Plans of the Confederate Leaders. We find in the Ohio Statesman a sketch a speech made by Hon. Alexander H. Stephen-Vice President of the Confederate States, at Atlanta, Georgia, on the 23d ult. It is important only in the fact stated without qualification, that President Davis is coming on to take personal community of the army in Virginia, and in certain other things which may be inferred from Mr. Stephens' language, among which the reader will notice the intimation that there may not be an attack on Fort Pickens, but that the efforts of the Confederate authorities will be directed towards Harper's Ferry and the Federal army now con centrated on the Potomac. The following are

"My Fellow Citizens-The time for speech making has passed. The people have heard all that can be said. The time for prompt, rigorous, decisive action is upon us, and we must do our duty. Upon the surface, affairs appear to be quiet, and f can give you no sat isfaction as to their real condition. It is true that threats of an attack on Pensacola have been made, but it is uncertain whether any attack will be made. As you know an attack was made on Sewall's Point, near Norfolk. but the vessel making it was repulsed and disabled. But the general opinion and indi-cations are that the first demonstration will John Brown inaugurated his work of slaugh ter, will be fought a fierce and bloody battle. As for myself, I believe that there the war will begin, and that the first boom of cannon that breaks upon our ears will come from that point. But let it begin where it will, and be as bloody and prolouged as it may, we are prepared for the issue! * * * *

"The North is fast drifting to anarchy and an established despotism. On you, therefore, as citizens of the Confederate, States, depend the success and perpetuation of constitutional liberty for the day is not far off when freedom will exist only south of Mason and Dixon's line, and your stout arms and brave hearts her only support on all this continent. We prefer and desire peace if we can have it; but if we cannot, we must meet Liucoln and his myrmidons on their own ground and on their own terms -- on constitutional princi-

So far our progress has been all that we could expect. A Government has been organized, Executive Departments are supplied, all needful laws passed, and all necessary arrangements made to meet any contingency. At the head of our Government is President Davis - who led the Mississippi Rifles at Bue na Vista-and whose flag never yet trailed in the dust This noble and true son of the South goes to Richmond to take command in person of our soldier's there, and to lead upon the battle field against all the military power and talent they can summon - even to their veteran chieftain, General Scott himself.

"Whether brought to a bloody conflict or not, we are prepared. Our people everywhere are full of enthusiasm and strong in their determination never to submit to the rule of Lin-Fathers, and mothers, and sisters are all ready, and doing all they can in aid of the cause. We are in the right, and justice is upon our side. We must succeed. The same God who guided our fathers in the bloody Revolution, and who made the glory of the late United States, is yet upon the side of right and justice. Relying upon Him who holds the destinies of all-nations in His hands, we will go forth to battle, resolved to conquer or

To Consumptives. Persons of a consumptive tendency have need to be very careful in the outset of a cough, and betake them selves in time, to a proper remedy. A cough is always evidence of irritation in the threat and lungs, resulting from obstruction of the skin. In order to present these from obstruction of the skin. In order to pre ront these attacks, wen flannel next the skin, guard the feet from dampand wet, and above all, take Dr. Keyser's Pectoriticage by the graph upon the first approach of a cough or sore throat, and check the disease thereby in its intancy. There is nothing like attacking disease on its first approach. By due attention to this advice you will save much suffering and sometimes prolong life. Even whon consumption has become seated, this medicine will mitigate the suffering and has cured some very bad cases Sold by S. ELLIOTT, Carlisle, Pa. GA

THE GREAT CLOTHING EMPORIUM OF THE Union.—Philadelphia possesses the most splendid Clothing Emporium in the rountry. It is splendid as regards the palatial structure in which the immense business of the establishment is conducted, and it is equally splendid in respect to its great facilities and vast resources. But to its patrong its clief attractions are, first, the biegance of the garments for Gentlömön and Youths, manufactured there; secondly, the beauty and durability of the materials, and the superior oxcellence of the fit, and lastly the moderate prices at which the goods are sold. We refer, in this description, to none other than the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestuut Bireet, above 6th, Philadelphia.

AS COUGHS.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial, and Astimatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early, stages of the disease, recourse-should, at once be had to "Hrown's Bronchial Truches," or Lozunges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat 19 ever so slight, as by this precaution's more serious attack may be warded off. Incipient Consumption, and for the relief and (if at all possible) cure of Palients in advance ed stages of the latter disease.

ced stages of the latter disease.

The Balsamic Cordial is entirely a Vegetable production, combining the healing properties of the Balsam, with the invigorating qualities of a Cordial, producing a combination so well adapted to the purposes intended, that there are but few cases of disease which will not, at an early period, succumb to its healing and life giving properties.

For ages, has the treatment of pulmonary diseases occupied the greater portion of the attention of the scientific of the medical world, but room acquired more eminence in his treatment of these diseases, than the celebrated Prussian Dr. Hooptann, the originator of the Balsamic Cordial. His life was devoted to the production of the same amount of bonofits on suffering humanity, or have elicited so many commondations from all classes of society, as the tremdles of Dr. Hooftand, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., of Philadelphia.

The Cordial is designed for a class of diseases more general and more fatal than any other to which the people of this country are subject—those springing from a "stiont coto." That eminent authority. Dr. Bell, says: "I will not say that Colds to our inhabitants what the Placus and Yellow Reversare to those of other countries; but I can avor confidently that they usher in disease of greater complicity and mortality than thase latter."

tive will restore the bald and gray, and preserve the hair of the youth to old age, in all its youthful beauty.

Buttle Creek, Mich., December 21st, 1868.
Prov. Wood: Thee will please accept a line to inform they that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years age, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an oruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I shad on earth for a two dollar bottle of thy Hair Restorative, about the first of August last. I have sittlefully followed the directions and the hald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short, it is also coming in all diver my head. Feeling confident that another large bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anylous to purchase any more, I would ask thee if thee woulds not be willing to send me an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture declaration—"the reward is to those that are kind to the widow and the fatherless."

Paor. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir:—In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending the State and National Liw School of the State ot New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced failing off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was almest entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the stide and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual accountraces were not so much at a loss to discover. upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintaines were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognize me at all. I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but, receiving no assurances from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunate ly, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time, I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result have a right cout of very soit black hair, which no money have a righ coat of very soit black hair, which no m
