> RICH WITHOUT MONEY.-Many a man is rich without money .- Thousands of men without anything in the pocket, and thousands without even a pocket, are rich. A man born with a good sound constitution, a good stomach, a good heart and good limbs, and a pretty good head piece, is rich. Good bones are better than gold—tough mustles than silver. and nerves that flash fire and carry energy to every function, are better than houses and lands.

Joun Jones has no objection to the ck her law when applied to Jane. Jane Jones contends stoutly for the liquor law as applicable to John. Jane's argument is simple and conclusive. When John does liquor, he does lick her. When John don't liquor, he don't lick her. Therefore, if John can't liquor, he wont lick her—the conclusion she wishes to reach.

A DISCONSOLATE LOVER, who was discarded, consoles himself with the reflection that his loved one is married to a lawyer, has two children and the fever. An entron says when he was in prison for libeling a justice of the peace, he was requested by the jailer "to give the prison a puff."
