A SHALLOW PRETENCE.

The plan adopted, and recommended to the party, by the Demogratic State Central Committee, for the purpose of uniting their forces has not been done with any hope of success in electing either Breckenridge or Douglas ..

The leaders, in both wings of the party, freely admit, with tears in their eyes, that hope is crumfed out; and that the election of Lincoln, is fixed beyond question; nerding but the formality of voting to "put him through." But by the pretended union, they expect to keep up the organization of the party to secure the election of Foster; content to save the Governor, if they loss all else. How certainly they are doomed to disappointment, the elections will determine. The people of Pennsylvania, have had too forcible an example of the effects of locofoco misrulo during the last four years, to forego the present opportunity of hurling them from power.

The investigations of the Covode Committee showing the reckless expenditure of money, on political favorites, to influence elections-The forged naturalization papers of 1856, by which the will of the people was defeated in the election of President-The democratic opposition to the tariff up to the last hours of the session of Congress; and the dismembered state of their party, produced by a contest for men, and the spoils of office, in defiance of principles; all point with unerring finger to the hand-writing on the wall, "Thou art weighed in the balance and found wanting."

THE NATURALIZATION FRAUDS. A week or two ago, we adverted to the testimony of Wm. Karus, of Reading, before the Covode Investigating Committee, in regard to the frauds practiced on the people of Pennsylvania, in the Presidential election of 1856 by the issuing of false naturalization papers From the evidence, it is shown that Mr. Karns. who had several men in his employ received from R. F. Brown of Philadelphia, a package of blank naturalization papers which had been filled up by the Prothonotary of Philadelphia county in 1850, and abstracted from the office The Prothonotary having died, it was presumed that these papers could be used without any danger of detection; and the following letter from Mr. Brown accompanied the package, explaining that the filling up, must be made to correspond with the date of the signature and scal.

Thousands of these are now being used. Westcott offers to bet you a good suit of clothes, that Philadelphia will give a larger majority in October than Berks.

Yours, R.

Mr. Brown denies that he wrote the letter; but Mr. Karns has the original, and make his statement under oath. No doubt, as the letter states, thousands were used, and by this means, the state was given to Mr. Buchanan by forgery and fraud.

THE PHILADELPHIA DAILY NEWS, has run up the flag of Lincoln and Hamlin. The editor concludes a long article on the subject a

"We do not enter this contest as "Repub licans," but as a member of the People's par-- ty, in that spirit of compromise which procured and promoted its organization, and as such, we ask every man who desires a return to that purity which characterized the Admin istration of the Government under Mr. Fillmore to join hands with us, and aid in sweeping from power the most corrupted set of Vandals which ever yet disgraced the Govcroment.

NEW DEMODBATIO PAPER -There is a rumor affect that some of the prominent demo crats of this county, contemplate starting a Breckenridge paper in this county. Come on boys! "The more the manyer." As they have no organ here, this would seem to be a judicious movement on their part.

THE HEADSMAN AT WORK. President Buch. anan has commenced cutting off the heads of the Douglas men, by the removal of George N. Sanders, Navy Agent at New York. Office holders, who are going over to the Douglas side of the fence, had better look out; there's a nigger in the wood pile, and a rail-splitter in the clearing. A supplies to the supplies

The objects of the Republican Party.

Last week we published the speech of Mr. J idency; clearly showing the objects of the days, party, in attempting to displace the Democracy from the position they have so long oc cupied, to their own dishonor, and the injury of the public interests. The following extract from a speech, by the Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, proves that both of our candidates stand on the same platform? "The objects desired by the Republican "The objects desired by the Republicans in the pending election, and the obligations imposed upon our candidates, are, to bring back the government to the principles and practices of its fathers and founders, and to administrate it in the light. administer it in the light of their wisdom and example; to aid our commerce and send it out upon distant seas, and to prepare for its havens in its distress and on its return; to infuse new life and energy into all the productive and industrial pursuits of the whole ntry, for we must not forget that the pros perity of every country must repose upon productive industry—labor it is, and labor alone, that builds and navigates our ships) delves in our mines, makes music in the workshops; clears away the forest, and makes the hillside blossom as the rose. It main-tains our Government and upholds the world in its prosperity and advancement. Surely, then, it should challenge and demand its rights of the Government it thus sustains.— To preserve the integrity of the Union, with the full and just rights of all the States, the States themselves not interfering with the principles of Liberty and Humanity in the critories of the United States outside of their own jurisdiction, and to preserve our original territorial domain for the homesteads of the free—these are the great principles which we have united to sustain and advance. Which we have united to sustain and advance and the sing to all, and our country a refuge in which the man of every creed and clime may enjoy the securities and privileges of institutions of Freedom, regulated only by law.

