($1 50 per annum in advance $2 00 if not paid in advance

NO 51.

VOL. 62.

CARLISLE, PA., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1862.

TERMS OF PUBLIC ATION

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Advertisements will be brigged 1.00 per square of well velve lines for three insections, and 25 cents for the brigged 1.00 per square of well velve lines for three insections, and 25 cents for the brigged 1.00 per square of well velve lines for three insections. All advertisements of less than twalve lines considered as a square.

Advertisements inserted before Marriages and dash's cents per line for subsequent insections. Commandations on the face—a beastly form of insult then the perfect of interest will be be passible in durages for errors in advertisements, will be insected without charge.

The Proprietor will not be responsible in durages for errors in advertisements, will be insected without charge.

Advertisements vill by be required or descriptions and devertisements of the three Frenchmen met them and stopped from the duelist bounded into the air, shot through the brain, and he dropped forward stone dead, on one of the weed-covered mounds which detted the burial ground.

G——n stood utterly stupefied He knew no difference between life and death, or who had fallen, who escaped. From own great discrace) saving:

JOE PRINTING.

largest and most complete establishment in the county. Four good Presses, and a general variety of materials suited for Jain and Fancy work of every kindentibles us to do Job Printing at the shortest notice and on the most reasonable terms. Persons in want of Bills. most reasonable terms. Persons in want of Polis. Blanks or anything in the Jobbing line, will find it to their interest to give us a call.

Selected Loctry.

THE DYING VOLUNTEER.

BY MINNIE MOORE. " O wrap the flag around me boys," And lay me down to die, Where the cannen roars around me.

And the carnage rages high, & While the last thoughts of my country And my mother-oh my God! Let thy strong right arm support he

There's a cottage on the hillside Of the noble " Prairie State," Where a golden willow droepeth O'er a little rustic pate. And my gray-haired sire is sitting, With his bilde on his knee, By its hearthstone, while he prayet!

Even now perhaps, for me

And further on another still. But, oh. the madling thought, What misery to thee, beloved, Treason's black hand both wrought But thine is not the only heart That bows in wee to-night,

Nor, thine the only stricken soul That looks above for light... But he vestione and hear ve un-The letters we have stricken off, Will ne'er be forged ag da : And had I now a thousand lives I'd give them all for thee, My native land, my precious home,

Then " wrap the flag around me, boys," The Red, the white and Blue In every thought and every act, To them I have been true Living I fought beneath its folds Dying my prayer shall be,

If they might make thre free.

Miscellaneous.

THE ENFORCED DUEL.

Thomas Cooley-Grattan, the-well-known public a new work, entitled " Beaten ferring to our columns. During a somewhat prolonged residence at Bordeaux, some years since, chiefly devoted to liteplunge into revolutionary society, which and least quarrelsome among the visitors. to the uninitiated. He neither drank nor gambled, nor talked politics nor scandal, the great provocamight involve him in danger.

public billiard room with a friend of his, when his eye fell on the beautiful Eng- army in connection with the battle of a lieutenant in the British navy. They found a table disengaged, took up their licutenant took calmly out of their case, written in pencil a short remark on the al masal whistle. This colloquy was at queues, and began to play. Scarcely it glistened with delight and ferocious passage, approving its tone, and enforcing had they commenced their game, when two or three Frenchmen of good appearance came in, and one of them, a young he. man of military air, placed himself close to Mr. G-n, stared at him, followed his different movements, and watched weapons." And he explained to the im- ther, the volume fell into the hands of every stroke he made with a marked and most troublesome attention. The player fusal. smilingly said something to his friend as what matter? Do go on quickly. She will be sure to hear of this, and—" on the singularity of the stranger's behavior. The other thought it couplly odd!

