that Saturday next has been designated by the Standing Committee for the election of Delegates to the County Convention, which is to meet in Carlisle on next Tuesday, to nominate a county ticket. We trust that the delegate meetings will be well attended and that good, reliable men will be sent to perform the respon sible duties which will devolve, on that Con vention. It is important that the people should be roused up to a sense of the importance of the coming election-Important in two ways. First, as to the officers to be chosen, and secondly, as to the influence our success will exert. in the Presidential contest of 1860. We have promise of a glorious victory in the State this fall, but to insure it, we must work for it.

These preliminary meetings are the first steps towards a perfect organization, without which, work is useless. Turn out then to the delegate meetings, send men to the Convention who will put a good ticket in the field, and then go to work with a determination to elect it and victory is certain.

JUNIATA DEMOCRATIC COUNTY

The Democratic Convention of Juni ata County, met at Mifflintown on the 25th ult. and nominated a County ticket. They recommend Dr. E. D. Crawford for Senator subject to the decision of the Senatorial Con ference, and passed the following resolu tion:

Resolved. That the claims of Juniata Coun ty to the nomination are second to no other county in the district, that in her history no Democrat has ever occupied a seat in the Senate of Pennsylvania; and that we now claim the right to ask that Juniata may be gratified in the desire to furnish a candi date, as alike due to her for her long, stead fast and uniform support of Democratic prin ciples.

KANSAS CONSTITUTIONAL CON-

This body adjourned on the 29th ult. hav ing completed their labors.

The Constitution is radically anti-slavery, but it differs from the Leavenworth instrument, inasmuch as it does not extend the right of suffrage to negroes. According to its provisions, the Legislature will consist of seventy-two Representatives and twenty-one

The business of the Convention has been disposed of with tolerable expedition, the questions of the apportionment of the State and the location of the temporary capital, be ing the only measures that offered serious obstacles. Topeka was selected as tempo rary capital, the fown of Lawrence being a Loompetitor. The efforts of the partizians of both places revealed considerable corruption, both inside and outside of the Convention and one or more members are implicated in charges of bribery. The indications are that the ratification of the Constitution will be vigorously opposed by the democracy, as all the strong measures advocated by the latter, including the annexation of the Platte district, the exclusion of free negroes, the prohibition of bank issues, and the preservation of the present western boundary, which embraces the gold regions, have been de-

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC ADDRESS.

Robert Tyler, the indefatigable chairman of the Democratic Standing Committee, is out with a third Address to the "faithful," in Pennsylvania. He seems to rival Gov. Wise in the number, if not in the length, of his letters.

This last address is on the subject of the rights of naturalized citizens in which he endeavors to explain away the difficulty into which Gen. Cass got the party, by his propensity for writing letters. ... The letter of Gen. Cass, was written to a did in the following words:

"In regard to the protection of our citizens in their rights at home and abroad, we have no law which divides them into classes, or makes any difference whatever between them. A native and a naturalized American may, therefore, go forth with equal se-curity over every sea and through every land under heaven, including the country in which the latter was born. Either of them may be taken up under a debt contracted, or a crime committed, by himself; but both are absolutely free from all political obligations to every country but their own. They are both of them American citizens, and their exclusive allegiance is due to the government of the United States. One of them never did owe fealty elsewhere, and the other, at the time of his naturalization, solemnly and rightfully, in pursuance of public law and municipal regulation, threw off, renounced, and abjured forever, all allegiance to every foreign prince, potentate, State and soversovereign whose subject he had previously been. If this did not work a dissolution of every political tie which bound him to his

This is in direct oppositon to the Cass doctrine, and to make "assurance doubly sure" the redoubtable "Bob" puts in his oar, but utterly fails to get the despocratic boat into clear water.

The Democratic papers of the South, denounce the opinion of Attorney General Black, and declare that the principles of protection to naturalized citizens, as laid down by Gen. Cass, are those upon which our Government has always acted. The Washington States also sustains the Cass doctrine; but, to "thicken the complexity" of this case, Gen. Cass has "backed down," and now shapes his opinion, in accordance with the views of the Attorney General. With such sudden changes of position, it is impossible

7. A clause indicating the willingness of the Mexican Government to accept a modified form of protectorate at the hands of the United States, in other words, to solemnize another treaty in form of one of alliance of-fensive and defensive; but in substance creating a protectorate, whenever the United States shall signify its willingness to enter nto such engagement.

The Murder of Wharton Rector.

[From the Fort Smith Herald, of July 16.] As we went to press last week, news came hat Wharton Rector was killed, and Frank A. Rector dangerously wounded. We are sorry to have this week to confirm this report. These young men were sons of Wharton Rector, and nephews of Major E. Rector. Frank was attending to the issuance of ra-tions to the Indians at the Wichita Agency, and his brother, who had been preparing himself for the practice of medicine, and was in rather delicate health, had gone out to see him for the purpose of recruiting his health. On the 4th of July in the afternoon, Major Hurst seeming to be in au ill-humor, was first rather abusing Colonel Blain, who was present, and then Major Rector; and Frank said something about abusing his uncle in his presence, and rather facetiously remar-ked something about his gray hairs. Soon signty whatsoever, and especially to that after Frank was about going out of the tent sovereign whose subject he had previously and Wharton was sitting in the tent dressing, and as Frank went out Hurst followed, and every political tie which bound him to his native country, then our naturalization laws are a bitter mockery, and the oath we administer to foreigners is a delusion and a snare."

