destroying the bridges over the two forks of the Bayou Pierre These were rebuilt, and the pursuit continued until the present time. Besides the heavy artillery at this place, four field pieces were captured and some stores, and the enemy were driven to destroy many

The country is the most broken and difficult to operate in I ever saw. Our victory has been most complete, and the enemy thoroughly demoralized. U. S. GRANT, Very respectfully,

Maj. Gen. Comd'g Grand Gulf, Miss., May 6, via Cairo.-Maj. Gen. H. W. Halleck, General-in-Chief -I learn that Col. Grierson, with the cavalry, has been heard of-first about ten days of Jackson, at a poi-t called Newton's Sta-Enterprise, and demanded the surrender of the place. He gave them one hour's grace. Bremen, or Belgium. during which General Lormnay arrived He left at once and moved towards Hazel hurst, on the New Orleans and Jackson rail

At this point he tore up the track. Thence he moved to Bahala, ten miles further south on the same road; thence eastward on the Natchez road, where he had fight with Wirt Adam's Cavalry. From the spoint he moved back of the Naw Orleans and Lackson Rail. Adam's Cavalry. From this point he moved back of the New Orleans and Jackson Railroad to Brookhaven, ten miles south of Bahala.

When last heard from he was three miles south of the last named point, and was supposed to be making his way to Baton Rouge. He had spread excitement throughout the State, destroyed railroads, trestle-works and bridges, burned locomotives and railway stock and destroyed stock of all kinds. He also took many prisoners. U. S. Grant, Major General.
