efit of interest and profit upon paper money, that in this way accrues to individuals.

And so on ad infinitum.

Let us, then, in view of these palpable and insurmountable objections, adopt some plan which will do away entirely with this nuisance—at as early a moment as is compatible with the interests of the present holders of these small notes. Our idea is that all solvent and respectable citizens and corporations, who have issued these notes to supply what they believed to have been a public necessity, should give notice that they wish to recall them, and appoint places in every town and village for their redemption. After a reasonable time for this redemption, let the people refuse them, and our word for it, the United States currency, which has heretofore been hoarded with almost the same tenacity as silver coin—will very soon become plentiful enough for all purposes.—Who will commence the good work?

RESCUED FROM AN EVIL COURSE.—Under this ception we find in the Baltimore American, of Saturday last, the following account of the rescue of Emma King, said to be a resident of Carlisle, from an evil and licentious life. We have made inquiries of several persons, but can find no one who has any knowledge of such persons as those named in the annexed article, and cannot but think that our Baltimore contemporary as well as the officers who took such an interest in this affair, have been the victims of a Clever hoax. Here is the article:

RESCUED FROM AN EVIL COURSE.—Constables Reese and Nyle on Tuesday evening took from a house of ill fame on North St. a girl, aged sixteen years, known as Emma King, whose parents live in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and she returned home in the 9 o'clock train the same night, in charge of her mother. It appears that she left her home about five months ago, and since lived in the house from which she was taken by the officers, under a warrant issued by Justice Hayward. To her mother she had written several letters, in which she represented that she was residing in the family of an officer of a Pennsylvania regiment, raised in the vicinity of Carlisle, and it was not not until a gentleman from Carlisle, who knew her and her parents, chanced to stop at the house on North street, that the true fact of the case were ascertained by her mother, who thereupon came to this city and obtained the services of the officers. She did not manifest any degree of penitence for her evil conduct, though it is expected, from the future surveillance that the mother designs exercising, she will pursue a right course hereafter.

Attest—J. ARMSTRONG, Clerk. Commissioners.

We, the Auditors of Cumberland County, having been duly sworn and affirmed, met at the Commissioner's office, in Carlisle, on the 5th day of January, 1863, and proceeded to audit and adjust the account of John Gutshall, Esq., Treasurer of said County, from the 1st day of January to the 31st day of December, A. D. 1862 and do certify that we find a balance of twelve thousand eight hundred and sixteen dollars and fifty-eight cents due by said Treasurer to said County, as will appear by the foregoing statement of said account. We have also examined and compared the foregoing statement of said assets of said County, with the records, and do certify it to be a correct exhibit of the same on the 1st day of January, A. D. 1863.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands this 21th day of January, A. D. 1863.

JOHN S. DUNLAP,
JAMES R. IRVINE
WILLIAM M. GARDNER,

The Magic Time Observer,

THE PERFECTION OF MECHANISM.

BEING a Hunting and Open Face, or Lever Watch, and a Chronometer, combining the perfection of movement and time that the best and largest Chronometer ever made, with the addition of a Watch Case so perfectly fitting as to exclude dust and moisture entirely. The cases of this Watch are composed of three metals, the outer one being fine Rolled Gold, the second a composition of Silver and Nickel, and the inner one Pure Silver, rendering it impossible for the Gold to wear through, as the second case is always in contact with the Gold. The Movements are so perfectly adjusted to the cases, that dust and moisture cannot enter. Each Watch is accompanied with a Certificate of Warranty for three years, signed by the Manufacturers, and countersigned by the Agent, who will send the Watch by express, C. O. D., to any part of the country, with the privilege of examination before the money is paid. Where a remittance accompanies the order, a discount of 10 per cent. will be allowed. Where a single Watch is wanted, the money must accompany the order, as we cannot collect from those in the Army. Address

ESTABLISHED AS A REFUGE FROM QUACKERY.

THE ONLY PLACE WHERE A CURE CAN BE OBTAINED.

DR. JOHNSTON has discovered the most certain, speedy and only effectual remedy in the world for all private diseases. Weakness of the back or limbs, strictures, affections of the kidneys and bladder, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, dyspepsy, languor, low spirits, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, tremblings, dimness of sight or giddiness, disease of the head, throat, nose or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary habits of youth—those secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN

Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have stood high in the Senates with the thunders of Eloquence, would be saved from the Evils, & the many calls with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or young men about contracting marriage, are aware of physical weakness, organic debility, deformities &c., should consult Immediately before the [illegible] Dr. J. may be [illegible] in his letter as a gentleman, and can be safely relied upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately cured, and full vigor restored. This distressing affliction, [illegible] misguided and ignorant [illegible] the victims of [illegible] are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that ensue. Now, who that understands the subject, will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improprieties than by the prudent? Besides being deprived the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms, both body and mind, arise. The system becomes [illegible] the physical powers become enfeebled, the intellect weakened, indigestion, palpitation of the heart, trembling, consumption, epilepsy, and a train of the most frightful nervous affections, [illegible] decay and death.
