Delegate Elections and County Con-

The members of the Republican Union Party of Cumberland county, and all others willing to unite with them in support of the Goverament in its efforts to put down armed rebellion, are requested to meet at their usual places of holding elections in the several Wards, Boroughs and Townships, (except in East Pennsborough township, in which the election will be held at the public house of Benjamin Clay. West Fairview,) on Saturday the 7th of September, next, to elect two delegates from each Ward, Borough and Township, to represent them in a County Convention to be held at the Court House in Carlisle, on Monday' the 9th day of September, next, at 11 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a County Ticket and a candidate for the Legislature, and to appoint conferees to meet similar conferees from the other counties of the 9th Judicial District. Said delegate elections will be held between the hours of 6 and 9 o'clock, P. M., in the Boroughs, and between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock, P. M., in the Townships.

By order of the County Committee, GEO ZINN. Chairman.

THE UNION TICKET.

A random shot has unearthed the editor of the Volunteer, who comes out "flat footed" against any effort to form a Union ticket. He assigns two reasons for the course - First, he is confident that the Democratic ticket can be elected, and -Second, he says

"We want our opponents to stand where they are-we will have nothing to do with them, except to expose the villainies they have been guilty of. The people want information ese subjects, and we intend to gratify them as far as possible.

Very well Mr. Volunteer. Crack your whip, and go ahead. "But remember, we want no vague charges, unsupported by facts. Your remarks are aimed at men now at the head of public affairs who are honestly, as we believe, engaged in an earnest effort to preserve the Union, the constitution and the laws, against a set of political rascals in the South, whose vaulting ambition prompts them to pull down the temple of our liberties, though they should be crushed in the fall. If these men are to be denounced as incompetent and fraudulent. their influence weakened, the confidence of the army in their ability destroyed, and our cause put in jeopardy thereby, it must be done on evidence clear and umistakeable, or the men engaged in it, will be held to a fearful responsibility in the future.

SPIES NABBED.

On Wednesday, Gov. Curtin received a dispatch, stating that three men had crossed the Potomac, and went in the direction of Hagerstown. Information was given to the Mayor of Harrisburg, who had a police force in waitng, at the Depot, on the arrival of the Cumberland Valley train. The men were arrested. and gave their names as Thos. J. Carson, formerly of Mew York, lately of Baltimore, W. M. Pegram, of Baltimore, and W. J. Kelly, who claimed no particular residence. Carson had a pass from Gen. Jas. Cooper, Pegram one from W. H. Seward, both dated in June, and Kelly a pass signed by the British Consul at Cieufuegos. The men were searched; on Carson were found several passes signed by rebel officers, which he said he had got to enable him to see after his property. Pegram had several letters addressed to residents in Baltimore, from residents in Virginia, but they contained nothing of a military character. Kelly was next searched; being stripped to his shirt, nothing suspicious was found, and the Mayor was about closing the case, when one of the officers imagining something suspicious about his shirt, ordered him to take it off. Kelly finding that he was detected, turned pale and called for water. The shirt was filled with pockets on the inside, which were sealed up. These were opened and found to contain an immense numher of letters from the South -some from men in the rebel army to their friends in Baltimore -others to men in New York, and a number for Europe. In addition to this, there were various bills of sale, dated at Richmond, 'for pork and other articles, and large packages of money, principally in notes on banks in the Confederate States.

The money found on Kelly was deposited in the State Capital Bank, and the letters and papers were handed over to the Attorney General. The Secessionists were placed in jail. where they will remain until the Federal authorities take charge of them.

Robbery in the Dead Letter Office.

The Rev. Theophilus Fiske, a clerk in the Dead Letter Office, at Washington, has been detected in purloining money from the letters, and promptly discharged. Mr. Fiske has been alternately a Universalist preacher, an editor. a lecturer on Psychology, and perhaps, at all times a humbug. When he entered the Dead Letter Office, we do not know; but from the prominence given to it, by our neighbor of the Volunteer, in an edilorial article this week, we deem it necessary to say that the Rev. Theophilus Fiske, is a democrat, that he always was a democrat and he always will be a democrat, unless the Lord gives him grace for repentance.

