PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.

TUESDAY, June 5.

There is a little better feeling in Flour to day and holders generally are less anxious 6 sell: the demand however, is limited, and only atout 250 bbls found buyers, for export, mostly western, at $5.60 for standard superfine, and $5.75 per bbl for extras. The sales to the trade were to a fair extent, within the same range, of prices for superfine and extras, and from $($\pi\) 750 $7 bbls for extra family and fancy brands, as in quality; the recipits are light and the market steady at the above figures. Ryō Flour and Corn Meal einthine inactive, we quote the former at $464 12½ and the latter, Penna Meal, at $3.37½ per bbl, and little or nothing doing. In Wheat there is not much doing, owther to the firmness of holders, who are less anxious to sail to day, and only some 2004@1000 bus hole have been disposed of, at 125@135c. for common and good Penna; reds, and 1406, 154 for white, mostly of the firmer description. Rec is quiet, and in the above coof sales, we quote it at $60. Corn is not so plenty to day, but the demand continues of some $5000 bu, mestly southern yellow; to note at $62. including $700 bu in the caris, at the same price, and 1600 bu fine quality at $65 allost. Oats continue dull gat $2@45 for Penna and 400 for Delaware.

PATENT SELF-TESTING AND SELF SEALING.

These Cans and Jars being perfectly simple in their arrangement, and requiring no cement or solder to make them air tight are the most reliable and convenient vessels that are in the market for preserving Fruits and Vecçtables of all kinds. Fruits and Vegetables of all kinds.

They possess the following advantages over all other Cans and Jars that are in the market:

First—All that is required fifter the fruit is put in hot, is simply to serow the candown tightly.

Second—They can be opened by a flegle turn of the cover, and the contents taken out. In one-fourth the time required by other vessels,

Third—Besides their simplicity and case of adjustment and the impossibility of stoppers blowing out, they show at all times the exact condition of the fruit by simply looking at the top of the cover: If the sum gasket is concave, the fruit is good; if convex, the fruit is good; to spoil, but will always show itself in time to be saved.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE. Heat the glass or stone jars to about the same temperature of the fruit to avoid crarking, and fill the vessel with syrup within one laif inch of the top of the neck, the cover is then put on and simply turned until it is perfectly tight.

Care should be taken to replace the same cover or the jars from which they were removed the jars from which they were removed

An aperient and Stomach preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen Saucioned by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of the disands daily proves that no preputation of from can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost overy conceivable case.

Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tyled, it has praved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

Invalids so long bed-ridded as to have begine forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the basy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant hand. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female Sufferers, emacuted victims of apparent maramus, sangulneous exhaustion, critical changes, and, that complication of nervous and dyspeptic apersion to air and exercise for which the physician has no mane. In Nervors Affections or sit kinds, and for reasons familiar with medical men, the epication of this preparation of from must necessarily be solutary, for unilke the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, withent being exciting and overheating; and againty, regularly apperient, oven in the most obstinate cases of contiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagregable sensation.

In unchecked Diarchica, even when advanced to Dysontory, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, dibiliting cough, and remittent bettle, which generally indicate inciplent Consumption, this remedy has alloyed the alarm of fitends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrodious Tuberculoris, this medicated iron has had for more than the good effect of the most carriously balanced preparations of todine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of foundes cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy, and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In literunatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter however, more decidedly—it has been invariably, well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the wellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fovers it must necessarily be a great romedy and congretic restorative, and its progress in the new synthematics of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

Among the many recommendations that have been given, in favor of Mrs. C. C. Dow's Pressing Macine, and receips, one only will be inserted at the present time. PITTERURUH, Jau. 14th 1800.

Being induced to investigate the merits of the Receipts given by Mrs. Dow, with the sale of her very excellent machine for pressing bonnets, hats &c., I acknowledge myself as wonstande beyond measure, a the wonderful effect, producing what I would have considered an impossibility, had I not seen it demonstrated beyond a doubt, and I sincerely recommend it to the use of all ongaged in the straw, and millinery business as bein one of the greatest imprevements of the age.

YCORMICK'S REAPER AND

MOWER HIGHLY IMPROVED FOR 1860.

Edularized from the first on correct principles, it has always been eminority successful, and with its present improvements fully meeting all the requirements of the are, it now defice all competition:

Farmers who may desire it are at liberty to work one of three Machines know perfectly bainced, not leaving a pound weight on the horses' nock; its execution in resping and mowing, in both wet and dry, is perfect; it cuts the widest swarth, and as now made, with the lightest draft of any machine now in use. It is so constituted that the labor of raking off is very much lightened, a castor wheel, on an entire new principle, on the grain sida, wholly reliaves the horses from the pressure of the machine from strain in turning, and is so arranged that the cutting bar is completely and early thrown over obstructions while in motion by the driver without the use of levers and complicated machinery. A very decided and important feature inits improvement consists in its perfect arrangement for separating and cleaning the track in mowing.

It is the most simple, most substantial, most durable and in every way the most complete and reliable Reaper and Mower in the world, and assuch is Warranted. The Two horses Machine (will used sand in the four Morse Machine).
