STANDING COMMITTEE. The Standing Committee of the People's Party, of Cumberland County, will meet at Hannon's Hotel on Monday, the 9th day of January next at 1 o'clock P. M. on business of importance. By order H.-P. McChure, J. Jacon Bretz, Chairman, Carlisle, Dec. 14, 1859.

THE PRESIDENCY .-- GEN'L. SIMON CAMERON.

Already the journals of the Opposition, in different sections of the Union, are bringing forward their respective favorites as caudidates for the next Presidency, and urging their claims with much warmth and zeal. In ethe South-west, the name of Hon. EDWARD BATES, of Missouri, is prominently before the people in connection with that high station, and he will undoubtedly have many warn supporters in the Convention, In the East, Mosars, Sawand and FILLMORE of New York. Gov. Banks, of Mass, and Mr. Fessenden, of Maine, will also be brought forward. In our own State, the names of Hon. John M. Reed and Gen. Cameron have also been mentioned The last named gentleman (Gen. CAMERON.) is well and favorably known throughout the Union, and in many sections will his claims be urged by hosts of friends. But it is in Pennsylvania where his great strength lies and as it is conceded that this State will agai be the great battle-field, this strength should not be overlooked or lightly estimated. It is in this State he has spent his whole life, and it is here where he is more particularly appre ciated and esteemed.

Gen. CAMERON has spring from the ranks of the people, and is emphatically one of them his interests are identical with theirs, and through the whole course of his political ca reer, he has buttled for their rights. He has been the architect of his own fortunes; step by step, he has won his way to a commanding position in the councils of the nation; and at every step of that pascent, he has stendfastlykept in sight the welfare of the laboring classes, sympathized with them in their adversity as well as prosperity, and has made it the -chief-aim-of-his-life-to-labor-for the advance ment, the highest practical development, and the largest measure of good to those classes whose mission it is to work out the high destinies of his native State. From his carlies manhood, he has been identified with all the great interests of this Commonwealth, and every measure of public improvement has had. his carnest support and zealous advocacy. As the champion of a Protective Tariff, he has been as trué to our interests as the needle to the pole; and when the false and pretended friends of that great cardinal measure of our State, betrayed and deserted the cause of the workingman, Geha C. both in and out of the Senate, stood by it with unflinching firmness. He is undoubtedly, at the present time, the representative man of Pennsylvania, and as such stands high in the esteem and confidence of his fellow-citizens. As a statesman, Gen. Cameron is a man of fair abilities: possessed of vast general infor mation, combined with untiring industry. In this State, at least, his name is a "tower of strength:" and with him as the candidate of the People's Party in the coming contest, the result could not be doubtful. His majority in the old Keystone State would be unprecedented; the victory would be certain, and his election would be the death-blow of the Sham-democracy. Without, however, committing ourselves to the cause of either of the eminent gentlemen spoken of for the Presidency, we will add, that should Simon Cameron be the nominee of our Party, we know of no man whom we could support with more cordiality, and, we believe with more certainty of success.

It is a singular fact, that while Gov. Wise, and the leading Southern men, are denouncing the people of the North, for complicity in the recent attack on Harper's Ferry, and calling upon them, if they love the Union, to put down the Abolition element among them, the Northern people, abolition ists or otherwise, have had little or nothing to do with it. John Brown's conspiracy and "Provisional Government," was hatched in Canada, beyond the limits of the United States, and brought to a head in Maryland a slave State. In connection with this, there is another fact: That Helper, the author of a work said to have strong anti-slavery tendencies, and which is now made a stumbling-block in the way of the organization of Congress, is a Southern man, born and raised in North Carolina.

