GODEY FOR JANUARY.—The January number of this justly popular work is before us, and we feel as though its many excellencies merit special notice The engravingsalways excellent-seem to be more than ever the result of the artist's best labors. The fashion plates are elegantly gotten up, and we know that they are the standard authority; for what lady who knows or cares anything about her personal appearance, fails to consult Godey? The literary department, too, is not the umps are presided over by some of the best talent in the land. In short everybody who does not receive Godey now, should commence with this number. The terms are

One copy one year, $3. Two copies one year. $5. Three copies one year, $6. Four copies one year, $7.

Five copies, one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, $10. Eight copies one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, $15. Eleven copies one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, $20.

letter written by Boyo Simison, of the Irish C. F. and K. Company A. consists of those Brigade, to his father of this place, dated from the townships of Silver Spring, Monroe New Creek, Va., Nov. 13.

" Last Sunday I was in a fight at Moore field, on the South branch," about 40 miles from this place. Our expedition consisted of ampton and Newton. K., Millin, Hopewell three companies of cavalry, as many of in and Newburg. The Colonel of the regiment fantry, and 4 pieces of our battery-under command of General Kelly. We left this place early on Saturday morning, taking an McKibben, of Phila., and a captain in the easterly direction through the mountains, regular army, who has been twice brevetted passing through Romney going without any supper, marching constantly, until 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, when we halted at Moorefield. The rebel colonel Imboden, with a | Lieut. Colonel-Elias S. Troxell. force of 1100 men, had left, and moved his l camp of cavalry, artillery and infantry about 16 miles on the other side of the town. We started in pursuit—flying over rocks and hills and vaileys, when we at length halted and dismounted. Very soon we found where the rebels were, and at once proceeded to inform them that we had arrived to exchange epliments-which we did just before daylight, and a lively time we had. The orwalry opened the ball, but did not do much with their infantry. When the Irish Briga le were called in, they could not be neld any longer. but away we went, making the forest ring with our cheers and shouts. We met them, and our cheers and shouts. We met them, and they would not stand, but reeled and stage gered, and then ran in all directions. We all ter them as fast as our previously rapid marched understandings could take us, but we found they were too fleet-footed for us, and we were at last ordered to halt. We then came hack to this grant came back to their camp and burned ithaving secured 350 fat hogs, over a hundred head of cattle, and 38 prisoners. We had taken 4 days rations with us, but on Monday morning the order came to return, which we did. Not a man in our company was hurt. General Kelly complimented the whole com-mand, and said of our infantry, that, with Mulligan at their head, they will whip any three rebel regiments that the south can bring ____

DETATING SOCIETIES .- The long wink ter evenings are now here, and the hours should be spent in some pursuit or employment that shall make the time so passed useful and profitable. In most of our villages and towns there are literary societies, formed improvement; some miscellaneous exercises are gone through with, poetry and essays read and the proceedings generally wound up with a studied debate upon some fixed question. Now, the oratorical part of these entertainments is a good feature, but it too frequently happens that the subjects pro pounded are foolish and silly to the last degree Debate, to be useful, must involve the discussion of some new doctrine, question or theory, and must elucidate knotty points, either of science, art or law, in such a man ner that it shall add to the stock of popular knowledge. In this way, debating societies amine his immense stock before buying else disseminate useful instruction and are the where me ins of substantial good. Why not, then, discard all trite and hackneyed subjects, and confine the arguments to the consideration at the sign of the Big Bonnet, North Hanoof matters relating to social economy, to in. vention, the adaptation of improvement re lating to the saving of human muscle; all particularly requested to give her a call as or any of these things offer a great field for she is persuaded that an examination will sat-
