POSTAL AFFAIRS—A PLACE FOR EVERYTHING —In attaching postage stamps to letters, correspondents should be careful to place them on the upper right hand corner of the envelope, leaving a margin of a sixteenth of an inch above and also on the right of the stamp. Carelessness in this particular results in much embarrassment in the process of stamping, especially in large post offices, while it is found that even this comparatively trifling matter proves the most formidable obstacle in adapting machinery to post marking and cancelling—the want of uniformity in the precise locality of the postage stamp preventing the required despatch even in an otherwise successful machine Above all things, don't put your stamp on the back of the letter, which is sometimes done, as in the hurry of mailing, the evidence of pre payment is liable to be overlooked, and the letter to be "held for postage," and possibly perform a trip to the postal cemetery at Washington. In addressing letters, leave ample space on the top of the envelope to allow room for the post mark, without interfering with the superscription, which is often rendered illegible by unavoidably stamping over it, in whole or in part.

FALL AND THE SOLDIERS.—The saffron leaves are tending rapidly earthwards. In a few days the trees will be entirely stripped of their summer robes and stand bare and gaunt through the weary days of winter. The season has been an open one—extraordinarily so, and the agriculturist has reaped richly and fully of the fruits of the earth. Our barns are plentiously stored and give assurance of freedom from famine, though war has laid its desolating hand up on the nation, and ruin and misery has come upon so many of the people. Our brave soldiers in the field are doubtless thankful that the rain and sleet of winter are so long withheld. Poor fellows! their labors and sufferings are enough to bear, without having, in addition, the rigors of an early and severe winter! Thanks to Him who causeth the elements to obey, for so mild a season! In our plenty and comfort let us not forget them. Let our Soldiers' Aid Societies be sustained by every means in our power!—Let our noble-hearted ladies give their spare moments to the knitting of stockings and mittens, the making of under clothing, so that our brave volunteers may be warmly clad when the winter comes upon them.

TOBACCO.—The prices of this noxious weed are as stiff as ramrods, both wholesale and retail. A year ago, the retail price of a plug of tobacco was 5 cents; it is now selling at 10 and 12 cents, and of an inferior quality at that. Cigars, too, have greatly advanced in price, fully equal to 66 per cent. Puffing costs something now, if it never did before. As the money invested in tobacco is worse than wasted, it is surprising that men will continue to indulge in the filthy habit—submit to be taxed for an article which produces a bad breath and colored teeth.

A TALL MARRIAGE NOTICE —We take the liberty of publishing the following marriage notice, cut from the New York "Herald." We commend it to those of our young friends who may be contemplating the "fatal leap," as a FIRST CLASS notice. It cannot be denied that there is some "STYLE" about it—How are you, Wilhelmina?

HARRISON—FUNCK.—On Monday, August 11, on board the Holland bark Emilie, Capt. Wolff, in the harbor of Amoy, China, by Arthur B. Bradford, Esq., Consul of the United States for the port of Amoy and its dependencies, assisted by Charles F. M. De Goys, Esq., Consul for the Netherlands, and the Rev E. Doty, Mr. AUGUSTINE JOSEPH FRANCIS HARRISON, of Morrisania, New York, now of the I. M. Customs, of Amoy, to Miss FREDERICKA WILHELMINA PETRONELLA FUNCK, of Samarang, Island of Java

☞We have received the following testimonial to the gallantry and good conduct of the original Anderson Troop, with a request to publish the same. We willingly exceed to this request, and congratulate those of our citizens who have relatives in this organization upon this official recognition of their efficiency.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE OHIO
Louisville Oct. 30th 1862.

To Commanding Officer Anderson Troop.

SIR—I am directed by Maj. General Buell to express his thanks to the Anderson Troop for the zeal, cheerfulness and intelligence with which they have performed all the duties imposed upon them since attached to his Head Quarters nearly a year ago.

Manly department and soldierly bearing have characterized the behavior of the members of the Troop from the day of their assignment to duty with this army until the present time, and under its active and intelligent officers Capt. Palmer and Lieut's Spencer, Maple and Rosengarten it has attained a commendable degree of professional excellence.

The most ordinary routine duties of the soldier as well as those of the highest moment and of a confidential character, have been performed alike with efficiency and fidelity.

