ESTABLISHED AS A REFUGE FROM QUACKERY THE ONLY PLACE WHERE A CURE CAN BE

OBTAINED. DR. JOHNSTON has discovered the DR. JOHNSTON has discovered the most certain, speedy and only effectual remedy in the world for all private diseases, weakness of the back or limbs, strictures, affections of the kidneys and blad-der, havoluntary discharges, impotency, general debili-ty, nervousness, dyspenys, languor, low spirits, contu-nings, dimness of sight or gliddiness, disease of the head, throat, nose or skin, affections of the liver, lumes, stomach or bowels—those berribte disorders arise, from the solitary habits of youth-those scored and solitery parcless more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrons to, the Mariners of Uysess, blighting thing the size williant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, i.e., impossible.

YOUNG MEN

Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annu-ally sweeps to an untimely grave theusands of Yoling Men of the most exaited talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of elequence or waked to eestary the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE

Married persons, or young men contemplating mar-ringe, being aware of physical weakness, organic debil-ity, deformities, e.c., specify cured. He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may roligiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

ORGANIC WEAKNESS Immediately cured, and full vigor restored. This dis-tressing affection-which renders life miscrable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that under-stands the subject will pretend to deuy that the power of procreation is lost somer by those falling into im-proper habits than by the prudent? Besides being de prived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms to both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the physi-cal and montal functions weakenest, hose of procreative power, nervous irritability, dispepsia, publication of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility, a wast-ing of the frame, cough, consumption, decay and death.

by improper inducions and interaction of either bus mess, study, society or marriage. These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head, dimess of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspep-sy, nervous irritability, derangement of the digrestive functions, general debility, symptoms of "onsumption. Marratur,—The fearlul effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—loss of memory, confusion of ideas, de-pression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the ovils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can how judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their viz-or, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emachated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symp-toms of consumption.

reflect that a sound mind and body are the most ne-cessary requisites to promote connubial happiness — Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pligrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the unind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melauchely reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

DISEASE OF IMPR, UDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of plea-sure finds that be has imbibled the seeds of this painful disease, it too often bappens that an ill timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearancel such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturna, pains in the head and limbs, dimenso f sight, denfruess, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or this disease becomes a horrid, object of commission, till disease becomes a horrid, object of commission, till bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this a wful disease becomes a horid object of commissration, till death puts a porlod to his dreadful suffering., by send-ing him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskillfulness of in-norant protondors, who, by the use of that deadly pol-gon, Moreury, ruln the constitution and make the re-cidue of life miserable.

STRANGERS STRANGERS Trust not your lives, or health, to the care of the many unlearned and workless pretenders, destitute of knowledge, name or character, who copy Dr. Johnston's a lyertisements, or style theinselves, it is the newspapes, regularly educated physicians, incapable of curing, they keep you trifling month after mouth taking their filthy and polsoneus compounds, or as long as the snallest fee can be obtained, and in despuir, leave you with ruined health to sigh over your galling disappointmont. Dr. Johnston is the only Physician advertising. His scredentials or diplomas always haugin his office. His remedies or treatment are unknown to all others, propared from a life spent in the great heapiltals of Eu-trops, the-first in the country and a more extensive grivate practice than any other physician in the world.
