While going down the river Emphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Kever and Agun. On discovering his condition, one of the boatmon took from his preson an Amulet saying, "Wear this and to Fever will found you." Although incredulous as to its virtues; he compiled and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all maiarious complaints.

On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to its miraculous powers and said it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Sometimes afterwards, the gentleman in conversing with a Priest obtained from him the scretch is preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal here were to be found, of which it was compounded. A few facts upon this point all speak more powerfully than volumes of bire assertion or binsoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bit-ters for the last year amounted to ever a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This impures account ters for the last year amounted to over a halfmillion bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the shelding of the most prominent physiciaus in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Blitters to their patients, but, are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements, and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is note temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Blitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other billious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Blitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the steamed, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nuture.

Elderly persons may use the Blitters daily as per direction on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant poculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, the have abandoned all deloterious drugs and fairly tested the