Burial of John Brown.—The remains of John Brown were finally interred on Thursday week, at North Elba, New York. After the face was exposed to view sometime in front of his late residence, the coffin was borne by six neighbors to the foot of a rock, where he had directed it to be buried, and then deposited in the earth. Before leaving the house, his favorite hymn, "Blow ye the trumpet-blow," &c., was sung, and an impressive prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Young, of Burlington, Vermont, who, with Mr. Biglow, and two others of that city, had ridden all night to be present. Remarks were then made by Mr. J. Miller McKim, of Philadelphia, and Wen dell Phillips, of Boston. At the grave, Mr. Young quoted Paul's words, "I have fought the good fight," &c., and pronounced a bene-

PROCEMDINGS OF CONGRESS. As yet, nothing has been done toward or-ganizing the House, and nothing will be done until the "Rigger" element has exhausted it solf. The Southern members went to Washington, boiling over with indignation towards the North, and the Republicans seem inclined to-let the South 4: boil on," until they are done. Below will be found a letter from a friend in Congress, under date of the 17th inst.

Yesterday, we ran Gilmer's vote up to 36, and invited those democratic gentlemen who have been blowing off their steam against us; accusing us of warring against the institutions of the South, to give diliner their 86 votes, and elect him, but they refused, altho-Gilmer is the heaviest slave owner on the floor. owning 100 negroes. Thus you perceive we blew them up, and exposed their hypocricy before the country. It was a bomb in their camp, and produced a sensation that was narked and significant. Yours, &c.

Disunion in Virginia.

The following, from the Petersburg Intelligencer, is the most sensible and truthful answer which one of the best edited papers in Virginia gives to the rigmarole about disunion:

We very much doubt whether there is single county in Virginia that would vote in favor of disunion, if the question were pre-sented in such a shape that the people could vote yea or nay. 'We have seen no evidence of such a state of feeling in this vicinity, nor during recent visits through the counties of Dinwiddie, Nottoway, Prince Edward, Cumberland, Appointtox, Campbell, Bedford, Roanoke, Montgomery, Pulaski, Wythe, Smyth, and Washington, did we hear or see anything that would indicate that such a teeling is abroad in the State. These "senpapers manufacture much of the excitement that furnishes the text for their comments, and their long jeremiads are spun out about the necessity for action, winding up usually with the stereotyped phrases about the nationality of the democratic party-the necessity for everybody to fall into ine and run with the machine, in order to save the Union.

On' the same subject, there is a good deal of good sense in the Bujialo Commercial's comment on the despatches from Washington, representing that disunion is a current topic of conversation in the streets of the Federal City, and that it is loudly urged by many of the more excitable. It pertinently asks, how would disunion help the South? The conduct of the Pennsylvania authorities and people in the arrest of Cook proved that they are now animated by the most friendly sentiments towards Virginia. To-divide the Union would be to convert Pennsylvania into a hostile State, willing not only to har bor all fugitives, but released from any obligations to withhold her citizens from acts of invasions The same result would obtain along the whole frontier between Slavery and Freedom. Slavery would get the worst of it. A period of panie and insurrection is just the time when the border slave States most need the benefits of union and the presence of friendly neighbors. .

$1,769,400 00 ALARMED.—The people in Taibot county, Maryland, have been much alarmed for the last few weeks, by reports of contemplated insurrection among the negroes, and the collection of arms by them. At Easton and St. Michael's a number of families had congregated from the surrounding country, leaving their houses sliut up and deserted. Armed patrols guard the country, while all the towns and yllages have bodies of armed men ready for the lasurgents. The fears of the inhabitants were excited by the statements of a negro woman, which could only have obtained credence through fear, for they were of a character not to be believed in moments of cool THE HARPWITS FIRT AFFAIR. Each Judicial District is entitled to a member, appointed by the judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions. The mem THE RED. SKINS RETURNING TO THEIR ber from this district is JACOB A. CHRISTY, Esq., of Juniata county.

Hoo Burchening .- This is the season for slaughtering swine; and the squeals of the porkers may he heard in every direction. In neighboring counties, we see by the local papers, farmers and others are now inthe midst of the," hog harvest," and many large, fat swine bave already been slaughter ed, some of them weighing considerably over 500 pounds. What can Cumberland do this season in the way of fat hogs? If any of our country friends have anything to beast of, let us know it, and we will give it publicity.