THE BREACH WIDENING .- The effect of the "split" in the National Convention is becoming apparent in almost every county in the State : the "unterrified " are completely disorganized, and give vent to their disappointment in denouncing each other .-In Philadelphia, the city Election Committee, held a meeting last week to make arrange; ments for a ratification meeting, but a difficulty arose in the committee as to which nomination should be ratified and the consequence was a "split " in the committee. The Douglas portion of the committee numbering ten, made arrangements for a meeting which was held last Saturday evening .-As an offest, the Breckenridge men ordered a meeting for Monday evening.

On Saturday evening, according to the Programme, the Douglas men held a meeting, which was addressed by a large number of persons. Mr. Douglas himself arrived in Philadelphia the same evening, and took lodgings at the Girard House. He was waited upon by a large portion of the meeting, to whom Mr. Douglas made a speech in which he said :-

"I have no political speeches to make during the pending canvass. If my political opinions are not known to the people of the United States, it is not worth while for me to attempt to explain them now. [Applause.] It now remains for the people to take the matter into their own hands, to make such decision of the great issue before the country as will preserve the Constitution inviolate, as the surest and only method of perpetua-ting this glorious Union."

Meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee.

This "august" body met at the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia on Monday last; the object being to adopt some mode of harmonizing the party in this State. A proposition for this purpose was submitted and finally as long as possible, they agree to sacrifice principles forever, in the contest for men .-Therefore

Resolved. That with the view to a perfect union against the common enemy, we recom-mend to the Democracy of Pennsylvania to unite their votes for President on the electoral ticket formed at Reading on the 1st of March; 1860, on the following basis and understanding. "That, if said electoral ticket should be elected by the people, and it should appear, on ascertaining the result in other States of the Union, that, by casting the entire vote of the State of Pennsylvania for S. A. Douglas and A. V. Johnson, it would elect them President and Vice President over Messrs. Lincoln and Hamlin, then said electors shall be under obligations to cast said vote.

"If, on the other hand, it should appear that the said vote would not elect Messrs. Doug-las and Johnson, but would elect J. C. Breckenridge and Joseph Lane, President and Vice President, over Messers. Lincoln and Hamlin, then said vote shall be cast for them; and in case the united vote from Pennsylvania would not elect either of their tickets, then the Electors may divide between them according to their own judgment of what would be best for the country and Demi ocratic party.

"The basis of this united action being that it is the first and highest duty of all Democrats, however they may differ about men and minor points of principles or policy, to and minor points of principles or policy, to unite against a common enemy, and to avert if possible, the greatest calamity that, could hefal the country—the election of a black Republican President.

"And further, the President of this Committee is authorized to correspond with the several Electors of the State and obtain from each of said Electors his written pledge with-in thirty days from this date, that he will faithfully carry out the objects of this reso

The passage of the proposition by such a decided vote, caused a storm of applause in the Committee room, and some considerable the late Senator Broderick, has applied for a emotion among the outsiders, who were anxiously waiting to hear the result.

As soon as it became known, there was some dissatisfaction manifested among some of them, who declared in language more emphatic than classic, that they would not vote any "traitors" ticket.

The forces of the Secessionists, struck with the lorces of the Secessionists, struck will dismay at the pluck of the Douglas Democracy, have dropped intimidation, and now seek, by cunning suggestions, to decoy the latter into a disgraceful compromise. They propose that no Douglas electoral tickets should be run in the South, and in the North to put Breckinglide and Dauglas and upon the electoral ridge and Deuglas men upon the electoral tickets, with a condition annexed by which, if the majority should be for Douglas on the e tickets, or the reverse this to be ascertaine by printing the tickets due peculiar way-the whole vote should be cast in the Electoral College, in December next, in accordance with College, in December next, in accordance with this arrangement.