The General trusts that the Troop will sustain during its term of service the high reputation which it now so deservedly enjoys.

I am very respectfully,
your obedient servant
JAMES B FRY,
Colonel and chief of Staff.

NOVEMBER COURT.

We continue our report of the proceedings of the November Court for the first and second weeks. Owing to the absence of material witnesses, but little business was done during the second week, the Court having adjourned on Tuesday morning:

Com. vs. Lucinda Ickes and Wilson Ickes—Assault and Battery. And Com. vs. John Stum and Harriet Stum.

These indictments grew out of a disturbance between neighbors, as to the boundary line between the properties of the parties. A number of fruit trees stood upon the disputed ground, and Stum, in the exercise of what he claimed to be his right, cut them down. While thus engaged, Mrs. Ickes attacked him with an oven rake, and he retaliated by striking her. The sentence of the Court was, that Stum pay a fine of $5 and his costs. Mrs. Ickes not guilty, but to pay the costs of prosecution. Shearer for Ickes; Newsham for the Stums

Com. vs. Samuel Woods—Fornication and Bastardy, on oath of Susan McElwaine.—Verdict guilty. Sentenced to pay the expenses, amounting to $16 94, and 80 cents per week for 7 years and 6 months for the maintenance of the child, a fine of 6 cents and costs of prosecution. This defendant, in default of complying with the sentence of the Court, was committed, and is still in prison. Gillelan, Woods and Penrose for Commonwealth. Miller and Hepburn for defendant.

Com vs. Henry Fatton—Assault and Battery, with intent to commit a rape. Verdict guilty. Sentenced to Eastern Penitentiary 1 year and 6 months, and pay a fine of $1 and costs. Gillelan for Com., McGlaughlin for prisoner.

Com. vs. Henry Smith—Assault and Battery. True Bill. Defendant not appearing, recognizance was forfeited.

Marriages.

On Tuesday, the 4th inst, by Rev Dr. Johnston, Mr. CHAS. H. MULLIN to Mr Holly, to Miss LIZZIE PARSONS, of Carlisle.

On the 7th inst, by Rev Jacob Ley, Sergt. HENRY C BLAKE, of the "Anderson Troop," to Miss EMMA C. HILLSMAN, of Philadelphia.

Deaths.

In this borough on the 7th inst, FRANK RICHARD, son of John and Eliza A Martin, aged 5 years, 2 mos, and 16 days,

On the 10th inst, in Silver spring township, in the 64th year of her age, REBECCA, only daughter of C B. and Mary A Herman.

The deceased was a lovely, amiable, and attractive child, too sensitive for earth, and in his infantile wisdom has removed her to the gardens of Paradise, to blossom and flourish there.

On the 13th inst, Mrs CATHARINE POSTLETHWAITE, wife of James Postlethwaite, in the 64th year of her age.

In announcing the death of this estimable old lady we feel impelled to let slip upon her memory in more than a passing notice. Her many christian virtues her amiability of character and the unimpeachableness and generosity of her woman's heart have doubly endeared her to all who had been fortunate enough to make her acquaintance. Full many a true tale we west of, will mistier winning voice and true beaming with smiling benificence. Wherever sickness or death afflicted there she found her place at the bed side, either hastening recovery by her womanly tact and sympathy, or smoothing the path of the departing one by sweet words of christian resignation, and whispers of the bright immortality beyond. She has at last sunk to her peaceful rest, at the evening of a well-spent life, in the full fruition of a christian's best reward—a blest immortality. Her deeds are her best monument for of them it can be said

"So shall a light shine from earth,
Beam on thee from on high,
And angel voices say to thee,
These things hast done for me."

On the 12th inst, SARAH ANN V. daughter of Peter and Mary Plank, aged 7 years 5 months, and 27 days

She was fully sensible of the approach of death; bade an affectionate and affecting farewell to her friends, and school-mates who called to see her, requested her parents to sing and pray for her, expressed a wish to die and be in heaven, then calmly expired. She has fled from the embrace of earthly parents to the arms of Him who said, "Suffer little children to come to me." The instrument in the hands of the calm messenger that closed the spark, and unloosed the cheerful voice of SARAH ANNA, was diphtheria.

"Beyond the flight of time,
Beyond the vale of death,
There surely is some blessed clime,
Where life is not a breath"
