Battle Creek. Mich., December 21st, 1859.

Prop. Wood: Thee will please accept a line to inform thee that the hair on my head all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, at a tended with an eruption on the head. A continual course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence. I have not been able to obtain stuff for caps, neither have I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered extremely from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bittle of thy Hair Restorative, about the first of August last. I have istithfully followed the directions and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short, it is also coming in all over my head Feeling confident that angitge large bottle would restore it enthely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destitute of means to purchase any more, I would ask thee if thee wouldst not be willing to send me an order on thine agents for a bottle, and receive to thyself the scripture declaration—"the reward is to those that are kind to the widow and the fatherless."

DR. HOOFLAND'S BALSAMIC CORDIALI

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Croup, Hoarse-ness. Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Diseases of the Bowels, arising from Cold, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief and (if at a.l possible) cure of Patients in advanced stages of the latter disease. The Balsamic Cordial is entirely a Vegetable production, combining the healing properties of the Balsam, with the invigorating qualities of a Cordial, producing a combination so well adapted to the purposes intended, that there are but few cases of disease which will not, at an early period, succumb to its healing and life giving properties. not, at an early period, succumb to its healing and life giving properties.

For ages, has the treatment of pulmonary diseases occupied the greater portion of the attention of the scientific of the medical world, but none acquired more eminence in his treatment of these diseases, than the celebrated Prussian Dr. Hoortand, the originator of the Balsamic Cordial. His life was devoted to the production of remedie that would stand unrivalled. How well he has succeeded, the American people are able to udge: and we positively assert, that no preparations that have ever been placed before them, have conferred the same amount of benefits on suffering humanity, or have elicited so many commendations from all classes of society, as the remedies of Dr. Hoofland, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., of Philadelphia.

The Cordial is designed for a class of diseases more general and more fatal than any other to which the people of this country are subject—those springing from a "sumar coid." That eminent authority. Dr. Bell, says: "I will not say that Coids to our inhabitants what the Placuz and Yellow Feyera are to those of other countries; but I can aver confidently that they usher in disease of greater complicity and mortality than these latter."