A more shameless scheme never entered into the head of any one but a dependant of the present corrupt Administration. The friends of Douglas in the North would never touch a ticket soiled with disunion, especially when called upon to vote for Mr. Breckinridge, whose name is used to destroy and degrade their gallant allies in the Southern States.

The ship's bottom is very foul, and an allowance of at least two knots should be made on this account. The voyage was full of interest, and demonstrated her superiority as a sea-going vessel and the reliability and excellence of her machinery. The distance usually steamed from Southampton to Sandy Hook is 3,190 miles, but she avoid any danger from encountering ice.

went further South than the usual route to Her hull is 680 feet long, 83 feet wide, and 60 feet high. She is three feet wider than Main street, and would reach from the corner of Patton's Hotel to Woodward & Schmidt's Warehouse. There are five saloons on the upper deck, and five on the lower. The length of the saloons on the upper deck, is 70 feet, their height being 12 feet. Those on the lower deck are 60 feet in length, and nearly 14 feet in height. The main saloon is 62 feet long, and 36 feet wide: 20 feet of it at one end being set apart for the use of ladies.

The first impression likely to strike a visitor, in passing through the saloon, is, that he s in some fashionable hotel. The idea that he is on board of a ship would not strike him were he unaware of the fact. A noticeable feature of the main saloon is, that two of the great funnels pass through, but so neatly has it been decorated, that it serves more as an rnament than an inconvoulence.

There is room for a comfortable disposition of 4,000 passengers, divided as follows: First class. - - - - 800 Second class, -, - - - - 2,000 Third class, - - - - - - 1,200

Besides these, there is plenty of room for the engineers and crew, numbering three hundred and fifty .- It is estimated that in a case of pressing necessity, ten thousand soldiers President Allen of Girard College, past Grand of every one. could be placed on board and comfortably provided for.

It will be found useful and against the pier, breaking her paddle wheel and doing damage to the amount of several undred dollars.

THE JAPANESE EMBASSY .- The Japanese mbarked for Japan on Saturday last, on board the U. S. Steamship Ningara. They go by way of the cape of Good Hope, and their voyage will last about one hundred days. This visit has been most favorable to them, and they will certainly be able to "astonish the natives," with the wonders of the New World.

The embassy left the Metropolitan Hotel and were escorted to the North river by the common-council committee, the 71st regiment, and the naval Commissioners. After a delightful sail on the Harriet Lane, up the North and East rivers, viewing the Great Eastern and the navy yard on the route, they were placed them adicu. Before leaving the first ambassador had taken off his outer garment or coat, with which he invested Mr. Leland, explaining it as the highest order of Japanese compliment. THE NATIONAL DEMOCRACY. We extract the following items, from the paper: The old National Democratic Committee and of his guilt. Organization here are broken up and aband-oned.—The friends of Mr. Breckenridge and Mr. Douglas have organized separately, and appointed committees entirely distinct and hostile to each, other. The leaders of both interests openly proclaim there is no possibility of compromise between them, and neither side will countenance the efforts making in certain States to run combined electoral tick-ets for the benefit of local politicians who fear o espouse either candidate.

THE WORK OF POLITICAL DECAPITATION. It is currently reported that the Administration immediately begins the work of decap-itating every Federal office holder who sym-pathizes with Douglas. The Executive axe is sharpened and ready for the work. Nevertheless, the Douglas men here are sanguine of success. It is arranged to organize Douglas ticians will remain at this point, in charge of the National Committee rooms. The Breck-enridge men claim New York, Pennsylvania and every Slave State but Missouri, which they give Douglas. So bitter are ilieir feel-ings that they threaten to defeat Hendricks, the Democratic candidate for Governor in Indiana, because of his sympathy for Douglas. FROM CALIFORNIA AND OREGON. Indians have retreated beyond the reach of killed in Carson valley amounts to 80. Judge have a fair trial in San Francisco. The election returns from Oregon indicate the possibility of the election of a Legislature which will choose two Republican Senators. If this news should be confirmed, that th opposition have swept the State of Oregon, we Joe Lane's ambition will have time to cool, before he again rises to the surface.

FOR BRECKENRIDGE .- The Reading Gazette, one of the most influential democratic papers in the State, has run up the Breckenridge flag.. The Reading Adler, familiarily known as the "Berks County Bible," will probably take the same course.