on whom he vented it he rushed to the , did not know what to make of it. but vior. The other thought it equally odd, and as it was persevered in for some minutes longer, Mr. G--n felt irritated, stopped, turned short, and begged his was the fierce and ruffianly reply, as he Mr. G--n was mentioned as one of the friend (for he did not himself speak snatched the proffered weapon. And the last, and the person in the shop pointed fensive a line of conduct to a gentleman was warned that the slightest touch on who had never before seen him. the feather-spring would cause it to go off two gentlemen are my friends." G n without rousing him to knock eled straight at him. He had just pres void of true modesty either, who remarked down his unknown insulter with the ence of mind to reflect that a good shot when other girs were making fun of her queue which he still held in his hand; at twenty paces-the distance now befor mild and humane men are at times tween them—was sure to hit his man, the much shocked at me exhibition thereof very subject to an excess of rage on great while he would be as certain to miss; so dresses about your necks, where they ought evidently applied to him, but still he be- the spectators that he had utterly lost his been mistaken for somebody else.

"Pardon, Monsieur," replied the prematurely."

The Carried Heavin is published weekly on a large short configurity in a terminal decoration of the state of the old burying ground-come to my er route. |lodgings-mypistols are there-you must| shoot him dead. The few words struck wildly on G-n longing.

The Carlisle Herald JoB PRINTING OFFICE is the not sufficiently explicit just now. That enemy with his unpractised hand, nor of requires no interpreter.

G-n rushed at the fellow-he had erring skill opposed to him. strike a blow, the two companions and will tear us to pieces." ome other persons interfered.

Frenchman walked away.

"No, monsieur," replied the Lieuten- the library, and forgot all about it.

"Oh! let him have it, for God's sake

"Take it, sir," said the lieutenant; my friend is too generous." "He'll be a dead man in two minutes,"

French,) to ask the meaning of this confour pistols were loaded by the seconds. out that gentleman, who happened to be duct, now evidently intended as a personal insult. The lieutenant, fortunately a no account fire till you both reach the The self-doomed victim, the virtual suiman of great coolness, and of some expectance. The short distance is your only cide rushing on his fate, darted out, enrience in such affairs, fulfilled his mission [chance," said the lieutenant, as he placed with politeness, telling the Frenchman a pistol in G--n's hand. An instinct pany him, followed the two unsuspecting that he was convinced he had mistaken of common sense made him point it Englishmen into the billiard room—and Mr. G—n for some other person, as he straight before him; but he was afraid to the reader knows the rest. could have no reason for pursuing so of | put his finger on the trigger, for he was

Frenchman, with a perfect sang froid, The Frenchman flourished his weapon, and an air of provoking politeness. "I leveled it with a theatrical air, called out am not at all mistaken. I know who loudly some words that G-n did not waist of as pretty a damsel as Maine car Monsieur G-n is quite well, and I understand; but all was done clearly with boast of, when she started and exclaimed beg you will do me the honor to tell him the object of throwing him off his guard, de ma part, that he is a colomniateur and hurrying him into firing at the farthand a coquin; and there is my card, so est distance, with a certainty of missing. that he may know where to find me in Failing in this design, the Frenchman ten minutes from this time-and these then stepped rapidly up to the cane, his you may do it again !" | barrier, his arm at full length, and G-n It was not easy to translate all this to could see into the barrel of the pistol lev-

lieved as his friend had done, that he had head, and was rushing full tilt against his foe, whom he covered straightly

The two friends, arm-in arm took a cou- tol told that he, too, had fired, having ple of turns, discussing the strange and stopped firmly and steadily at the barrier; don by a traveled foreigner, and to his or who had fallen, who escaped. From own great disgrace) saying:

first to last he had given himself up as own great disgrace) saying:

"I hope you understand that, if I was lost. He never dreamt of killing his having a chance of safety from the undisinherited himself of his title if he was | . Come, come on, come on; don't you a gentleman born-but before he could see the wretch is dead? The people And so it would have been had not th

"There is nothing for it now but an two friends bolted through the crowd mmediate meeting-explanation or apol- that, insatiably curious, thronged round ogy are out of the question. Let's lol-the corpse; and before they could disenow them !" exclaimed G-n, as the gage themselves to look for the two foreigners, they had scrambled over the bro-"Stop a bit," replied the lieutenant; ken wall, ran through some narrow lanes, "I'll settle the matter in a minute." - and found shelter in Mr. G - n's house, And he stepped after the party. He red where he met his wife, entirely ignorant turned almost immediately to G--n. Jof the fearful seene that had been acted. "It's all arranged-they are going to The second tomoin had escaped by anoth-

