ed stages of the latter disease.

The Balsamic Cordial is entirely a Vegetable production, combining the healing properties of the Balsam, with the invigorating qualities of a Cordial, producing a combination so well adapted to the purposes intended, that there are built few cases of disease which will not, at an early period, succumb to its healing and life giving properties.

For ages, has the treatment of pulmonary diseases occupied the greater portion of the attention of the scientific of the medical world, but rome acquired more eminence iff his treatment of these diseases, than the celebrated Prusslan Dr. Hoortanb, the originator of the Balsamic Cordial. His life was devoted to the production of remedie that would stand unitivaled. How well he has succeeded, the American people are able to judge: and we positively assert, that no preparations that have ever been placed before them, have conferred the same amount of bonefits on suffering humanity, or have elicited so many commendations from all classes of society, as the remedies of Dr. Hoofand, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., of Philadelphia.

Page. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Liw School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to ma, commenced failing off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my sturn to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintaness were not so much at a loss to discover the cause o. the change in my appearance, as my more the cause o. the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintanees were to recognize me at all. I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but, receiving no assurances from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunate ly, in the latter part of the year 1857, your lest-orative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time, I have used seven dollars' worth of your Rostorative, and as a result have a rich cost of very soft black-hair, which no money can buy.
