_ DINNER TO THE SOLDIERS .- On Saturday afternoon last we had the pleasure of attending the dinner provided for the officers and men of companies A and G of the 130th regiment. The dinner was given at the Meeting House Springs, and to say that everything passed off in the best of style would be tautology, as every one who is acquainted with the manner in which Major Bretz gets up these matters, is well aware that nothing would be left undone to make the occasion one long to be remembered by all who were the favored participants.

The dinner was served about one o'clock, and to the large party then and there assembled, we know it gave as general satisfiction as the most perfect epecurean could desire. The tables were spread in the grove skirting the creek, and were bountifully covered with all the substantials, luxuries, delicacies, et celeras, of a splendid feast. There were no speeches, songs or toasts—a slight mistake we think, on such an occasion. The day was delightful, every body happy, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion. About three o'clock the sold era returned to town, when they were dismissed. All then returned to their peaceful homes. without any drunkenness or rowdvism-thus proving that Carlisle boys can be sold and unfounded reports of his conduct had reached his acquaintances and friends here. We, in common with most of our citizens, were misled by these rumors, and were led to believe that he had became an active traitor to his country. But we have since seen such indubitable evidence of our mistake that we are right glad to correct it. Mr. Parker gives a graphic account of the destitution and suffering of the rebels in Virginia, the defection and insuborbination of many of their troops, especially the Irish conscripts. He thinks that the fall of Vicksburg would be such a blow to them that the destruction of their entire government would be comparatively easy.

TRIBUTE TO AN OLD CARLISLER. --From the Golden Age, published in Washington Territory, we take the following eloquent tribute to the merit and worth of John Noble. jr. son of our fellow citizen John Noble, Esq. Mr. Nonle, left Carlisle when quite a young man, to seek his fortunes in the far West .-We are glad to see him recommended for a a position, which the journal referred to, says he is so well qualified to fill.

" RENDER UNTO CEASAR, THAT WHICH ARE

We are led to the adoption of the above. from a conversation we had a few days since with a friend of ours, in relation to certain men and measures. Many men are capable of filling a certain position or place in almost any capacity, while others are totally unfit for the position they aspire to, and even if they attain to it are not qualified to reflect oredit upon the position or themselves. We allude to the appointments that have been made in our officers, as well as a thousand other subordinate appointments, that have been made by certain parties wi hout consideration. From a friend of ours who has just arrived from the Dalles, we learn that one of her best citizens, John E. Noble Esq , has made application for the vacant Captaincy We are of the number who have been acquainted with Mr. Noble, since his entrance into Washington Territory and Oregon, and we know him to be peculiarly well adapted to the position he aspires to. He came across the Plains, years since, and established his camp among the In dians with his parteners. Bumford and Loyd Brooke Brg., and there remained on the ranch until Mr. Indians became disgusted with their proximity, stole their cottle, burnt their houses, and otherways destroyed their property. From affluence, they descended the scale, until poverty stared them in the face. Nothing daunted, they faced the world and fought the battle of fickle fortune, until they now have her in their grasp. Mr. Noble is an educated gentleman -a thorough soldler, and a natural disciplinarian. He has a love for the profession, and a desire to fill a certain position.— He is eminently qualified and desires the place. We hope, in connection with a host of others, that Gov. Gibbs of Oregan will, before he makes any appointments, consider well the qualifications of Mr. Noble, and give him the position that he can so well represent with oredit to himself, and the State of Oregon.

THE ENROLLMENT.—The enrollment of all persons subject to conscription under graduating and valuation of unpatented lands | the late act, has already commenced. Col. Henderson, Provost Marshal for this (15th) district, has made the following appointments for this county. The appointees will enter upon the discharge of their duties immediately.

It will be noticed that those appointments have been made without regard to political predilections, care having been taken to select those best qualified to do the work. Of course the claims of soldiers wounded in their coun try's defence have not been overlooked.
