22d OF FEBRUARY.—Sunday next, will be the 22d of February, but we presume, its celebration—if there be any—will be on Monday. We give this day pronounce, because it is the birth-day of America's Immortal WASHINGTON. How appropriate, in the present degenerate age of treason and secession, it is to take a retrospective glance to the good old days when red coat invaders and tory cow boys alike suffered the penalty of their treachery. Let us then, on next Sunday and Monday refresh ourselves anew at the pure fountain of liberty and patriotism, which was opened in 76, and has yet volume enough to quench the hellish fire of this slaveholder's rebellion.

DICKINSON COLLEGE.—We neglected to notice at the proper time the successful opening of the January term of this time-honored institution.

The session commences with a larger number of students, and brighter prospects for future prosperity, than have attended any term since the commencement of the rebellion. The noble old halls, once again echo to the tread of many eager feet pressing their way to the recitation room. May Mother Dickinson long continue to merit the success, her present administration has secured her.

SPEECH OF HON. JOSEPH SEGAR.—On our first page to-day will be found the able speech of this southern patriot. It was delivered last summer, at Portsmouth, Va. but is not out of season, even while the mercury is as low as at present. Especially, is apropos when at this late day, a Cumberland County newspaper, has become so lost to truth, loyalty, and every other principle of justice as to charge the cause of this slaveholders rebellion upon his fellow citizens of the North. Read this speech Unionists, and it will strengthen your arm to crush the head of this copperhead rebellion.

THE FARMER AND GARDENER.—The Febuary number of this valuable Agricultural and Horticultural monthly has—though late—come to hand: and we know of no greater service we can render our Agricultural and horticultural friends, than urging upon them the propriety at this time, of their subscribing for the "Farmer and Gardener." Among the valuable articles in the number before us are: Leiby on Agriculture, Bone Manure, Pnaemonia, or Inflammation of the Lungs in Cattle, Breeding Animals, Hogs—Hog Pens, Look well to your Dairy Cows, What kills Trees? Brief Hints for the Kitchen Garden, The Humanizing Influence of Horticulture, The Ever Blooming Rose, Culture of the Rasberry, Remedy for Barren Fruit Trees, To Prepare Trees for Planting, &c &c: Articles, every one of which doubtless will to many, and might to many more, prove to be worth more than a year's subscription.

Notwithstanding the very great advance in the price of paper and all other printing materials, the Farmer and Gardener is still published at the very low price of $ 1 per year in advance by

*By Act of Assembly of Dec. 14, 1860, Pamphlet Laws of 1861, page 484, the County is now directly responsible for the payment of the amount of State tax, fixed by the Board of Revenue Commissioners, less collectors' and treasurer's commissions, which are to be paid out of the said tax by the County, and any excess of said tax levied and collected over that amount accrues to the County, and not to the State, as heretofore. It has, therefore, been deemed proper to combine the two items of County and State taxes in this statement.

†By act of Assembly of April 8, 1862, the militia taxes are collected in the several counties, are appropriated to said counties, for the benefit of the soldiers' relief fund,' and are, therefore, embraced in this statement.

Statement of County and State Taxes outstanding 1st Jan. 1863.