Almost immediately the yells of the people were heard outside. Their fury against the Englishman was roused to the pair of trotters, came back to where we They fell with an ominous sound on highest putch, and could not be controlled were standing, and we asked if they would his mind. He had never fired a pistol in by the tew gentlemen who were present save the horse. his life. The place of meeting was aw- at the cutastrophe, and not one of whom fully suggestive The name on the card lamented it, for the lot had fallen on him was that of a young officer en disponsa | who deserved it, and who left none be bilite, a notorious duelist-the pest of the hind to mourn for him G-n and neighborhood-a crack shot, who had his friend fastened up the doors and win citled and wounded several, and insulted dows as best they could, but they would nost wantouly lmost every one he had not have long resisted the assaults of the quarreled with. G-n felt himself a crowd, had not fortunately a small de when a battle is taking place, to give such comed man. He thought or his wife, tachment of mounted gendarmes galloped just expecting him home for his then us- up and surrounded the house. The officer commanding it demanded admission, "Come quicker," said he to his friend, which was gladly given to him. His There's not a moment to be lost-she conduct was admirable. His first care will be sure to hear of it-every one saw was to tranquilize the lady, who, like a what passed -somebody will, no doubt, true woman, was calm, resolute, and actell her. For God's sake, make haste tive for her husband's safety; generous before the police can know anything!"

and unself-h for herown. The officer as friend had picked up an acquaintance as they hurried on, and engage enables a man to retire to his own gazed him to stand behind him as second to moin. He acceded willingly to the request. He did not dislike a fight, and he state of national feeling at the said openly he hoped to Heaven G—n shrugged his search of the principal in the home would rid the neighborhood of its worst disgrace. Poor G—n shrugged his search of the process of the principal in the following the neighborhood of the principal in the home was kindled up that night with unity and unself-h for herown. The officer as and unself-h for herown. The officer as the went to the President's house,—It was already late at night. The President's house,—It was already late at night, the state room. (why are closeds shound steam-between the beautiful the safety of the state room. (why are closeds shound steam-between the high lates and overflow like that of a conundrum but a query,) there is but was kindled up that night with unit temper and overflow levels upon the exchange her health, stere of the principal in the health state stone and the which leaves do not seed to pervad, every closed so fit was already late at night. The President's house,—It was already late at night. The President's house, and before the police can know anything !" and unselfish for herown. The officer aswould rid the neighborhood of its worst the time, he devised the only plan for his disgrace. Poor G—on shrugged his escape, in case they overpowered the half shoulders, east up his eyes towards Head dozen gendarmes and forced an entrance. Shoulders, cast up his eyes towards Head dozen gendarmes and forced an entrance of the care to be sometimes accomplished between two to us full height, his frame dilating and quire tound in the public promenades, and produce vering, every feature glowing with the living at the highest price goes home for daily confine within, with that oath which in him never sumption. Fact ranges at exorbitant rates, word.

The conditions were soon arranged. sabre in hand; and he made which you trying to had on the curtain, steeped on the curtain, which in him never sumption. Fuel ranges at exorbitant rates, story is told of an old farmer in the northern get a drink of water, and the other finds seemed profane, but the struggle of a great lator remains at figures that are comparate part of the county, who had been "saving you trying to hold on to the curtain, struggle of a great lator remains at figures that are comparate part of the county, who had been "saving you trying to hold on to the curtain, struggle of a great lator remains at figures that are comparate part of the county, who had been "saving you trying to hold on to the curtain, strength of his purpose, he declared to Letch, extravagance continues from day to day, which you imagine is a barn door flan-

