LAUGHING GAS .- The last exhibition of this and a thousand other wonderful and instructive things will be held in Rheem's Hall this (Friday) evening. Dont fail to go and see the Professor's Lee and Haller.

GERMAN REFORMED SYNOD .- This body convened on Wednesday evening in the German Reformed Church. The opening discourse was preached by the Rev. E. V. Gerhart, D. D., President of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., from the text John 21: 15, "Feed my Lambs." The "sermon was earnest and thoughtful, and very appropriately presented the claims of little children to the prayers and culture of the church and of christian parents.

On Thursday morning the Synod was organized by the election of the usual officers for the coming year. Rev. C. F. McCauley of Reading, was clected President. Rev. Prof. Appel of Lancaster, was elected Corresponding Secretary. Rev. Dr. Fisher of Chambersburg, acts as the stated Clerk.

The Synods consists of delegates from some fifteen classes situated in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina. From the two latter classes there are no delegates in attendance. This constitutes the eastern synod of the German Reformed Church, the western occupying Ohio and the adjacent states.

The business, which will claim the attention of the Synod, will, it is said, be of a very important character. The Printing Estab lishment at Chämbersburg, and the election of a Theological Professor for the Seminary at Mercersburg, are among the more important subjects which will come up.

On Thursday evening there was a meeting for the purpose of organizing an Historical Society in the German Reformed Church .-"This elicited some discussion and called forth .....extemporaneous addresses.- An-address prepared for the occasion was delivered by the Bev. Dr. HARBAUGH of Lebanon.

I The sessions of the Synod are open to the public, and will be continued for eight or ten days:

THE WAY THE COPPERHEAD MAJOR-ITY IN SOUTH MIDDLETON' TOWNSHIP WAS 'AT-TAINED .- The above township gave this fall an unprecedented majority against the Union ticket. We propose to detail the way in which a large portion of this majority, was secured. The Assessor of that township in a number of instances grossly neglected his duty and in others just as lar exceeded them -rerring of course, always on the side of Jeff * Davis. In making his assessment he visited South Middleton-William Moore,