The strong went out there to invect, and raised his hand to strike Frank with that knife," and jumped up to prevent it—but the stroke was made just as Wharton seized him by the arm. Frank fell, and he then immediately struck Wharton to the heart. He died in about an hour. Frank, enraged and still bleeding went out and got a pistol, and would have shot Hurst on the pot, but was prevented by Colonel Blain and nother gentleman. . Had it not been for our enterprising townsman, C. B. Johnson, a brother in-law of the deceased, Hurst would not probably have been taken; but he arrived on the ground on the morning after the murder, offered $200 reward, and sent the Indians in all directions in pursuit. Hurst was caught fifteen miles from there on the road to Texas, and passed through here on last Wednesday, on the way to Van Buren, in custody of Deputy Marshal Whitesides.

THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY R. R. The amount of investment, by many of our citizens in the capital stock of this road, and the large interests held by individuals, engaged in the business of forwarding, in the shape of warehouses, rolling stock, &c., has caused some excitement in regard to the rumors that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company had purchased largely of its stock. Fears have been entertained that this gigantio corporation had stretched an arm of power over the Cumberland Velley Road, heretofore considered local in its character, and quiet and efficient in its management, rendering most valuable service to the community whose business it did, returning remunerative profits to its stockholders, and commanding an amount of confidence rarely incident to any corporate work; some supposing that this management is to be broken down, and their investments thus rendered uncertain and speculative-others, having interests at stake of another kind, that the Penn'a. R. R. Cor would assume the Company business, and that thus individual interests and capital would be sunk-and others again, that the general interests of the Cumberland Valley Company would be made subservient to, and dependent upon, the successful operation of the Pennsylvania R. R. Co. and its City management. In distant counties, as we see from our exchanges, it is confidently asserted that the entire road, without reserve, has been sold to the Penn'a. Company; but they considerately inform their readers, that the terms of the sale and transfer have not yet transpired! Whilst we could not, qurself, entertain the idea that the Penn'a. Railroad Company, with so intelligent a head, as the gentleman who now presides over its operations, would inaugurate any policy destructive of the vested interests of this road, or deem it of import. ance to the interests of the Penn'a. Company to interfere materially with a system of management, which has brought the Cumberland Valley Railroad Co. to that high degree of credit, attained by few, if any, railroad companies in the country. Yet, as a public journalist, we have conceived it to be our duty to make inquiry from an authentic source, upon this subject so important to very many of our citizens.

Our information leads us to the conclusion, The Rev. John Chambers, of randocipals to predict what course the Administration it is stated, denounced the running of the passenger cars on Sunday, very bitterly in his sermon on the 10th ult., and when his service was ended he stepped into a handsome carriage in waiting for him, at the church door and leave the capital stock of the capita the Cumberland Valley Reilroad Company.— Railroad Companies, like individuals, seek to promote, at all points, their business interests, and as the trade of this valley, seeking a market at Philadelphia, is a large and increasing business, it is natural that the Pennsylvania | the amount of about one hundred dollars. Railroad Company should seek to obtain it, Cumb Valley Road, of which they have posever entered a carringe to ride home from my sed themselves, will be a sufficient induce-church. I therefore charge the author of the ment to the business men of this valley, whose ment to the business men of this valley, whose interests, as far as the road is concerned, is now identified with theirs, so to direct the trade of the valley, as will best promote their common interests. Second: That it is not the wish or design of the Penn'a R R. Company, to divert their stock or business, in any shape from the line of their own road; but to concentrate, their efforts to promote their interests there, by all legitimate means.

The contest, which is now waging between the great roads leading from the West to the East, is a question of great interest to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and indeed, to Pennsylvania itself, and, doubtless, one which that Company has kept steadily in view. How far western connections, leading directly to the city of New York, and thus ignoring our own metropolis and their road, have entered into the views of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in their present purchase of stock in this road, we are not advised, but it strikes us as being a wise policy, that they should look forward to these things. So large an investment as the contingent fund of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in the stock of the Cumberland Valley Railroad, is an earnest of the confidence reposed in its capital and management, by one, whose sagacity in Rail road management is proverbial, and it cannot, for a moment be supposed that any policy will'be introduced that would tend to depreciate its present value.

RHEEM'S NEW HALL .-- This splendid improvement, will be finished by the 20th ust , when it is to be formally opened with grand vocal concert, by Prof. John H.