Two lines were drawn at ten paces apart, a walking cane was laid down on each. The combatants were placed each at ten and specify. Then lending him to the combatants were placed each at ten and specify. Then lending him to the face. A sleeping car and if convicted, he would try Calhoun for treason, and if convicted, he would try Calhoun for treason, and if convicted, he would hang him on a check by which a man draws his inoney. The protest which a man draws his inoney. The protest which and if convicted, he would hang him on a check by which a man draws his inoney. Week before last, he lugged down his gallows as high as Haman's. lines, so that they stood thirty paces dis- man be personated, putting an apparent Paths, and Those who Trod Them." It (tant from each other. They were then letter hastily prepared into his hand, proconsists of a series of desultory sketches, left to their own discretion to fire when fessedly for the magistrate of the town one of which we take pleasure in trans- they pleased, with liberty to advance, G -- n well played his part. He rode each before doing so, up to the respective ealmly through the people, who offered canes, but on no account to put a foot be- no remark, trotted along in the direction youd them, so that in any case they could be was told to take, and very soon left gary pursuits, and to an extraordinary | not approach each other closer than ten | Bagneres behind him, relying on the paces; and supposing them to reserve courage and chivalry of the Frenchman finally led to a hasty abandonment of the their fire till they got to that short dis- who saved him, to protect his wife, and neighborhood, Mr. Grattan made a visit tance, even then they might stand, take, the friend less compromised than he was.

to Bagneres, where he was a witness to tim, and shoot without any signal when-both following extraordinary incident:

The was joined on the same evening by both following extraordinary incident: An Irish gentleman, whose name, like lished way of settling these affairs in came under safe escort, and he turned his my own, began with & and ended with France, trying to the nerves of the cool- back forever on the place where he seem N, was certainly one of the most anniable est and most experienced duelist, terrible, ed to have experienced such a fearful to the uninitiated.

Each of the parties were provided with of the startling event.

pistols. Those of the Frenchman were Mr. (1—n, naturally, for a man of tives to disputation and ill blood, and he of ordinary make, rather old and battered, his quiet habits, was fond of reading led a most quiet and domestic life with a and both of them marked with two or, He was a subscriber to the circulating young and pretty helpmate, as unlikely three slight notches, to note the number library; and he one day had in his turn as her husband to excite any feeling that of times they had been used by their a volume that touched on the great war owner, G--n's antagouist. He poised against Napoleon, and contained some Mr. G -n one day strolled into the one of them earelessly in his hand. But sentence rather disparaging to the French lish feather-spring weapons which the Toulouse. Some reader of the book had its truth by a severe epithet. Mr. Q-n "I must fight with one of those," said scarcely observed this, if he saw it at all; but he in due time returned the book to ant; "we are not to provide you with Passing from one subscriber to anopatient G -n the request and his retthe young fire cater whose unhappy fate I have just narrated. Hurried away by on whom he vented it, he rushed to the circulating library, inquired who among the subscribers last had the volume, and was answered vaguely; but the name of A gentleman from Boston chanced to find himself among a little party of ladies, sway down East, this summer, in the enjoy ment of some innocent social play. He carelessly placed his arm about the slender "Begone Sirl don't insult!" The gentle man instantly apologized for his seeming rudeness, and assured the half offended fair one that he did not mean to insult her .-"No?" she replied archly, "well, if you didn't nera. There was a shrewd girl, and not de short skirts and white hose and affected to provocation. was astounded. He by a sudden impulse he ran impetuously to be, they'd c as short as mine!" knew the meaning of the two epithets up to his barrier, giving the idea to all was not troubled any more.

BEWARE! know a youth who can flirt and flatter-Take care! oves with the ladies to gossip and chatter-Boware! beware.

He is fooling thee Take care! echoes many, beside thine ownlleware! beware! not—he is fooling thee!

He has a hand that is soft and white-

Take care! sed another than thine last night-Beware! beware! Trust him not-He is feeling thre ! lis letters are glowing with love, I ween-

Take care! writes he does not mean-Beware! beware! -he is fooling thee: le talks of truth, and of deep devotion-Take care! floving truly he has no notion~ Beware! beware! Trust him not-He is fooling thee our heart he will gain with his dangerous wiles Take care ! f his whispered words, and his sighs, and his smil Beware ! beware ist him not—he is fooling thee!

Stereotypes of a Flying Trip.

