SECESSIONIST ABOUT. - As we passed down Main Street, on Saturday morning last, our attention was arrested by a crowd gath. ered around two persons holding an excited discussion. On joining the party we found two preachers, one a Union man a d the other-a-Secessionist, having an argument. The "Sesesher" agreed to almost everything, the Unionist said until he was asked; "do y. u pray for the government and the success of our armies in the field," The answer was. "I decline to answer that question." was. " I decline to answer that question." This answer roused the indignation of the crowd and propositions were freely made to "ride him on a rail." "tar and feather him," ested, that the following accounts have been and do him grevious bodily barm in divers filed in this office, by the accountants therein other ways. At this stage of proceedings, ed to the Orphan's Court of Cumberland some friend of the Sedessionist took him county, for confirmation and allowance, on away. This man we believe had the impu dence to wish to preach from one of our pul pits, those in power refused to allow it. We administrator of the estate of Abner Marsh, are surprised that such a man should be at | dec'd varge in this community, Fort Warren is the gan, administrator of Susan McGuire, dec'd proper place for him.
