THE CRY OF "ABOLITIONISTS."- Down in the land of Secessia the traitors vigorously brand every one who is in favor of the Union, as an "abolitionist," just as their sympathi sers, the Breckinridges and Vallandighamers, do here in the North. Just let any man in the North be an earnest Union man, and how vigorously every secession sympathising scoundrel will shout "abolitionists" after him. As bearing upon this matter, Judge Breckinridge, of Missouri-a Bell-Everett Unionist. and a member of the Couvention of that State recently had occasion, in addressing that body, to remark :

"I think I may say that, without any opin ion on this subject that would justify the charge, there in not to be found in the State of Missouri a single man of marked loyalty who has not allendy been denounced as an Abolitionist, when, in point of fact, he is as far removed from them as he is in thought or "sympathy from those who prefer the charge. This charge has been so often and so flippantly made, that I have come to consider it as, perhaps, the most unfailing test of a man's loyality, that he has been denounced as an Abolitionist. That man who has been so successful in tempering his loyalty throughout this struggle as to avoid incurring the hostili 'ty of the class engaged in treason, and their sympathisers, to such an extent as not to incur the application of that epithet. I will not say he is not loyal, but I will say his loyality has, in all probability, not borne any very distinguished fruits "

We commend this paragraph to the poor creatures in this County who are continually spurting "abolitionist" at every true and de termined friend of our glorious government and Union

Town and County Matters.

OUR FALLEN BRAVE.

It is with a heavy heart, and a trembling hand, that we sit down to record the names of those of our fellow-citizens, who having offered up their all in defence of their beloved country, have fallen. Noblemen they were ! And though the bodies of those slain may never be recovered, the recollection of their heroic valor, will never die in the memory of their countrymen. And as long as American institutions are cherished by the oppressed, so long will they be held up as exemplars to future generations-as martyrs, who, taking their lives in their hands faltered not; but died like heroes - doing their whole duty

To the deeply afflicted relatives we extend our heartfelt sympathy and condolence, ex-lieve it is in the main, correct.

POLICE ITEM .- John Myers was arrested on Thursday evening last, in a state of extreme inebriation. It appears that John was so unfortunate as to be taken suddenly drunk The liquor was not of the fighting kind, but of that discription which brings out all the affection in a man's disposition, and caused John to attempt to kiss several females on the street. Not admiring this proceeding the services of Constable Martin were called into requisition. Poor fellow, "He loved not wisely but too well."

CAPTURED GUERILLAS.—On Sunday last, a train passed over the Cumb. Valley Railroad, containing some twenty Rebel guer-illas, who had been captured in the Shenan doah valley. Among these prisoners was a young man named Louis Cook, a son of Stephen Cook, a former citizen of this place, CAPTURED GUERILLAS.-On Sunday Stephen Cook, a former citizen of this place, who removed to Kentucky about 2 years. ago. Cook Senior, when here, was a violent Breckenridge Domocrat and sympathizer with | Six Miles West of Curlisle on the Cumberland Southern treason. The son was not old enough then to have any decided opinions, but the germ had been implanted in him, and only waited an opportunity for developement. So they go; the transition, from Breekenridge Democracy to armed rebellion is a very easy and natural one. In this case the young man referred to, will have ample time in Fort Delaware, to eliminate the peou , liar benefits of a short campaign in treason. If the results are not satisfactory, we hope they will at least prove instructive.

DEATH OF AN "INSTITUTION,"-SAMvel HAWKINS, a colored man, for many years a resident of this town died on Wednesday last of consumption. The "Bishop" as he was generally called, wis known to every man, woman and child, in the community. He was formerly, we believe, a preacher in one of the African churches. We ought not to to talk about the failings of people after they are dead, but there were some "tall" stories afloat about Sam, he may have been slandered as all great men are, but some how, the boys would cry "take dat, John de Bablist," after him when he was somewhat the worse for whiskey. In "Pompey Jim" Hawkins had an inveterate enemy, and Sam often accused him of being the author of divers stories dangerous to his (Sam's) fair fame. Poor fellow, he has gone to his long of home, and we hope to "the place where good niggers go,". No spitcful gossip can now.
