

Mr. H. R. WILLIAMS, desires us to state that his former effort to form a night school, in penmanship, having proved a perfect success, he will commence a second course next week, before which time all young men desirous of joining the class, should apply.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—An accident occurred on the Cumberland Valley Railroad near Mechanicsburg on Monday last. The down freight train encountered a broken rail, which threw it off the track smashing some ten or twelve cars, and inflicting slight injuries upon two or three of the conductors. Nobody was seriously injured.

SOLDIERING AFFRAY.—A U. S. SOLDIER, supposed to be mortally wounded, on Tuesday evening an affray occurred at the north end of East street, which will probably result in the death of John Barry, a U. S. soldier from Carlisle Barracks. The circumstances are briefly as follows: Barry was in command of the patrol, which is sent in from the barracks every evening. Tuesday being payday, and two soldiers being absent at roll-call in the evening, special instructions were given to the patrol to arrest them if possible. After stationing his guards at the street corners in the neighborhood of the scene of the affray, he (Barry) heard the screams of two women. Thinking his men might be in trouble in company with these women, he advanced in that direction. Meeting a man in his way, he ordered him to halt, and the man complied. Another man appearing in a short time, this man ordered him to halt, and he also complied. The man then advanced, and the soldier fired at him. The man then advanced, and the soldier fired at him. The man then advanced, and the soldier fired at him.

Deaths.
At Mount Holly Springs on the 8th of Feb. WILLIAM A. aged 5 years, and on the 18th of the same month of Harriet and Albert Nausfeld.
In Frankfort township on the 10th of March 1863, Mrs. MARGARET SNYDER, aged 85 years, 2 months and 18 days.
Killed on the 31st day of December, 1862, at the Battle of Murfreesboro, Lieut. RICHARD C. M. TALLEY, of Battery G, First Regiment of Artillery, Mo. Vol., in the 24th year of his age.
Found hearts were breathing high.
Tomb eyes were watching for the loved one gone,
And gentle voices dearest than were high,
Talked of thy glad return.
They watched—not a lin. vain—
Thy form once more the wanted threshold passed,
But choking sobs and tears like summer rain,
Welcomed thee home at last.
Husband, (thine farewell)
To thee we grieve, a happier life is given,
One to which we have both loved its spell,
And one to which we have both loved its spell.