THAT MAKES THE DIFFERENCE. At the steamboat wharf in Washingon of Alexandria boats, two horses were be landed, and one of them fell from he gangway into the water. The exitement was intense among the hackmen, and all rushed to see a horse in the water. An intelligent contraband, who drove a

"Oh, lord, yes, captain," (they call everybody captain, these intelligent conrabands do,) "he isn't a Gov'ment

VIVID LETTER-WRITING.

" How wit," inquired a gentleman of war correspondent, "that you are able, cool and lucid explanation of the fight?" "Oh, that's easy enough; we fall to the extreme rear, and write about what s going on in front."

VOICES OF THE NIGHT. A sleeping car is of comparatively reent date, and with the exception of those on the Eric railroad, where the broad at every full stop. Leaving Washington, we took a tier of shelves, and consequently were not much crowded; but the sleeping car on that letcher detailed all that occurred, giving the additional tax on the property he has acparticularly inclined to pay their devo-tions to Morpheus. Fatigue, however,

There sat Calhoun, drinking in eagerly as in the most prosperous times. Everybody

There sat Calhoun, drinking in eagerly as in the most prosperous times. Everybody if we should get too much impetus we might pop off into the water."

"Is it deep?" asked Joe.

as though it was quite likely they would some other night, and in a few moments we almost wished Joe might get a cold bath, for he evidently was a very expert snorer, and seemed to be trying to induce. the brakeman to brake up by an occasionan end when the sleeping car overseer, or conductor, or perhaps more properly mas-exclaimed: " Isn't there a gentleman here who took a double berth, who said he'd no objection to sharing it with a gentleman?" "I'm the individ'," said our vis-a-vi ter of the snoozers, opened the door and or dos-a-dos. I I should like it, then, for an officer who has just got in." "Trot him out, Mr. Overseer, and if he's a decent fellow, he can stretch his legs here." "How much do you want for it?" "I'm not on my berth-sell: he may have it for just what I gave." The officer entered, hung up his coat, thanked his companion and assumed the recumbent. " Been to the war, sir?" said the first occupant. "Yes, sir."

" So have I." "What part of the country?" "I was all the way from Yorktown Malvern Hill and back again.' " So was L' "Were you at Fair Oaks?"

"Yes, sir.' "So was I." "Were you in the retreat?" "Yes, sir." "So was I."

"Are you going to leave the army?" "No, sir; I'm on Gen. G---'s staff, and I'm going to join the Banks expedi-

"So am I." said occupant No. 1. who was joining a regiment bound for the same destination. The conversation continued, and though the two had probably shared the same field for weeks, it was reserved for them to form an aequaint- lot! "There is not so much as a stone left!" ance aboard the sleeping car.

A pause of perhaps twenty-five miles then took place, when conversation at the much water as a cow.

other end of the car attracted attention. An officer's head was projecting from ecountable manner, and was talking about a ticket he had lost.

"Well, suppose you have lost your ticket, what do you want to come into tween the highest type of the Caucassian, age, were thus graphically portrayed by Senator Cowan, of Pennsylvania, in the debate on the Confiscation Bill. It is a very strik ing picture :

Ma. PRESIDENT :- If Calhoun had been executed for his treason in 1833, there would have been no rebellion now; and perhaps he occasion was not occupied by a company entire conversation between him and Jack, quirel.

every word, and, as Letcher proceeded, he is well dressed. Every hand, almost, is which I rely, that during the last days of ginning lite in a magnificent style.

Slowly sinking under the recovery of the control of the cont slowly sinking under the ravages of consumption—that mysterious disease, which, while whose approaches cannot be withstood.—Hart wastes the body, leaves, if possible, the risburg Telegraph.

aind more clear, and nearer to inspiration -he had a conversation with his family physician and triend. speaking of his past Administration, he in-deposits. "Oh, no I" said the General. "Then it may be the specie circular ?" "Not at all !"

"What is it, then?" "I can tell you," said he, rising up in his to dissolve the Union, and to build up the Southern Confederacy, had been executed for his treason, we would have had no rebellion now.