Rheem, with an efficient chorus. The Hall is capable of seating about 800 persons; it is well ventilated and easy of access. A stage is erected along the south end, leaving an opening to the audience, of 24 feet, with dressing rooms on each side. The main floor of the Hall, is to be fitted up with set tees, having a gradual elevation from the stage, and a commodious gallery runs along he north side, affording seats for 150 persons. This Hall will be a great public convenience, and we have no doubt Mr. Rheem will reap the reward of his enterprise, in profitable en-engagements. Companies giving concerts, theatrical representations, or other entertainments, can now fine at Carlisje, one of the best exhibition rooms between Philadelphia and Pittsburg.

The health-giving properties of these Springs," have long made them'a resort for invalids, but the extensive improvements to this grounds and buildings, which have been added within the last few years, have placed the establishment, in point of accommodation, on a par with the most fashionable watering places in the country. The buildings now occupy three sides of an oblong square, surrounded with balconies on all sides, the bed cham bers are well furnished and thoroughly ventilated, and the ample range of parlors, open on an extensive shaded lawn, leading to the springs and bath rooms. The present proprietors, Messrs. Owen, Visscher and Clendennin, are unremitting in at tention to their guests: their table presents all the delicacies of the season, served up in superior style; and the entire arrangement in every department, would seem to leave nothing to be wished for on the part of those seeking either health or amusement. On a recent visit, we conversed with intelligent gentlemen there, who informed us that after visiting most of the watering places in the Northern and Middle States, they have found no place that combines so many advantages for a summer residence, as the Carlisle Sulphur Springs.

In pure air, healthy location, mountain cenery, and medicinal waters, nature has performed her part, and the enterprising Proprietors are determined, that on theirs, nothing shall be wanting to make the Carlisle Springs a leading "Institution" among the aried places of summer resort...

HARVEST HOME .-- The annual Har vest Home, by the Cumberland County Agriultural Society, was held at the Fair Grounds on last Saturday. A dinner was prepared for the occasion by Major Bretz, and an ad dress delivered by Hon. F. Watts. THE PEACH CROP IN NEW JERSEY .- There is something of a prospect of a peach crop in some of the counties of New Jersey. A meeting of peach growers in the vicinity of Woodville, Mercer county, was held a few days since to consult together in regard to arrangements for transporting their peaches to market by railroad, at which the peach growers for a space of about three miles square were mostly represented and it was ascertained by the meeting, it is said, that in that space of country there would be the present season at least 20,000 baskets of peaches for shipment. - In these three miles square they found there were over 92,000 trees planted, 22,000 of which were in bearing, and 70,000 not in bearing. One growhas 15,000 trees, but none are yet in bear

HORRIBLE BUCHERY - At Freeport, Ill., or the 27th ult. a German, named Peter Arndt, near Cedarville, in this county, killed three of -his cliffdren with an axe, and wounded a fourth so hadly that it is not expected to live. He made no resistance when arrested, and assigned no reasons for the murders. That enemy of Mankind, Consumption can be cured, but it is far better to prevent the cruel diasese from fastening itself on the system, by the timely use of a remedy such s Dr. Wistars Balsam of Wild Cherry af-

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR .- In al diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease— hence and immediate cure. Dalley's Magical l'ain Ex-tractor, and nothing else will allay inflammation at hence and immediate cure. Dalley's Magical l'ain Extractor, and nothing else will allay infiammation at once, and make a certain cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: liurns, Scalds, Cuts. Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruisses, Straius, Bites, Poisson, Chilblains, Biles, Scroftia, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear-ache, Piles, Scro Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rhoumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipless, iningworm, Barbers Heh. Simill Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the saive is a combination of ingrediments, each and every one apilying a perfect antidote to its opposite disorder. Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor in its effects is magical, because the time is short between disease and a permanent cure: and it is an extractor, as it draws all diseare out of the affected part, having naturean perfect as before the injury. It is escarcily needscary for say that no house, work shop, for manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Balley, Manufacturer.

EPILEPSY, OR FALLING FITS.

EPILEPSY, OR FALLING FITS.

We believe we cannot do our readers a more important service, than by again calling their attention to that most remackable preparation, discovered by Dr. Seth S. Hance, of Baithmore, Mi, which possesses the power of alleviating and curing that horrid visitation of man—Hyllepsy, or Falling Fits., In recommending this preparation to our readers, we do so with a conviction that we are not degrading our columns to puff a dommon pattent medicine, but are placing before them a discovery, which, if fully known, wolld probably do more to alleviate human suffering, than any invention of modern times. Dr. Hance, in asking us to notice his preparation favorably in our editorial department, has sent us for, perusal a number of letters from persons who have used his pilis, and have been cured thereby. All of them speak in the most grateful and culogistic torus. One great advantage this medicine possesses is the fact that it can be transported through the mails, thereby affording avery one an opportunity of dealing directly with the inventor, and also precluding all possibility of being imposed on by a counterfeit or spurious imitation. Dr. Hance pays the postage on his pills to any part of the country, and will forward them by return of mail, on the receipt of a remittance. His prices are as follows: 1 box, $3/3: 2 do, $5: 12 dos, $24. All orders for the medicine should be addressed to Seth S. Hance, 108 listimore street, Baltimore, Md.
