Capt. HENRY PORTER, son of Ex-Governor Porter, late first Lieutenant in the U. S. A. has been appointed by Secretary Stanton, and unanimously confirmed by the Senate, a Captain in the U. S. Army. Capt. Ponten has been the Deputy Provost Marshal at Washington, until a few weeks ago and is now here awaiting orders from the War Department.

CAPTAIN JOHN WETZEL. - We were honored with a visit from this gentleman, a few days since. He is a brother of our townsman Samuel Wetzel and claims, himselfs the privileges of an old citizen of our good old borough. Thirteen years ago Mr-Wetzel removed to Illinois, and, settled permanently at Peoria. When the rebellion broke out, and the President issued his call for 75,000 men, Mr. Wetzel was among the first to respond, and as captain of his com pany, was stationed at Cairo. At the close of the three-months' campaign, he at once proffered his services for the war, was ac. cepted, and went into the field as gaptain of company E, 8th Illinois. At the memorable battle of Fort Donelson, he distinguished himself, for his coolness and bravery. During the fight, the 8th, after having been under the hottest fire for more than three hours, and their ammunition giving out, the Col. (Oglesby) ordered a retreat. While falling back slowly and in good order they encountered the 27th Kentucky (Union) regiment, who mistaking them for rebels, fired several volleys into them, and then fled precipitately. In their flight the panic strick. en color-bearer, threw down his flag. In the meanwhile, the rebels, who had sallied from their intrenchments, saw the colors, and with vells of delight, ran to capture them. Capt. Wetzel and his orderly sergeant, left their company, ran back, saved the flag, and returned it to its owner, amid a perfect hail storm of balls. On his return to his regiment, the captain was struck on the shoulder and knocked down by a grape shot. He received, however, no permanent. injury. From continued exposure, his health has been so underminded, as to compel him very reluctantly, however, to offer his resig nation Mr. Wetzel is a gentleman and a soldier, whom we are proud to recognize as | Geo. Miller, shoveling snow, an old citizen of Cumberland County.

Commonwealth vs. R. Oswald, A. Kauffman and Levi Eberly. Riot, Assault and Battery, G. Miller, extra services as clerk and false imprisonment. This was the somewhat notorious "Secession Case." It seems that during the excitement, which prevailed all over the country during the early stages J Yengst, repairing tree boxes, of the present rebellion, a "committee of John Gutshall, materials and resafety" was formed in Mechanicsburg. This pairs to grave yard wall, ommittee consisted of some twenty of the Mary Morris, citizens of that place, about equally divided Jacob Bretz, cleaning spring, as to politics. Carllelo, April 11, 1862-4t GEO, GROSSNAN. Carlisle, April 1, 100.—75

I take pleasure in stating that life. Grossman, who has suffered from a slight attack of varioloid; has now entirely recovered. Whilst we filt satisfied that from the first thefe was no dauger of transmitting the disease through the Bakery, it was thought right that Mr. Grossman's customers should not in any way be imposed upon, and hence he made a frank statement of his affiliations. Now, that his wife has entirely recovered, it is hoped that his fornier business relations will be resumed as usual.