A HARD WIND -Old Peter H -- lived in a one story wooden house of not very ex tensive dimensions, and when it was subjected to the force of wind its powers of resist. ance were insufficient to withstand so great for their libertics—and ours a pressure, and it yielded the point without lowed?—Oberlin (O.) News. a struggle; however it was not upset or torn to pieces, but merely moved a few rods. # In the course of the journey, the stove was upset and the fire was spilled out, and the dunger of conflagration was imminent. Old Peter was too much excited to notice the removal of his house, and seeing the neces sity of immediately applying water to the burning-embers of the floor, he seized a bucket and darted out behind the house, when great was his astonishment to find all traces of his well obliterated. After looking in blank astonishment a moment he called to his wife; "Sarah, I'll be blamed if the and haint blown the well clear out of the Man and the Monkey.

careful comparison is made, this feeling vanishes. There is a wide difference be no intellect w ich can expand until it measures the stars and inveats systems of eth | A HINT TO UNMARRIED TOBACCO USERS .-

that followed, but against the chief conspiral plain of and are puzzled with, equally are an ayrier, and then he goes to some saloon tor. He had resolved on his prosecution tests our attention and confounds our under to queach the thirst created by smoking, and that followed, but against the chief conspiration. He had resolved on his prosecution and trial; and if convicted, his execution for treason. He said that if he had an Attorney General that would not draw an indiction ment, he would find one that would. Things were approaching therefore in the came aware of Jackson's determination, and sent Letcher of Kentucky to confer with him on the subject, and to learn his real into containt prices charged tor everything entage. on the subject, and to learn his real intensions or mutant prices charged for everything enta-tions. He went to the President's house, - ble or wearable, in the scarcity of labor, all without disturbing the inveterate snoozer, Letcher could not misunderstand his pur signifies its non-payment. He contributes to but the nervous traveler, who wants to know what is going on, is apt to wake up at every full stop.

He saw that he was terribly in carbonic function of the foreign of the lodgings of Calhom. He hast retired to relative, and pays additional if he takes a Leaving Washington, we took a tier of and was admitted. Calhoun received him and was admitted. Calhoun received him the cars to visit one he may never be hold again. He pays for the stump which and was admitted. Calhoun received him must be affixed to the deed which conveys to gentlemen hung up next to us began a conversation.

"Do you know, Joe, that this car runs conversation as part of the car runs conversation."

"Do you know, Joe, that this car runs conversation as part of the car runs conversation."

"Do you know, Joe, that this car runs conversation as part of the car runs can across on two ferry boats, and just imagine for what? Was it from fear or cowardice? states that his sales are larger now than ever Ah, no. It was the consciousness of guilt, before. He also states that his information He was the arch traitor, who, like Satan in from those with whom he deals in New York Paradise, "brought death into the world and, and Phthadelphia, is that the sales of dimonds "Is it deep? asked Joe.

"About forty feet."

"Well, I don't think we shall tonight," replied Joe, emphasizing to-night as though it was quite likely they would I have been told, upon authority upon wealth in Government transactions that they quired:

"What act in my Administration, in your ran away from his master and found the pre was the son of Ada Byron, the poet's only opinion, will posterity condemn with the greatest severity?"

The physician replied that he was unable to answer—that it might be the removal of the large and five children with a little large her could be removal of the large figure and five children with a little large larg who knew him never dreamed that African blood coursed in his veins. Many of those bed, his eyes kin ling up: "I can tell you, mote ancestry from the outcast race, never a common sailor, then supported himself Posterity will condemn me more because 1 suspected that he had been a slave. Nor was as a hired laborer in a Thames dock yard, suspected that he had oven a stave. Nor was as a fried indoorer in a linding door your as a traitor than for any other act of my life."

suspected that he had oven a stave. Nor was as a fried indoorer in a linding door your and became engaged (if he was not actually married) to a bar-maid in a sailor's manner of appearance to excite suspicion—

the door was persuaded not to hang John (C. Calhoun as a traitor than for any other act of my should they know it! There was nothing in manner of appearance to excite suspicion—

the door was persuaded not to hang John (C. Calhoun as a traitor than for any other act of my should they know it! There was nothing in manner of appearance to excite suspicion—

the door was persuaded not to hang John (C. Calhoun as a traitor than for any other act of my should they know it! There was nothing in manner of appearance to excite suspicion—

the door was persuaded not to hang John (C. Calhoun as a traitor than for any other act of my should they know it! There was nothing in the property of the was not actually married) to a bar-maid in a sailor's property of the was not actually married.

