truly great man in an exigency of almost unequalled moment. It is worthy of a Cromwell commonwealth threatened by a formidable combination of enemies to its freedom and integrity. It is the utterance of a statesman who has nothing to conceal-of a ruler guiltless of oppression -- of the genius that con-sists in transparent honesty and unflindhing resolution. Addressed to friends and neighbors, to supporters and opponents, it is open to all the world to read. It really challenges the judgment of contemporary civilization, though it contains scarce a hint of any coun-try but the United States. If it fail there to ombine all parties in ardent approval of the President's policy, it must be because party lifferences are invincible to logic and persuasion. But abroad, it must immensely enlarge and strengthen the evergrowing sentiment in favor of a Government that insists upon making citizens of all its subjects, and vindicat.

In calm confidence that the war will result n the re establishment, not only of the Union, but of the principle of popular sovereignty on which it is based - in we l-assured hope, too, that the negro will obtain his share of that great blessing in the abolition of his bondage, and the removal of his degradation - President Lincoln exhorts the great people of whom he is the chosen and worthy chief not to be overanguine of a speedy triumph, but to soberly and diligently persevere in their struggle.— In words of Puritanic cast he bids them "ap-ply the means," trusting a just God for the rightful result. With such words armies have register to victory, and actions en-couraged to the salvation of their liberties.— They are words befitting men who believe at once in themselves, in their cause, and in a righteous Providence. Retreat of Gen. Lec's Army to

NE# YORK, Oct. 11. The Washington specials state that General Lee's army has retreated from the Rapidan to

Yesterday evening reports from the front represented that early in the morning one of Kilpatrick's cavalry brigates, consisting of the Fifth Michigan, Fifth New York and Seventh Pennsylvania, and another cavalry regiment, attempted to make a reconnoissance on the south side of Robertson's river, when they were met by a large body of Stuart's rebel cavalry. A fight ensued, continuing an hour, when our cavalry fell back upon the infantry re-After another severe contest our infantry ere compelled to give way, and a conside of the depreciation of the currency, and declares that "they seem to be laboring dili gently" for the ruin of the rebel cause. It adds that they have but to sow the seeds of distrust among the soldiers, and "it needs no prophet to tell what will inevitably and speedily follow. Under the head of "Sufferings known. of the People," it relates instances of suffer ing among the widows of soldiers, and adds that "the curse of Heaven will be upon the land if these widows and their children are allowed to cry for bread in vain." The same paper calls upon Jeff. Davis to "tax the people high" and " suppress high prices by law!" On the subject of the distress of the people. the Dispatch says:

"The rapid advance in all necessaries of clothing and subsistence threatens us with great distress. There is no disguising the fact. We cannot see how unemployed persons, and how those who live on incomes and salaries. are to get along, especially at the inclement season of the year now rapidly approaching. How are they to buy shoes and clothing at the present rates? Nay, how long are these made. rates to prevail? A great auction may in a day or two run them all up fifty per cent !-An auction thus has become to be regarded by the people with as much dread as a battle! A defeat on the battle field could hardly bring more suffering upon them. These questions are growing daily more and more important. Something must be be done. Produce must be distributed, prices must be reduced, gains must be disgorged, or there will be suffering intense suffering will beget, intense, and what? Think of it." The same paper deplores the new draft, and says :

"Already we are beginning to feel the want of labor in those employments that are indis-pensable to existence. What are the people to do this winter for clothing, fuel and for other prime necessities of life, if the few pro ducers who are left are turned into consum ers by being drafted into the army. Our most pressing danger is the immense privation and suffering our people n ay endure if the pro-ducing power is any further diminished."

In the extreme South and Southwest there is if possible still greater destitution and sorrow among the deluded people who in an evil flicted by a civil war. Our population, al hour gave themselves over to the crime of ready inadequate to this immense territory, treason. When this causeless, wicked war was commenced by them, their land was teem. ing with wealth and plenty ; but now by their own wanton rebellion against the govornment that.