What does it Mean? The New York Day Book, an open and avowed sympathizer with Southern traitors, is doing more to foster and prolong this rebellion, than the most ultra secession print in the South. So infamously traitorous has it become, that the Grand Jury of New York have presented it as a public nuisance; and yet, a large package of these papers were recently received by Mr. Swiler, the acting Post Master at Hoguestown, for gratuitous circulation. What does it mean? Silver Spring is known to be the largest democratic township in the county. Is there a secret compact between the democrats and the secessionists to divide the North, so as to give the South an easy victory? A Southern traitor may have ambition and bad whiskey to pulliate his offence; but, a Northern traitor is a natural tory, "dyed in the wool."

"Eyes Right."

Our "impracticable" neighbor of the Amerscan, thinks we have at last "opened our eyes sufficiently to see things as they are." That's so! They are just opened wide enough to see that a man may sometimes consider himself the "hub," of the county, when in reality he is only a fly on the wheel.

Union Governor for Maryland -A Union State Convention for Maryland, met at Baltimore on Thursday, and nominated Augustus 6. Bradford, as candidate for Governor of Maryland. He is an unconditional and uncompromising Union man, as firm and reliable as C v Hieles !!

THE JUDGESHIP. Among the various offices to be filled at the next election, that of the Judgeship, is of paramount importance. It is no light matter to elexate a man to the judicial bench, whose province it is, for a period of ten years, to expound the law and dispense justice between nan and man. It is an office, as far as pracicable, to be kept outside the arena of poliics; and therefore, in making a selection, either personal preference nor party fealty, hould be permitted to bias the mind in relaion to it.

Without intending any disparagement to the gentlemen who have been named in connection with that office, either of whom we will cheerully support if nominated, we may be pernitted to say that the Hon. FREDERICK WATTS, n his character as a citizen, his experience as which should be neither overlooked nor disegarded.

We are authorized to state that the name of Judge Warrs will be presented to the County of the national government.

Since writing the above, the following corespondence has been placed in our hands: PERRY COUNTY, Aug. 17, 1861. Hon. FRED'R. WATTS:

Dear Sir-As the Judicial term in this disrict will soon expire, and the place of the present incumbent will have to be filled at our nsuing election, would you be kind enough to let us know whether you will permit the use of your name as a candidate for that responsible situation. We, as individuals, have always believed that the selection of President Judge should ever be made exclusively on the ground of merit, legal ability and experience, without reference to politics or political creed. and that the Judge should enter upon the discharge of his solemn duties untrammeled by politics, party power, or influence. Believ ing you to be the most suitable person, from your age and experience, for this exalted position, we would be pleased to have your views on this subject, and if consistent with

To J. R. McCLINTOCK and others, Gentlemen: Lahave your letter of the 17th inst. My instincts and feelings dictate to me an aversion to be a party in a political contest; e pecially as connected, with a judicial office. and more especially at a time when party strife should be merged in the common effort of all good men to sustain the Government and Laws. But I am not at liberty to prescribe the mode in which the people shall select their candi dates; and I am sure it will not be either required or permitted that I should degrade the office by personally entering into a political contest for its attainment. I assent to the use of my name. I am very Respectfully

Riot at Easton.

On Monday last, the office of the Sentinel a Easton, was destroyed by a mob, on account of its supposed sympathy with the Southern ebellion. The member elect to Congress from that district (Col. Philip Johnson,) was burned in effigy and made to show his colors. On Tuesday, the office of the Jeffersonian at West Chester, was also entered by six men. and all the type pitched into the street, there by effectually suppressing the paper. The whole affair was managed without noise or dis turbance. We have not seen a number of the Jeffersonian for months, but it is stated in other papers that it was strongly denunciatory of the policy of the Government.

We are opposed to mob law under all circumstances, and hope that no further exercise of it will be necessary to convince men, who are in danger of letting their politics get shead of their discretion, that in this bour of peril to the Union, there must be no divided North.

AID AND CONFORT. -- The Breckinridge State Committee of New York met at Albany, on Thursday, and adopted a series of resolutions. against the course of the Administration; in favor of an armistice with the rebels, and of a Convention for the adjustment of the national difficulties. They do not say how they pro pose to adjust these difficulties, but the inference is that the North is to consent to be bul lied and subjugated! - It is just such meetings and such talk as this, that gives the South all its strength.

. Direct Taxation.