The door was persuaded not to hang John (C. Calhoun as a traitor than for any other act of my should they know it! There was nothing in the property of the was not actually married.

The door was persuaded not to hang John (C. Calhoun as a traitor than for any other act of my should they know it! There was nothing in the property of the was not actually married. If Calbonn, the originator of this conspiracy to dissolve the Union, and to build up the Conthern Castellara, and to build up the Castellara, Castella of his unnaid labor. In that service he gave cause of the Union. Who doubts that thousands of his brethren, blacker though they may be would not fight as well and bravely for their liberties and ours were they al

NOVEL WAY TO CURE A BREACHY HORSE. -A correspondent of the lown Homestead was out riding the other day with a friend, hole in each ear. On inquiring the cause, he learned that it was to keep the horse from jumping. "Why," said he, "a borse don't jump with his ears." "You are mistaken," replied his friend; "a horse jumps as much with his ears as with his feet, and unless he nore trouble with the horse-

BED. An editor in Minnesota is determined to break up housekeeping and go board about sixty years of ago, and was about sixty years of ago, and was about sixty years of ago, and was a most involvested unth water as a cow.

Report of the Secretary of the Navy: Au officer's head was projecting from his roost, and he was addressing a man who had strayed into the car in some under the street without an awkward feel operations of the navy during the war. Aling of possible relationship. The imitation is too close to be agreeable. But when a careful comparison is made, this feeling vanishes. There is a wide difference be ticket, what do you want to come into this car and make such a — fuss about it. Here, conductor put this man out."

As the conductor didn't answer the summons, it is presumed he was asleep on a pile of wood near the stove.

"If von've lost vonr ticket you can't the skeleton, and narticularly the skull of the careastant, and the lowest Bushman or Australian; but the care the highest type of the Caucassian, and the lowest Bushman or Australian; but the care the highest type of the Caucassian, and the lowest Bushman or Australian; but the care that the lowest bushman or Australian; but the care vessels, of which one hundred and twenty-three have been constructed, carrying in all 3,268 guns. Mr. Wells claims success in his blockading service, the most formidable one over undertaken by any Government. He believes that Southern ports will be in our possession at an early day, and thus reon a pile of wood near the store.

"If you've lost your ticket you can't find it," continued the officer, who paused a noment, and then resuming, said:
"Aren't you a sutter?"

"Yes, sir, I am," replied the man.

"If thought so, you look like a this more like that of a tiger than of a human bring. With the first look at the hinder?"

This complimentary remark appeared to rathen discomfit the man, and he left We fell asleep wondering how the officer knew he was a sutter, and whether, having been wronged by some sutter, he had taken a holy oath to insult all sutters for all time to come. They do say that sutters are not have a many and selection all idea of relationship vances. Place the skulls of all the varieties all time to come. They do say that sutters are not have a many and the lowest to the boys had rather be without a colonel than deprived of a sutter, but this is private.—

Bosten Bulktin.

JACKSON AND CALHOUN.

A scene at the Whive House in 1833, at the lodgings of John C Calhoun the same eight, and a death bed scene at the Hermit age, were thus graphically portrayed by Seminator Control of the statistics show that Mr. Wells age, were thus graphically portrayed by Seminator Control of the care and improvement, with an intellect with can are any and invested systems of eth.

Allist powers and the British Musseum, and inspect the skull of a beast. Its the lead of a beast. Its the the late of the size of the small be in this being an availation, as in the mater of the larger brains in proportion to their size; but there is no resulting the study in proportion to their size; but there is no resemblance which can give no more the sult in the same proportion to their size; but there is no resemblance which can give no more any in proportion to their size; but there is no results and the proposes to accept it for the purposes, but and the varieties of humanity side by side in a descendin tath; a cunning brute perhaps, but not equal nice young girls in our community unmartor the dog, or horse, or elephant, either of which would be for us a more respectable by the Phrenological Journal in one word relative than the finest specimen of four-Tobacco. In old times, when you could approach a value man within whichering dishave been no rebellion now; and perhaps he came nearer his execution than most people and advortes of the Zoological gardens— handed favorites of the Zoological gardens— from the most people are aware. You well know the conspirators in South Carolina proceeded to the commission of the overtact.

