WM. ALEXANDER, ROBERT MOORE, JOHN TAYLOR, Committee. MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES. It is especially to your Committee on miscellaneous articles that the advantages of your Society are exhibited. The amount of good done by calling the attention of young ladies to the exercise of taste and in-genuity in the plan and construction of the articles which are here shown is incalculable. It cannot be seen at a moment nor its value immediately felt; that it tells with potent influence upon the later years of life. Whilst it excites to industry it expands the intellect of individuals whose sphere of life excludes them too much from converse with others, to enable them to learn how the world moves forward, and how necessary it is that they should keep pace with its rapid march. It is delightful to see how young and old take a part in their annual exhibitions, and that those who do not contribute come forward to enjoy and praise articles which are here shown is incalculaexhibitions, and that those who do not contribute come forward to enjoy and praise the beautiful work of other hands. TT IS A COMMON OBBERVATION that there are more sufferent from debility, among Americans, than can be found among any other civilized nation. The reason is obvious. We take to little exercise, and forget the wants and uses of the body in the absorbing pursuits of busines. In all such cases, ordinary medicines can do little good. What is required is just such at copic and invigorator as Dr. J. Hostetter has given to the world, in his OELEBRATEO "BITTERS". The weak nervous denicen of the counting house, the exhausted toller upon the shop-board, and the prostrated student of the midnight lamp, have found a wonderful regenerator or in the "Bitters," and prefer it to more pretentions, but less efficacions midclines. But it should not be forgotten that the agent which is a missisting is in the support of the middle of the middle of the counting have to expeditude the most terrible forms of disease. Who would not give it a trial?

THE GREAT CLOTHING EMPORIUM OF THE UNION.—Philadelphia possesses the most splendid Cthing Emporium in the country. It is splended as regards the palatial structure in which the immense business of the establishment is conducted, and it is equally splendid in respect to its great facilities and vast resources. But to its patrons its chief attractions are, first, the elegance of the garments for Gentlemen and Youths, manufactured there; secondly, the beauty and durability of the materials, and the superior excellence of the fit, and lastity, the modeface prices at which the goods are sold. We refer, in this description, to none other, than the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockbill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut Street, above 6th, Philadelphia.

DOUTZ'S CELEBRATED Horse and Cattle Powders.

Horse and Cattle Powders.

These Powders have proved, after a trial of several years, to be superior to any preparation of the kind in use. The chief superiority of these Powders arises from the fact that they are composed of Medicines that have ejects crudities from the stomach and intestines; the found gives strength to the system of the Morse and the purifying medicines contained in them cleans the blood, and lay the foundation for a healthy and vigorous circulation. The use of them improves the wind, strengthens the appetite and gives the horse a fine sunch and glossy skin—improving the appearance; vigor and split of the noble animal.

These Powders are not intended, as most powders are, to bload the animal, so as to give him the appearance; to bload the animal, so as to give him the appearance; to bload the animal, so as to give him the appearance of the ingrenous the sunch and intestines, cleanse them from offensive matter, and bring that the not really so—but, to remove the disease and promote his general health.

These Powders will strengthen the stomach and intestines, cleanse them from offensive matter, and bring that the north of the purchase money to a healthy state. They are a sure prevention of Lung Fover, and a cortain remedy for all diseases incident to the Horse, as Clauders, Yellow Water, 1981.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE NEW VOLUME.

NEW VOLUME.

On the seventh of Soptember, 1861, THE NEW-YORK WERKLY TRIBUNE commenced the twenty-first year of its existence; THE DAILY TRIBUNE being some months older, and the BEMI-WREKLY TRIBUNE being some months older, and the BEMI-WREKLY TRIBUNE become have the together the conductors have felt to be the cause of Humanity, Jutics and Freedom, endeavering to mellorate the condition of the oppressed and unfortgraats, to honor and encourage useful exertion in whatever sphere, and, to promote by all means the moral, intellectual and material advancement of our country. It has simed to be right rather than popular, and to espouse and commend to-day the truth that others may not be willing to accept till to morrow. In purssing this course, mistakes have doubtless been made and faults committed; but, having in all things incited our readers to think and judge for themselves rather than adopt blindly our own and others' conclusions, we believe we may fairly claim for this journal the credit of having qualified its readers to detect and expose even its own errors. To develop the minds of the young by the meat general, thorough and practical Education, and to encourage and stimulate Productive Judustry, through free grants of Public Lands to actual settlers and cultivators, as also through the protection of immature or peculiarly exposed, branches from too poverful foreign competition, are among the aims to which this journal has adhered through, good and evil report, and which it steadfastly commends to American patriotism and philanthropy.

As to the Civil War now desastating our country, we hold it to have originated in a Rebellion more wanton, with that of every other citison, to stand by the nation and its fairly chosen rulers, and to second with all our energies their efforts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremency of the Laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, deeep with that of every other citisen, to stand by the nation and tis fairly chosen rulers, and to second with all our energies their efforts to uphold the Union, the Constitution, and the supremacy of the Laws. And, though the Rebellion has become, through usurpation, deseption, terrorism; and spollation, fearfully strong, we believe the American Republic fast stronger, and that the unanimous, earnest efforts of loyal hearts and hands will insure its overthrow. But on all questions affecting the objects, the scope, and duration of this most extraordinary contest, we defer to those whom the American People have clothed with anthority, holding unity of purpose and of action indispensable in so grave an emergency.

In a crisis like the present, our colums must be largely engressed with the current history of the War for the Union, and with slucdations of its more striking incidents. We shall not, however, remit that attention to Literature, to Foreign Affairs, to Agricultural (Progress, to Grops, Markets, &c., &c., which has already, we trust, won for THE TRIBUNE an honorable position among its cotemporaries. Our main object is and shall be to produce a comprehensive newspaper, from which a careful reader may glean's vivid and faithful history of the times, not merely in the domain of Action but in that of Opinion also. As our facilities for acquiring information increases with years, we trust that an improvement in the contents of our journal is perceptible, and that, in variety and fullness of intelligence afforded, we may still hope to "make each day a critic on the last." In this hope, we solicit a continuance of the generous measure of patronage hitherto accorded to our journal.
