Further, that if the Governor of Ohio. Let not this important for the forgetten will be convenient for people became convinced they were to have a fact be forgotten-it will be convenient for despot, they might possibly resolve to have future reference. one of their own choosing These singular threats and warnings were uttered in the presence of the Copperhead Committee from Ohio, who were on the stand, and who were to receive from the President, in the course of the following week, his final answer, wheth er he would discharge Vallandigham or not. HE TRIES TO STOP THE DRAFT.

We need not describe how well they did the work the conspirators had set for them. They instituted murder and plunder by the what might happen generally if the Emancipation act were not rescinded, were told to murder every negro man, woman or child they could lay their hands on. They burned down a colored orphan asylum, and the ma jority wished to throw the children in the flames; and wherever they met a hapless Af rican they slew him by beating him to death. One Mozart statesman, with a view to office. plucked a brown infant from its father's arms and hurled it headlong into assume court, some forty feet below, while with the other hand he dashed out its parent's brains.

There was terror enough, and blood enough and pillage enough, to meet all the long ex-pectations that had been formed for months for this red "christening of the Northern States;" and what was one of the pleasant features of this carnival, to those who had that this new policy of the Peace party was inaugurated with the cheerful cries of "Three cheers for Jeff. Davis !!" "This will balance Vicksburg!" and "Bully for the South !"-Equally strong evidences of good will for "our Southern brethren" and the Confederacy were shown by an effort to release the Confederate prisoners on their road to Da-vid's Island; also by a resolute attempt to burn the huge ironclad steamer at Webb's and Greene. yard, and by the tearing down of an Ameri-can flag in the Seventh avenue, and the treading upon and tearing of it into a thousand pieces. The only defect about the whole affair for those who set it on was, there were no American workmen in it, and the a necessity for his district to furnish another few poor Germans who were hurried with the crowd were mere waifs, which the purely Celtic storm had whiffed from intervening doorways into the resistless stream.

We i.eed not dwell upon the scene. Its horrors are with everybody, and everybody knows that the military suthorities cutting loose from Seymonr, finally soothed the fury of "these innocent people," without the aid of Judge McCunn, by shooting them to death. It is due to Gov. Seymour to state, however, that he was consistent to the end, and that he united with Senator Bradley, in order to have the provoking presence of the military removed from the Eighteenth Ward. The authorities, however, "did-not see the matter in that light," and their views were justified by a final outbreak on that evening.
