"THAT STANDARD SHEET." 1862.

GREAT NATIONAL BANNER OF INTELLECT, FOR American Hearts and Homes!

NEW YORK MERCURY.

A NEW YEAR WITH AN OLD FRIEND on New Year's day of 1862, that world-renowned and unrivated gein of American journalism, the p. criess New York Mercury, will enter upon the twenty-fourth year of the most brilliant career ever achieved by a paper. Buring the past year it has been the teacher, story-teller, mentor, and oracle of two hundred thousand, American homes, from ocean to ocean—and from Quebec, in Canada, to Pensacola, on the Guif of Mexico. Young and ond, rich and poor, have reveled in its enchanting stores of wisdom, romance, art, poetry, and genial humor; and its praise is "Familiar in their mouths as household words."

" Familiar in their mouths as household words." The nobie patriot soldier in his tent, too, has whiled away the tedram of camp life in the absorbing review FORTY BRILLIANT COLUMNS, FORTY BRIDMANT COLUMNS, finding in them a fast inating mental discipline known only to these who rally to the Banner-sheet of the Army of American Intellect and Genius!

In commending a New Year, the proprietors of The New York Mercury can only say, that it shall be their aim to make their great lamicy journal of American literature, for 1862, more brilliant and suchanting than ever, in its concentration of all the world's grandest and most beautiful specialities in healthful Romance, graceful Poetry, elegant and quaint Gossip, refining Knowledge, sparking Humor, and outertaining News—until, like love, it "---- rules the court, the camp, the bower," as it already rules the happy domestic firestile.

The editorial tone and antional departments of The New York Mercury will continue true to that lofty spirit of particulars which has made it a processity of the people since the War began, and kept it in enthusiastic demand when other sheets were dying all around it for want of popular support.

Already the largest Literary Journal in the world, and famous as the focus of a thousand brilliant literary reputations, its programme for 1802 will be magnificent beyond all precedent. The most celebrated pens of this country and Europe have began secured in its service, at an outlay equal to the expense of more than one national government in the Old World and its novelettes, or continued stories, for 1802, will be the most spannelld triumphs of elegant Fiction ever published—To these, too, the magic pugeli of the greatest of American artists, Mr. Felix O. C. Darley, will lead the sid of pictorial art.

of pictorial art. Our story, initiatory of the New Yoar, is a splendid ational Romance, commencing in the New York Mor-ury of Saturday, January 4th, 1862, and entitled THE RAPTLESNAME:

THE REBEL PRIVATEER. A TALF OF THE PRESENT TIME.

BY NED BUNTLINE. It, is the greatest Nautical Novelette since the days of Marryatt. .
