THE NEXT GOVERNOR. Who is to be our next Governor ? is a question already discussed by many of the papers in Pennsylvania, induced, no doubt, in most cases, by secret wire pulling on the part of aspirants or their friends

It is a question so much more casily asked than answered, that it is singular it should be asked at all, especially when affairs equally, if nofinore important, are to be settled in advance. The Greensburg Herald breaks ground in favor of the Hon. JOHN COVODE, of Westmoreland, and in doing so, takes this po-

Some of these messages are interesting, as showing with what speed they were transmit-ted. On Aug. 20 quite a conversation was kept up between the two shores. At 9.19 o'-clock A. M. Valentia asked Trinity Bay. "Have you a mössage?" At 9 21, in just two minutes time, the answer came back, "No." At 9 31 Trinity Bay asked, "Was message about Europa made use of?" sition : First, that the West is entitled to the next candidate, and second, that that candidate, should be the Hon. JOHN COVODE. Other papers are advocating the claims' of Dr. GAZ-.ZAM, and others again of Gen. MOOREHEAD, both of Allegheny: For one, we shall always be willing to rec-ognizen well-founded claim of location, in regard to candidates, when it can be done with safety to the party ; and if a united West will present an efficient, available man as the choice of the Convention, we are prepared, at the proper time, to give him our cordial support. But the old adage, that "a man should never cross a bridge until he comes to it," is as true in politics as in private life. There are matters on hand to claim all the attention of the opposition in Pennsylvania. Time and circumstances will shape the future; let us deal with the present. Every one will admit that the election this fall, is to exercise an important influence on the elections of 1860; with this fact steadily in view, every effort should be made to secure a majority in the next Legislature, as well as a majority of the, popular vote, and having secured these results, we shall have a permanent basis for action in the contest of 1860, State and National.

GOOD ADVICE TO STATE-RIGHTS DEMOCRATS. -The Hon. John Hickman, anti-Lecompton member of Congress from Chester county, in a recent speech at a meeting of the State Rights Democracy in that county, endorsed the views of Col. Forney in advocating open hostility to the Buchanan State Ticket. In closing his remarks, he said :

"As far as I individually am concerned, there can be no fraternity in the Democrati party until the last spark of political life shal crushed out of the Lecomptonite ; and the best way to kill him is to exclude him from We may not be able to elect men whom we would prefer, but we can certainly cause defeat to a faithless enemy; and such a de-feat will be by io means unimportant. It will indicate a salutary lesson, and by remov-ing bad principles from the market may cause a domand for good ones." a demand for good ones."

The Berks & Schuylkill Journal, commenting on the above, says : "Of course Messrs. Forney and Hickman, after<sup>4</sup> using such language, come in for a round share of abuse from the terrified Buchanites. But the time for brow-beating has gone by. . The independents only laugh at the impotency of the Old Hunkers, and defy them to their teeth."

HON. JOHN J. CRITTENDEN .- The result of the recent election in Kentucky, renders it certain that the veteran Statesman. John J. Crittenden, will not be returned to the U. S. Senate, although his term does not expire until 1861. It is generally supposed that Vice President Breckenridge, will be his successor.

SENATORIAL .- The People's Convention of Mifim County, have instructed their conferees. to vote for Col. Wm Butler, for Senator. The democrats have instructed their conferees for Jos. W. Packer.

The New York Courier & Enquirer in an article in reference to the dispute between the managers of the four great lines of travel from fire. Her face was burned to a crisp, an the scaboard to the west, thus speaks of the her body badly scorched, causing instantia route through Pennsylvania ;---

"Now it is of no use for our New York managers to shut their eyes to the facts. The route to the West by the Pennsylvania Cen-tral, the Fort Wayne and the Chicago lines has fentures which will always make it a thorough-fare, not the least of which is the country which it traverses. Our wide land cannot present a richer agricultural landscape than s spread out all along the upper Susquehanna nor more diffusers concerns that the set of scenery upon the Baltimore and Ohio road, which we have never traversed, may, perhaps at particular points be on a somewhat gran-der scale, but the line of that road is too fur-South to bring it into any such immediate competition with our New York routes. It is the Pennsylvania Central that is our mos ormidable rival." .... The Washington States says : -- " The Richond Enquirer believes there will be no chance whatever for Democratic success in the House of Representatives—several States from which netter things were expected having chosen delegations either divided or hostile. Tennessee elects a Democratic Governor, but sends seven Opposition members out of ten. North Carolina sends a tie of four to four. Kentucky Carolina sends a tie of four to four. Kentucky which in other respects did wonders for the Democracy, has elected only five Democratic Representative, with a tie on the popular vote in one district, which the, according to a con-stitutional requirement, is to be solved by casting lots; so that under the unlucky star which seems now \to be in the ascendant of the Democratic heavens she too may happen the Democratic heavens, she, too, may happen to be divided, and thus her vote be lost. Ever Texas is reported to have chosen a wedged and useless delegation.

THE CLEVELAND MURDER .- Mr Elisha T Sterling, who has been a prominent business man in Cleveland, Ohio, for more than a quarter of a century, was found in front of a house in which he had been playing cards until in which he had been playing cards until killing the nerve. A rigid investigation it is three o'clock in the morning. His skull was badly fractured, and he survived but a short receiving wall at Greenwood, to await such time. He became involved in business, tempted by degrees to drink; was allured to the gambling table, and most probably murdered it the structure to the structu
