FLAGS RAISED.—On Saturday evening day evening. A meeting was called for said evening, and I can assure you we had a de-Tast, two very fine National flags were raised. One at the West end of South street, and the other at the corner of South and Pitt Ross, Chaplain at the Carlisle Barracks, gave streets. They were the handiwork of the and the occasion. So timely was the speech, patriotic ladies of that vicinity. A large and so well received, that out of all the vast number of persons were in attendance, and crowd present, not one man objected to a consisted addresses were made by the Revs. word that was said. After the reverend genspirited addresses were made by the Revs. Black, Phillips and Ross. Everything was arranged in good taste, and went off well | cheers for Gen. McClellan and his brave army The company broke up, with three rousing and three grouns for secession After which cheers for the Union.

The storm on Tuesday seems to have expended its fury principally upon Car | hour of its trial, to unite their bearts and Tisle and immediate vicinity. In town, our hands in the earnest and patriotic efforts for oldest and most respectable trees were rudely blown about, and several of them suffered grevious injury in leaf and limb. But little more respect was paid to the shocks of newlycut grain, and they skedadled over the fields, very much after the fashion of the rebels, very much after the fashion of the rebels. son with fitting severity, and to crush the when hearing of the approach of the Union present wicked and causeless rebellion that no armies.

THE CUMBERLAND GUARDS.-This company was raised in Mechanicsburg in cosponse to Governor Cartin's proclamation for the enlistment of Pennsylvania Reserves. At the forming of the regiments at Camp Wayne, they received the homorable position of color company (H) of the 7th Regiment the one in which Capt. Henderson's company was placed. They participated in all the recent battles on the Peninsula, and received high encomiums for their bravery and discipline, The casualities, however, were fearful, being no less than four killed, ten or twelve wounded, and twenty-six prisoners. Among the latter are Captain King, and Lieutenant Jacob Zug, a son of Jacob Zug, sr., of our town. Thus has this fine company dwindled away before the ravages of the bullet, disease and capture until there is but one officer, (Lieut. Prowell, who was sick in the hospital, during did Black or Brown, leaving the Hair soft and beautiful the battles) and not more than twenty effective men left.

men_Lieut. Col. D. A. Murray, of the 3d Ohio Cavalry, for several years the officient Sergeant Major at Carlisle Barracks, is now stationed with his regiment, at Tuscumbia, Alabama. The 3d Ohio, is one of the best cavalry regiments in that Department, and since their organization, have seen a good deal of active service. We had the pleasure of receiving a letter from Col. Mun RAY, a few days ago, enclosing a copy of a complimentary resolution, adopted by the officers of the regiment and presented to their Chaplain, the Rev. E. Y. WARNER, on the oc casion of his resignation, to which is added Mr. WARNER's reply; but we regret that the -crowded state of our-columns, prevent us from publishing the proceedings entire.

At the date of the letter, the regiment was moving towards Cumberland Gap, and it was rumored in camp, that the Division of Gen.

Wood, to which the 3d Qhio is attached, would be sent to Western Virginia.

TROUBLE AMONG THE "SHORT HAIRED -On Sunday afternoon last, the peaceful quiet of the day was disturbed by a row in the negroe settlement in the rear of our office. The parties were, one Johnson, a fancifully dressed, sporting "cullud gemman," and Wn. Jordon. Johnson is from Harrisburg, and came here on a Sunday spree; af ter indulging in R. G. whiskey, he raised a row in Jordon's house. Jordon struck him and put him out, he returned and was treated to a liberal dose of " hickory oil" after which he beat a haste retreat down the alley, thinking. no doubt, that " Jordon am a hard road to trabble". Wooly heads protruded from the windows in the neighborhood, and the general opinion was that, "dat Jounson jist deserved a linkin."

volunteers to the Rescue! Mr. Editor. — The people of this section of Pennsylvania certainly do not appreciate the situation of affairs at Richmond, or there could not possibly be such stagna-tion and apathy in the public mind, as we witness in relation to the call for the addi tional 306,000 troops. We may cry "on to Richmond" until we are hourse, but unless Gen. McClellan is speedily re-interced with frosh troops we may ory in vain. Every encounter we have yet had with the robots discloses the fact that their force at Richmond for out numbers McClellen's. If we want to par out numbers accidents. If we want to take Richmond, therefore, we must furnish more men. The President has called for them; now let them be furnished. We want men to fill up the thinned ranks of the Penn'a. Re servas. We want men to fill up Pennsylva-nia's quota of the 300,000, and Cumber land County and Carlisle must give their share. Will not our young men respond to the call? Can they see their country in peril and not rush forward to the rescue? Can they read of the valor and prowess of their brothers and friends in the gory fields before Richmond, and not desire to emulate their CHEAP HARDWARE STORE, patriotic achievements? Will they not rush as I am selling goods cheaper than ever for each or short Richmond, and now access the particular access of their patricular along the slaughter of their to the field and avenge the slaughter of their to the field and avenge the slaughter of their brothers, stricken down by traitors arrayed funder, the black bapter of troason?