The bill recently passed by Congress makthis time:-DIRECT TAXATION.-We shall publish, as bill, levying a direct National Tax. The portion of Pennsylvania, under that bill, is $1,950,000 in round numbers. It is optional with the State authorities to collect this for the Government or not. If the State and collecting the full sum without abate-

We can see no good reason why the State awyer and his integrity as a man, presents should not undertake the collection of this laims to the voters of this judicial district, tax. She has the complete machinery of as sesment and col ection in her own hands, and can make the collection of it much less burdensome and unpleasant to the people than a separate system would be on the part made if the State undertakes the collection, would reduce the tax to $1,656,000 -but little more than the sum low annually raised by State Tax. The valuation for State purposes upon which the State Tax is levied, is $564. 000, 000. The tax on incomes and bank corporation profits, levied under this act o $356,000, leaving $1,300,000 to be raised on real estate, and a tax of 21 mills on the State valuation will yield that amount.

1f, therefore, the State undertakes the collection of this tax , as she undoubtedly should do, it can be raised by a levy not exceeding 21 mills upon our present val uation; while, if the task be put into the hands of a swarm of national officers, we should have a new valuation, the annoyance of new asses sors and collectors, and the assurance of heavier rates.

The national tax is confined to a tax upor real estate and a tax upon the incomes of persons and corporations. The tax upon real estate is not fixed; thatou incomes is. The latter is 3 per cent, upon the net profits of all corporations and upon all personal in comes over $800 a year. The amount to be raised in each State is fixed by the law; and after the tax on incomes is ascertained, in any one State, the remainder of its quota. whatever that may be, is to be raised by a levy upon real estate. Thus the quota of Pennsylaania is $1,950,000, less the 15 per cent, if the State undertakes to collect it. If the tax on corporation profits and incomes reaches $356 000, as we have estimated, the remainder will have to be borne by the own ers of real estate. The banking capital of the State is in round numbers, $26,000.000. If this yields 6 per cent. profit, say $1,560,000, a 3 per cent. tax upon that will yield $46,800; but a portion of this is held out of the State, and will therefore pay 5 per cent, which may bring the amount up to 50,000. The prof its of other corporations will not, probably exceed that of the banks; and we may therefore set down $100,000 as the probable a mount of the tax to be levied, by this bill upon corperations.

What the tax upon incomes will yield it is hard to guess. The number of those whose incomes exceed $800 is comparatively small, and, in a State like Pennsylvania, very few will be found outside of the city. We have s sumed that it will yield $256,000, annually, and that it will require very sharp assessing to bring it up to $300,000. That sum presupposes the existence of 10,000 persons the State whose incomes average $1,000 each, over and above the $800 exempted from taxation; and it will require sharper ssessors than any the State has yet had to cast an eye to our home interests, especially to the administration of the laws our efficient. The tax has been allotted to the State and government and gallant army are battling so it will have to be paid; and the question to nobly to maintain. Permit me, therefore, as the time is rapidly approaching for the scleotion of a candidate for President Judge of the methods of collection. It is a subject for

The War for the Union.

After a few days of a parent calm, the papers of Monday brought startling intelligence to the effect that the rebels were preparing their forces to invade Maryland, preparatory to an attack on Washingtonr This idea was strengthened by the following order issued from the War Department.

WAR DEPARTMENT. Washington, Aug. 19, 1861. All commanders of regiments of volunteers ccepted by this Department, in the States of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut. Massachusetts, Vermont, Rhode I-land, New Hampshire, Maine and Michigan. Governors of the States above named, which

To the Governor of the State of -By direction of the President of the United States you are urgently requested to forward, or cause to be forwarded immediately to the city of Washington, all volunteer regiments or parts of regiments, at the expense of the U. in your State, whether under your immediate are armed, equipped or uniformed or not. The officers of each regimental organization that may not be full shall have recruiting officers at their several rendezvous, and adopt such other measures as may be necessary to fill up their ranks at the earliest date possible. All officers of volunteer regiments on their arrival shall report to the commanding general, who will provide equipments and other sup-plies necessary for their comfort. To insure the movement of troops more rapidly than might otherwise be done, you will please confer with and aid all officers of independent re giments in such manner as may be necessary to effect the object in view. Clothing or supplies belonging to or contracted for the several regiments shall be forwarded to Washington for their use, detailed reports of which shall be made to the commanding general. SIMON CAMERON. Secretary of War.