FIREMEN'S FAIRS .- The Fair of the 'Cumberland Fire Company' commenced on Monday evening of last week, and closed on Monday evening last. It was held in Rheem's the fences and outhouses. It is proposed by some to establish an Agricultural College on one portion of the Hermitage to instruct the children and grandehildren of those who fought under him at New Orleans, and all very file. The Carliele Brass Band, under the direction of Capt. WILLIAM SPAHR, was in attendance, and discoursed most excellent music. We believe the number of visitors was not so large as could have been wished, nevertheless the Managers are satisfied with the result, as the proceeds will go far toward ac complishing the object contemplated. .

The members of the "Good Will" compan will commence operations this evening, and we hope they may realize their most sanguing expectations. They-deserve a "bumper," and doubtless will receive it. Would it not be well for our "Good Will" friends to eschow all gambling transactions at their Fair? CLOWERSEED THOOTHYSEED SPRING BARLEY STATES UNION HOTEL.-This well-known establishment, now under the management of Mr. Jas. W. Power, is one of the most pleasant hotels in Philadelphia. Situated in the midst of the business portion of the city, convenient to all places of public amusement, and midway between the Penn'a. Railroad station and the river, its location affords many facilities in business men who have but a few days in which to make their purchases; whilst the internal arrangements of the house, including the table, the bed chambers, parlors, and the unremitting attention of the worthy proprietor and his assistants, make it peculiarly desirable in every other respect.

THE ICE CROP. - During last week, the streams in this vicinity were frozen over, and the ice, which was about four inches thick, was in excellent order for housing. We believe, however, that none of it was secured and doubtless the recent soft spell has broken it up. The next cold snap should induce our ice dealers to 'make hay while the sun shines, by securing ice while the frost lasts,...

The Howard Association, Philadelphia whose advertisement will be found in another column, enjoys a very high reputation as an honorable and useful Institution. We believe it is well worthy of public confidence.

LOCAL NEWSPAPERS .- The local news paper should be encouraged by every member the community where it is printed. All should aim to strengthen and improve it by their contributions in cash, local items, and everything else which can insure the prosperity or promote its usefulness. Bring in your names, take every occasion to furnish for its columns such items of local news as you think would be acceptable, and find your reward in your own improved interests, which are alway. to a greater or less extent, connected with a healthy and well-conducted local newspapers By sustaining home industry and enterprize, you promote the business prosperity of you respective localities.

LOOK OUT FOR THE BEGGARS .- Our exchange papers from the neighboring counties complain of the impudence and thieving disposition of the many mendicants who are prowling all over the country. Some of thes' Messrs. Ann intend securing the services of a fellows watch an opportunity to visit farmhouses and private dwellings when the male portion of the fainily are absent, and behave in an outrageous manner to the females of the household. In a large majority of cases they of North Hanover street, and the Masonhei. are idle, worthless yagabonds, too lazy to work, if work be offered to them.

CURING HAMS .- At length, the famous "Newbold receipt" for curing hams has been discovered. The old gentleman was very choice of his secret, and preserved it until the turnoil from Philadelphia with a fine assortment of watches, clocks, jewery, and funcy goods, to which he invites the attention of his customers. He claims to have the best lbs. brown sugar 2 zo pearlosh, and four arsortment of clocks ever brought to Carlisle; gallons of water. Boil all together, and seum when cold. Put it on the meat Hams remain in eight weeks-beef three weeks. The above is for 100 ths. weight. The receipt is at least worth trying, and we hope some of our Cumberland county farmers will test it.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS. The qualities of this medicine have placed it u ponan nperishable foundation. In destroying disease, and inducing health it has no parallel.

For the following Complaints these Ritters are a Spo. eific, viz: Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, Heart Burn, Acidity. Costiveness, Loss of Appetito, Headache and General Debility.

In many sections of our country this preparation is xtensively used by physicians in their practice, and it, eems to have restored many to health who were appaently beyond the reach of the healing art. Subjetued are a few tributes from well-known physi-