THE UNITY OF PRINCIPLE. The Lancaster Intelligencer, hoists the names of Douglas and Breckenridge both. He reminds us of the sailor in a storm at sea, who prayed "Good Lord," "Good Devil" not knowing whose

From Nebraska. St. John, Dakota county, N. T. June 20, 1860.—The citizens of this county were yesterday startled by the fearful intelligence, received from Mr. Brown, of this county, concerning the massacre of the residents of the town of Niebrarah by the Brule Sioux. He town of Niebrarah by the Brule Sioux. He states that on Thursday assuing. June 14th states that, on Thursday evening, June 14th, the inhabitants of Niobrarah observed a band of Indians approaching the town, crawling upon their hands and feet, for the purpose, it is believed, of setting fire to the houses and of butchering the inmates. Alarm was immediately given, and a party was formed, amounting to fifteen in all, to go out and meet the Indians, thus hoping to prevent a whole-sale slaughter. Upon meeting the red "skin-ed" scoundrels, shots were exchanged, and ed' scoundreis, shots were exchanged, and Mr. Westormen, storekeeper at Niobrarah, fell wounded severely, though bot mortally, in the foot. Two of his associates attempted to carry him to the hotel, but were so closely pursued by the Brule-Sioux that they were oblisued by the Brule Sioux that they were obli-ged to leave him to his fate. The Indians a-gain shot Mr. Westerman, this time mortally, gain snot Mr. Westerman, this time mortally, the bullet entering directly between the ribs, penetrating the lung, below the shoulder blade. The names of the killed are John W. Mathaway, preduce dealer in lefferen Market and ews, produce dealer in Jofferson Market, and John Walton, who recently resided at 258 West Twenty-third street. The name of the murderer we have not learned.

It appears that the deceased persons and the murderer had a quarrel of some nature, and that they accidentally met, at the hourabove named, at the corner of Eighteenth et. and Third avenue. The murderer immediately pointed a pistol at Walton and shot him through the head, behind the ear, and then ran up Eighteenth street to Irving place, and then down Irving place, pursued by Mathows who overtook him near Sixteenth street, when Mathows was turned upon and shot in the breast in the region of the heart "Hefell oxclaiming—"Iam killed!" MISS RICHINGS CONCERT.—Miss Caroline Richings, assisted by her father Mr. P. Richings, Miss O'Connell, Mr. Hill, and Mr. Jarvis, Pianist, gave two of her delightful concerts on the evenings of the 3d and 4th inst. Seldom are we favored with music of such an elevated and refined character, and we canno but believe that these entertainments have a beneficial effect upon the musical taste of the community. Of Miss Richings as a vocalist. our scanty supply of musical terms, fail us in doing her justice; but, her recent efforts have only confirmed the opinion everywhere enterthe present day. The great flexibility, purity and sweetness of her voice, is recognized in the more difficult cavatinas of the Opera, as well as in those gems of English and Scottish song into which she throws so much sweetness and pathos. In her finished execution of the Trill; and the exquisite shading of her voice from the loudest and most powerful tone, to the softest perceptible echo, we can only won der at, and admire the talent and skill which ave achieved such results.

Not only as a vocalist is she entitled to adniration, but in her poetical recitations, her lear enunciation, correct diction, and graceul delivery, disclose beauties in the author which before failed to engage our attention Her dramatic powers are of the highest order, and in the character of the "Daughter of the Regiment," she is the most graceful and charming Vivandier, we could possibly imagino. Of Mr. Peter Richings, it is only necessary

o say, in this connection, that he unites in himself, the characteristics of a gentleman with the highest excellence of histrianic art IN A QUANDARY .- Some of the Democratic and as such, is too well known to need a word of commendation from a pen so humble as ours. Miss O'Connell has a good Alto voice, and was quite effective in the ductt "Alpino Morning;" but in solos, she seems to lack that confidence in her own powers, which, in most cases, is only gained by frequent appearances in public. Mr. Hill is a very fine tenor; and Mr. Jarvis, is popular as a Pianist, in Philadelphia, but his manner at the Piano seems cold and careless, as if it was a disagreeable task to be performed rather than a pleasure enjoyed.