This order addressed to the Governors of the several States named, has met with a hearty headquarters of the different military organizations evinced great activity, and the work of ecruiting for the regiments now forming, progressed rapidly. No doupt the order, whether Washington is in immediate danger or not, will have the effect of placing in the hands of men who talk about the expenses of the war, the Commander in Chief, a large force of men blaming the Confederates for bringing the ex to be organized into regiments and brigades

It is known that two were killed and five wounded. Our men escaped unhurt.

The Confederates are still hovering on the outskirts of Harper's Forry, watching the ovements of our troops.

Lower Maryland is represented to be more and more given over to secession, and it has been determined to place a sufficient armed force in that locality to keep the symphathisers in check. Rumors are again current of a raising of slaves in the lower part of Maryland, and ntmatious are freely given out, if an invasion of that point is attempted by the confederates, that the government will forthwith take part with the slaves, and set them at liberty. Washington, August 20 .- The question of an xchange of prisoners with the rebels is still mooted, but the President continues tirm; against any action looking to a rec ognition of therebels as a 'beligerent Power.' The arrest of Pierce Butler in Philadelphia. charged with treasonable conduct, is the result of a deliberate purpose to put down treason in the loyal States. The secessionists in lower Maryland will soon be watched by a competent force of

be on active duty.

As much has been said about the attitude of the European Powers threatening the blockade, after special inquiry at the State Department, their is authorny for saying that in the instance when the Ningara was off the station of Charleston for twenty four hours Lord Lyons brought the subject to the notice of the United States government .--With that exception, which happened twelve weeks ago, no foreign government has expressed a word of discontent towards this government encerning the blockade. On the country, it is universaly respected by foreign governments, although some of their sub evade the blockade, and very clamorous against it.

ARRESTED .- Pierce Butler, a rich citizen of Philadelphia, and known to the world some vears back as the husband of Fanny Kemble Budler, has been arested by order of the State Department and sent to Fort Hamilton. New York. It is stated that Pierce Butler's arrest was caused by intercepted letters from him, giving information to the Confederates. The arrest of Pierce Butler to day was followed by the arrest of Hon. Wm. B. Reed, late Minister to China; George M. Wharton, late United States District Attorney; Charles Brown, ex Collector of this port, and David Maryland Transferred to the Con-federacy.

The latest assumption of the remarkably unambitious gentlemen who have expressed a wish to be "let alone," is an "act of Congress extending the military organization of the Con-federate States over Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky, and Missouri!" Now we should think the bare announcement of such an act as this -an act in plain defiance of recently expressed public sentiment in each of these States, and in open violation of the Constitu tion—would almost "take away the breath" of every strict Constituionist in our midst — But so far as we can learn, not only has no such thing happened, but the announcement has been received with a degree of self complacency and gratulation marvellous to behold. will take notice of and contorm promptly to the general order this day directed to the had the Frederick engineers could not "drag" the general order this day directed to the had the Frederick engineers of the order than the frederick engineers at Richmond us out, may be their co workers at Richmond can succeed in "taking us in," and so Governor Hicks and the Union men of the State

QUALIFICATIONS FOR OFFICERS -The board recently appointed for the examination of volunteer and army officers have resolved upon a standard of qualifications, as follows:

"Field officers must understand all that is required of company officers, and also he able to answer questions regarding evolutions of line, proper conjunctors, the elements of mili-tary engineering, the circumstances under which the use of field artillery is proper, and other such collateral interrogations as the board of examiners think proper to propose. TREATMENT OF SOLDIERS .- A Board of Examiners has been constituted at Wash ington, by order of the War Department, to examine all officers as to their military qualifications, and those who are found deficient are permitted to resign. This regulation is well calculated to promote the efficiency of the army, but it does not go far enough. It ought to be known whether these would-be officers have the disposition and ability to take proper care of their men, or else learn hem to take care of themselves. The case of the two regiments recently encamped here is in point. The men arrived, travel-stained, dirty, "unkempt and unwrahed," and they remained so. The officers, with a few exceptions, boarded at the hotels, while the men were suffered to "lie around loose" on the pavements, or sleep in the camp, just as they pleased. The result of this inattention and relaxed discipline, was the severe illness of to temporary hospitals in town, consigned to SHERIFF'S OFFICE.