Cathoun was the chief adviser. General Jackson knew it well, and determined that the law should be put in execution against the law should be put in execution against the law should be put in execution against the followed, but against the chief conspiration of and are reputated with, coughly against the chief conspiration of and are reputated with, coughly against the chief conspiration of and are reputated with, coughly against the followed but against the chief conspiration of and are reputated with, coughly against the chief conspiration of and are reputated with, coughly against the chief conspiration of and are reputated with a constraint of the section of the specific process of the Zoological gardens—proach a young man within whispering distance without being more attended by his breath, he used—when his day's work was over—to spend his evenings with some good girls or girls, either around the family hearth, or in some pleasant walks, or at some innocent contemporaries abroad comparison of the content of t of ten deliberately give up respectable female society to induge the solitary, enervating habit of smoking, until their broken-down constitutions chamor for careful pursing; then they cooly ask some nice young girl to exchange her health, strength, beauty and unimpaired intellect for their sallow face,

> IT PAYS TO TAKE THE PAPERS .- A capital loquy cusued:

"Why, you don't mean to give this $2,000 in gold do you?" said the lender.
"Yes, certainly" said the farmer, "I was afraid of the pesky banks, and so I've been saving up the money, in yellow boys for this

"All right," responded the lender "only thought you didn't take the papers, that's

"Take the papers! No, sir not I. They have gone on so since the war's been agoing that I won't have one of the d—lish things thout. But the money is all right, isn't it? "Yes, all right, $2000 in gold. All right, here's your note and mortgage."

And well might he haved called it all right, as the premium on gold that day was 22 per cent., and his gold was not only worth the face of the bond, but $440 besides, enough to have paid for his village newspaper for himself and posterity for at least three centuries. It pays to take the papers .- Norwalk

THE LAST OF THE BYRONS .-- The lullness of London at this season of the year, has been relieved for the day by a strange glimpse sinto the romance of the peerage. Last week there died at Brighon, at the early age of twenty seven, Byron Nocl, Baron of Ockham and Wentworth. The heir of a large fortune, the he had a conversation with his family hysician and triend.

With lying upon his bed one day, and beaking of his past Administration, he invited by the property of the greatest of English poets, the young point of the greatest of English poets, the young poet had—so the world might have judga wife and five children, with a little home, young Baron never assumed his rank, partly paid for by his own savings during the never took his seat in the House of Lords, young Baron never assumed his rank. struggling years of his freedom. He belonged to the white slaves of the South. Hundreds fishionable world Very certy in life he fashionable world. Very early in life he broke off his connection with his family, who were aware that he was tainted by re- willingly or not, served on board ship as But a soldier of the Union, commanded by his | public house in Wapping. Then, in the put down the treason begotten by slavery, for the court papers mention his existence aught we know to re visit the very soil that, in the years of his bondage, drank the sweet Byrons is dead; and the story of the laup his life. One soldier, at least, has been test descendant of that strange race is given by the despised, chattel race, to the buried in the grave with him.—London n test descendant of that strange race is Letter.

> A NEW WRINKLE .- It is becoming quite common in New York to append to marriage notices in the papers. "no cards sent," thus obviating the misunderstanding and offence which would necessarily arise among friends —A correspondent of the lowa Homestead and acquaintances from want of knowledge was out riding the other day with a friend, and observed that one of the horses had a the omissions and discriminations always ineident to the custom.

Dred Eron the Effects of Tobacco.a state of lethargy, from the effects of swalcan have free use of his ears he cannot jump. the steamer Cottage No. 2. died from the effect of the poison, on Saturday previous, and after working in convulsions for more than a day, a death like lethargy followed, from which he never recovered. The deceased was