Important to Soldiers.

The following General Orders have been issued at the War Department, and will be found of vital importance to those concerned. The large numbe s of officers and soldiers lounging about, and under the plea of sick ness filching their pay from the government without earning it, has become such a erying disgrace to the service, as to have elicited the following orders, which we be. lieve will very soon abate the nuisance.

WAR DEPARTMENT ADJUTANT OFFICE,) Washington, June 7, 1562- } GENERAL ORDERS No. 61.
