Meeting at Mount Holly. The friends of Lincoln, Hamlin and Curtin raised a beautiful pole, at Mount Holly, on Saturday afternoon, and in the evening held a large meeting, which was ably addressed by Hon. L. Todd A large delegation of the Wide Awakes attended from town, and made a torch-light procession through the village.

Meeting at Plainfield.

The West Pennsboro' boys, had a rousing meeting at Plainfield on Saturday evening last, R. M. Henderson, C. P. Humrich, and John Hays, Esqre., of Carlisle, were present and addressed the meeting.

The Speech of Carl Schurz.

We publish this week, in an Extra, the speech delivered by Carl Schurz, at Springfield Mass. in January last. First, because it unmasks the hypocricy of Stephen A. Douglas, and refutes his arguments; and secondly, because attempts were made by publishing isolated extracts from it, to misrepresent his meaning. The public have it now before them and can see how much credit is to to the democratic version of it.

Cheering reports come in from all parts of the County. Every Curtin man in the county has become a "Wide Awake." They have found out the trickery, deception and fraud heretofore practiced upon them by the Democrats, and they are determined to rebuke it by a handsome majority for Curtin and the whole County Ticket.

THE RIGHT STRIPE.-A gentleman in this place, a few days ago, 'asked his son, a little fellow some five years old, if he intended to be a printer, " No sir! " said Young America, I'm goin' to be a Wide Awake."]

"" AND THERRBY HANGS A TAIL."-The test argument against Col. Currin is that he ought to be defeated for Governor, because he once killed a dog that bit one of his children.

We would advise the Democrats to "wait for the "waggin'," so as to get a lock of that dog's hair.

THAT FLAG-Early on the morning of the Mass Meeting, a prominent democrat attached three small flags to the Douglas pole, one of which bore the following inscription: "WE WILL TRADE OUR DUTCH AND

IRISH FOR YOUR NIGGERS. NIGGERS ARE RELIABLE VOTERS. FOREIGNERS ARE NOT. "

We hope the Germans and Irishmen of this county, will not forget that inscription when they go to vote.

TRANSPUL FOR SMALL FAVORS .- We see in one .. of our Democratic Exchanges, the astounding fact that three men have recently joined the Douglas party, in Indiana.

That must be a tremendous National organization, which counts its converts by twos and threes.

The Meeting at Harrisburg

The meeting at Harrisburg, on Wednesday evening was an immense affair, rivalling in numbers and enthusiasm, the monster mee tings of 1840. An extra train of 13 passenger cars, took large delegations from various points along the Cumberland Valley, including nearly two hundred Wide Awakes, from Carlisle and Mechanicsburg, fully equipped. A meeting was held in Brandt's Hall, where Carl Schurs, spoke for over two hours in German. Another meeting was also organized in front of Coverly's Hotel, which was addressed by Hon. Frank Blair, Jr., of Missouri, Hon. L. Todd and others. During the speaking, the Wide Awakes, numbering nearly five hundred, including about pixty mounted men, made a terch-light procession through the city, presenting a very novel and brilliant spectacle. The streets in the neighborhood of Market Square, were jammed with people, and good erder and good feeling generally prevailed .-We regret to say however, that one of the Carlisla Wide-Awakes was severely cut in the head, by a stone thrown at the procession during the march through the streets, and was obliged to go to a drug store to have his wound dressed. The visitors from Carlisle reached home safely about half-past 12 o'clock.

OUR MASS MEETING. "OLD MOTHER CUMBERLAND."

VICTORY." The Mass Meeting at Carlisle, on Friday ast, was one of the largest, and most enhusiastic demonstrations ever witnessed in Cumberland County. The people were out in their might, from all parts of the County, and the spirit displayed on this occasion, was a fair indication of the victory which awaits us in October. The rain of the day previous, had caused some to fear that the weather of Friday might be unpropitious, but fortunately, the sun rose clean and bright, and at an early hour, the people began to pour in from all quarters, in carriages, while the cars, both east and west, brought large accessions. About 11 o'clock, the West Pennsboro', Monroe and South Middleton delegations came in, escorted by the Wide Awakes, and made a very imposing display, as they filed through the town. Their wagons, carriages and horses were gaily decorated with flags and evergreens, and as the procession passed along, it was saluted with loud cheers, from the crowds which lined both sides of the street. .. About 1 o'clock, the delegation of Dickinson "Rail-Splitters" made their appearance, which had the effect of increasing the excitement to the highest pitch. The Dickinson men had three wagons, hahed together, drawn by a team of fourteen horacs The wagons had a frame work erected, which large flags were attached, forming a canopy over them. On the rear wagon a rail-splitter, was busy at work, and the three wagons were loaded with a determined look ing body of men, who seemed as if they could not only split rails, but maul democrats.

A stand had been erected, for the officers o the meeting, and the speakers, at the south side of the First Presbyterian Church, and at 2 o'clock, the meeting was organized by the election of the following officers:

Col. A. G. CURTIN, our candidate for Governor, next took the stand and his appearance was greeted with hearty cheers. His speech was confined mainly to the cause of human freedom, and the elevation of free labor. His appearance indicated that the labor of the campaign, is having its effect on his system, and his voice is so worn, that he speaks with great difficulty. Yet, he looked "every inch man," and his eloquent appeals for the protection of free labor, will not soon be forgotten by those who had the pleasure of hearing him. He commenced with a beautiful tribute to Carlisle, and the localities surrounding it; as the place around which clustered, some of the most pleasant associations of his youth, when, as a law student, under the able direction of the late Judge Reed, he had acquired his legal ducation. After indulging in these recolections for some time, he branched off to the

After a humorous song, appropriate to the occasion, composed and sung by Prof. McKennan, of West Pennsboro', the meeting adjourned, to meet n the Court House, at 7 o'clock.

