Report of Poor House Visitors. January Term, Quarter Sessions, 1862.

THE undersigned Committee appointed by the Court to visit and examine into the condition and present management of the Prori House of this County, respectfully present the following report:

That in the discharge of our duties we have visited said institution at various times in this past year, and at every visit made a thorough inspection of all the buildings, their different apartments, and how occupied, and are pleased to find in all of them, evidences of the indefatigable exertions of the present Steward to make this institution a cheerful and comfortable home to those who received to the seward, able to Work, are required to do so. The slek are kindly cared for, and treated by the Attending Physician, who, by the by, appears to be a favorite with the flock; they also receive the attention of fathful nurses. The inmates generally are cheerful and obedient, and good order provalls throughout the building. They are supplied comfortable clothing, and good and wholesome food, the rooms are clean and well ventilated; the beds are well arranged and bed ling comfortable. Apart from the main building is aunother building, whose occupants are principally colored, which also has a clean and tildy appearance, with the exception of a fewar and tildy appearance, with the exception of a fewar partments on the ground floor, assigned expressly for the insafe, which are rather gloomy, and heaty ventilated. The register shows the following statemat: The number in the colored, admitted since, 226, birth, 9, making the number of the out door panarry 1st, 1862, 263. Inaddition to the above, 3992 transient or, travelling panpers have been received and provided for for short periods.

"THAT STANDARD SHEET." 1862.

GREAT NATIONAL BANNER OF INTELLECT, FOR American Hearts and Homes! NEW YORK MERCURY.

A NEW YEAR WITH AN OLD FRIEND on New Year's day of 1862, that world-renowned and unrivaled gem of American journalism, the profess New York Mercury, will onter upon the twenty-fourth year of the most brilliant career ever achieved by a paper. During the past year it has been the teacher, story-teller, mentor, and oracle of two hundred thousand American houses, from occan to occan—and from Quebbe, in Canada, to Pensacola, on the Gulf of Moxico. Young and old, rich and poor, have reveled in its suchanting stores of wisdom, romance, art, poetry, and goulal humor; and its praise is "Familiar in their mouths as household words."

" Familiar in their mouths as household words." The noble patriot soldier in his tent, too, has whiled away the tedum of camp life in the absorbing review of its FORTY BRILLIANT COLUMNS, finding in thom a fascinating mental discipline known only to those who raily to the Banner-sheet of the Army of American Intellect and Genius!

In commending a New Year, the proprietors of The New York Mercury can only say, that it shall be their aim to make their great family journal of American literature, for 1862, more brilliant and enchanting then ever, in its concentration of all the world's grandest and most beautiful specialities in healthful Remance, graceful Poetry, elegant and quaint Gossip, refluing Knowledge, sparkling Humor, and entertaining News—until, like love, it as it already tules the happy domestic fireside.

"—— rules the court, the camp, the bower."

The editorial tone and National departments of The New York Mercury will couldn't true to that lotty spirit of patriotism which has made it a necessity of the people since the War began, and kept it in enthusiastic domand when other sheets were dying all around it for want of popular support.

Already the largest literary Journal in the world, and famous as the focus of a thousand brilliant literary reputations, its programme for 1862 will be magnificent beyond all precedent. The most celebrated pens of this country and Europe have been secured in its service, at an outlay equal to the expense of more than encenational government in the Old World! and its novelectes, or continued stories, for 1862, will be the most spiendid triumphs of elegant Fiction ever published.—To these, too, the magic ponell of the greatest of American artists, Mr. Felix O. C. Darley, will lend the aid of pictorial art. "---- rules the court, the camp, the bower,"

Our story, initiatory of the New Year, is a splendinational Romance, commencing in the New York Mecury of Saturday, January 4th, 1862, and entitled THE RATTLESNAME:

THE REBEL PRIVATEER. A TALF OF THE PRESENT TIME. BY NED BUNTLINE. It is the greatest Nautical Novelette since the NOTICE.—We are daily receiving orders to send by mall some one or more of Dr. Hurd's Dental Remedies, which we cannot fill. None are unallable except the Neuralgia Plaster, which we send in an envelope on receipt of price (16 cents), and one stamp. But to accommodate persons in places where the druggists and store-keepers are behind the age, we have put up packages in white embossed boxes, seven inches by four, with compartments—each box containing a bottle of Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash, and Tooth Ache Drops, a box of Tooth Powder, the Neuralgia Plaster, a valuable little Treatise on Tooth and their Diseases, the best means of preserving them, and the proper freatment of Children's Tooth, worth of itself the entire cest to every young man or woman, or parents with young children, with sundry other necessary articles; price per package one dollar, or six packages for $5, sont by express as directed. As the Express charges are not much, if any more on a dozen than on one, it is far cheaper to order six or a dozen packages at one time. A large family will want all; or the surplus can be disposed of tonighbors with public benefit, for no one can estimate how much pain, suffering, unhappiness, and disfigurement, expense, loss of time and money would be saved to the country if every family to-day had one of these packages, which, in itself, is a complete set of Dental Remedies. Address Ws. B. Hund & Co., Tribune Buildings, Now York, and write name and address plainly. That remittances may be made with confidence, W. R. H. & Co., refer to the Mayor of Brocklyn, to G. W.
