FIAT Lux .-- Will somebody tell us whether our street lamps are made for orna ment or use? A lamp post is certainly a very ornamental thing in itself, but pray can it not be made useful. Why is it, Oh! worthy "Board of Bunsbys" that on wet and stormy nights we have no light? Is it because you are so very economical: or is it on account of the delicate health of your lamplighters? If they are of weak constitutions we pity them, and certainly admire the fatherly care you have over them. But for fear they might die, pray get some men of good constitutions who can stand the effects of our changeable

Whoever has charge of the lighting of the shines when the almanac says so. This cer tainly is a very peculiar kind of lunacy. We have spoken of this thing again and again, and it appears to do no good. Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights were wet, dark and stormy, and not a street lamp lighted. Is there no way of mending this matter? We can see no other than a written remonstrance to the town council, that might bring them to a sense of their duty.

POLICE REPORT .- John Burk, Bell Burk and Ann Murphy, were brought before his honor Squire Dehuff, on charge of vagran cy. It appears that they were having a small plo nio to themselves on Tuesday night and wheat field near town. They drank five were arrested. From their whiskey drinking capability they were supposed to have ema nated from Harrisburg. Committed for 20