The concert on Tuesday evening, was well attended, but we regret that the excitement sitendant on the celebration of the "4th of July" should have rendered the audience comparatively small on that evening, as the programme was very attractive and all the artists in fine voice and spirits. On Wednesday evening, Miss Richings was serenaded a the Mansion House, and being loudly called for, presented the band a handsome boquet with her acknowledgements.

_ As such elegant entertainments cannot fail to elevate the mind, and cultivate a taste for what is high and noble in the Divine art, we are happy to announce that Miss Richings will give another concert here, about the 1st of September.

Is IT JUST?-We understand that Mr. Blair, Chief Burgess, sent the High Constable to Mr. Richings with a demand for License money, accompanied by a threat that if it was not instantly paid he would prevent him from giving a concert: under this threat the money was at once paid......

We do not believe there is any law for this demand on the part of the borough. The Ordinance will not bear any such construction; and besides, there is that in the position of Miss Richings, and the character of her concerts. which should screen her from any such annoyances.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS .- At a meeting of the Board of Directors of Carlisle, on the 28th ult., the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

RESIGNATION OF THE COUNTY SUPERINTEN DANT .- In consequence of the ill health, Mi D. K. Noell, recently elected Superintendan of the Common Schools, of this County, has resigned his office, as appears by the follow ing card :-

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 30th, 1860. To the School Directors of Cumberland Co. Gentlemen:—Since you so kindly elected me to superintend your schools, I have become afflicted in such a manner, as to render me unfit to discharge the duties of the office efficiently.

I came to Philadelphia for the purpose of undergoing a surgical operation, and find myself in a worse situation than when I left home, as I have no hopes of getting betten in time to enter upon duty, and not willing to cause any hindrance to the welfare of the schools by holding on to office and hoping against hope. There present my resignation. The murderer ran up Sixteenth street towards Fourth avenue, and beenped.

CELEBRATION OF THE 4th AT CARLISLE Outside of the Military and Firemens' parade, there was no arrangement by the citizens for any demonstration; business was gene rally suspended, but, as far as we could learn few of the citizens left town, and the public and private "celebrations" so customary in former years, were entirely abandoned.

At 11 o'clock, three companies of the 1st Regiment of Cumberland Volunteers, the Carlisle Infantry-Capt. McCartney, the Sumner Rifles - Capt. Kuhn and the Junior Cadets-Capt. Parker, formed Battallion, under the command of Col. Penrose, and after marching through the principal streets, remaired to the Fair Ground, where they were inspected by quiet of their homes, others to the Institute, "Major McCartney, Brigade Inspector, and reviewed by Brig. At 12 M. in accordance with the regula tions, a National salute was fired at the Carlisle Barracks.

At 6 o'clock, a special train brought the two fire compatities from Mechanicsburg, who, preceded by the Carlisle Brass Band, in their new Band Wagon, made a very hand some display, as they marched through town. The festivities of the day closed with a torchlight procession at night, in which all the Fire Companies participated. It was the most imposing display of the kind ever got up here; the procession was large and well supplied with torches, and as the companies marched through the streets, to the excellen music of the Barracks Band, they kept up a running accompaniment of rockets and ro man candles. Having gone over the pre scribed route, they adjourned about 10 o'clock in good order.

On the whole, the day was well observed in Carlisle; no accident occurred, nor was there any disturbance of the peace, except in the case of two or three colored individu als, who having imbibed rather too freely of "tangle-foot" whiskey, became belligeren and were locked up.

We heartily endorse the following complimentary remarks from the Volunteer :--"Prof. W. R. LINN, deserves high praisefor the skill and taste displayed in the selection of and arranging the music, and to his per-formance much of the entertainment was due. Under his pupilage and care some of the young ladies were caused to win the highest encomiums of the evening.

We cannot close this article without saying that the Board of Directors are certainly cutitled to the thanks of our citizens for the interest they have taken in our Schools. their care and management our Schools have a reputation far above any others in the State. Our Teachers seem to La fully qualified for their respective situations, and for the last year or two have bestowed an unusual amount of labor in endeavoring to bring their schools to perfection." The only complaint we have heard, in regard to the exhibition, was the crowded state of the Hall, and the disappointment many exper ienced, at not being able to gain admittance. Rheem's Hall will accommodate a much larger number than Education Hall, and as it could have been had without charge, it is a subject of regret that the Directors did not secure it.