In the evening, the court room was filled o suffocation, the crowd all anxious to hear the celebrated, german orator, Hon. Cana Souunz, of Wisconsin. During the speaking in the Court House, the Harrisburg Wide Awakes, numbering about 120, under the command of Cap. Eyster, the lechanicsburg Wide Awakes, who mustored about 40, and the Carlisle Wide Awakes, numbering about 80, under Capt. Todd, formed a torch light procession, and marched through several of the streets, making the finest dis play that has ever-been witnessed in Carlisle. After Mr. Schurz had concluded in German, he spoke in English; and alluded to the garbled extract from his speech at Springfield, which had been published in several Democratic papers, including the Volunteer, intended to convey the idea that he had denounced the Declaration of Independence, as a diplomatic dedge. Her said he seldom noticed these personal attacks, for their insults never could rise to the level of his sovereign contempt. But, he felt constrained to notice this and therefore read extracts from the speech in-connection with the one alluded to, showing how its true meaning had been perverted He then stated that Mr. Bratton had called on him in the evening to apologize, and had told him that he never read the speech, but having seen the article in a Harrisburg paper he had copied it, without intending to do him any injustice. At this point Mr. Bratton stepped forward, and in an excited manner denied that he had made an apology, out admitted the interview. To this Mr. Schurz replied, that as Mr. Bratton had aditted the injustice of the article, if he did make an apology, he ought to have made one. The interruption caused a good deal of confusion and excitement. Order was at by Democratic editors, and closed with a gloious appeal for the preservation and integrity of the Union. After Mr. Schurz had concluded, loud calls were made for the Hon. John C. Kunkle, of Harrisburg, who promptly took the stand and ommenced his speech with an eloquent tribute to the high position, commanding talents and glowing patriotism of Carl Schurz; and after administering a scathing and well merited rebuke, to the editor of the Volunteer, he passed on to the general topics of the campaign, in which he electrified the audience with the force of his arguments, and the elo quence and beauty of his remarks .- His

the last whistle of the locomotive warned him that the cars were moving. During the march of the Wide Awakes, they halted in front of the residence of J. Brown Parker, and serenaded Col. Curtin, who presented himself at the door, and acknowledged the compliment, in a brief speech, thanking the Wide Awakes, for the demonstration they had made, and giving full credit to the organization, for the power and influence exerted by them in this campaign; to which Hon. L. Todd, Captain of the Carlisle Wide Awakes, esponded in a brief and appropriate speech. About I'l o'clock, the extra train for Harrisburg, left town amid the cheers of the hundreds in the square, who had assembled to see them off, when the lights were extinguished and every one dispersed quiet and orderly to their homes. The Harrisburg Wide Awakes, added much to the torch light display; the members were well supplied with roman caudles, which were discharged along the route, giving increased brilliancy to the parade, while their gentlemanly deportment and precision in marching, were the theme of univer-

It is, well known that Mr. Bailey, after serving a term, as a democratic State Sen tor, was elected State Treasurer by a Democratic Legislature. Before the close of that year, the Know Nothings overran Pennsylvania, and carried a large majority of the Legislature. No sooner did Mr. Bailey find hat the Demograts were powerless, to electhim for another year, than forgetting his ancient democratic faith, his sympathy for for eigners, and his repugnance to "Sum," and intent only in retaining the Treasurership, he posted off to Lancaster, was initiated into he Know Nothing order, and came back to Harrisburg, intensly "American." He consted to the Know Nothing members, that e was "all right;" he swore by "Sam, " and so anxious was he that the Legislature should put none but Americans on guard," that he sent his name into the Caucus as a Know Nothing candidate for State Treasurer, and was complimented with two votes. MYLANE'S LIVER PILLS,

Der Whon the proprietors, Fleming, Bros., of Pitts burgh, Pa., of this invaluable remedy purchased it of the inventor, there was no medicine which deserved it name, for the cure of nervous and billious complaints not withisheding the great prevaience of these diseases in the United States. In the South and West particularly, where the patient is frequently unable to obtain the services of a regular-physician, some remedy was required, at omee after and effectual rand the operation of which could'in no wise prove prejudicial to the constitution. This medicine is supplied by Dr. M'Lane's Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros. of Pittsburgh, as has been proved in every instance in which it has had a trial. Always beneficial, not a solitary instance has ever occurred in which its effects have been rigurious. The invention of an educated and distinguished physician, it has nothing in common with the quase nostrums imposed upon the public by shallow preteneers to the medical art. Experience has now proved beyond a doubt, that Dactor M'Lane's Pills is the best remedy ever proposed for the Liver Complaint.,

The Purchasers will be exercial to ask for Dr. M'Lane's genuine Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuce, oan now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS. M'LANE'S LIVER PILLS.

DISPERSIA! DISPERSIA!! DISPERSIA!!! What is it Movimed? Dyspersia is our National Disease—weak stonach, feeble digestion, distress after eating, creative habit, billious condition. How many suffer with it and its attendant symptoms of low spirits, but date, conted tongue, obstupified head, and attacks of headache! Yet how few know how to care! (inpensity, because Yet how few know how to cure! Generally, because the bowless are constituted, resort is had to catharite or laxatives. But such a condition was never tured by catharites, whose only-folice-is to weaken the direction, and impair the integrity of the entire assimilative system.
