In this bo-ough, on Monday, morning last, after a lingering illness., JAMES MORINS UNDERWOOD, Esq., in the 31st year of his age. The deceased was a mative of Carlisle, and was a most estimabile and worthy young man. After taking a partial course at Dickinson College, he studied haw, and located himself in Greensburg, Westmoreland Co., where, in a few years, by his popular manners and legal abilities, he was elected to the responsible office of Prosecuting Attorney. By his industry and ability he bid fair to acquire weilth and fams, when consump-tion, that insidious fee of the human race, cut short his earthly hopes and influence, and now the sode of the valley cover the mortar remines of the gifted and brilliant scholar, the studious lawyer, the true friend, the dutful scn and affectionate brother.
