that forms a striking feature of the literature of the day; yet it is painful, and sometimes frightful, to see the polished arrows, tipped with the poison of infidelity, shot at the grand system of religious faith, which has been the rock of safety to millions of our race, in the midst of the storms of error which have swept the earth. This infidel feature of the Westminster greatly mars the beauty of its pages; tial reading which it furnishes, renders it an attractive and popular Quarterly.

COURT PROCEEDINGS .- The November Term of the Court of Common Pleas commenced on Monday last. The following is a complete list of the cases tried. We are indebted to L. J. W. Foulk, Esq., for the report:

Alexander S. Himes vs. Peter F. Ege .-This suit was to recover a fee that had been paid for recovering a gale that was due on a mortgage given by Ege to Himes. The case was submitted to the Court, which instructed the jury that the plaintiff was entitled to recover $600, with interest from the 9th of August, 1851, amounting to $753 70, which was excepted to by defendant's counsel .-Penrose and Williamson for plaintiff, Smith and Miller for defendant.

John Greason vs. John Garman.—Replevin for a stove and clock. Settled by the defendant agreeing to pay $25 and the costs. Henderson and Hays for plaintiff, Miller and Newsham for defendant

George Bitner vs. William C. Houser and George Bobb. Trespass vi et armis. Settled by the parties. Defendants pay costs. Penrose for plaintiff, Miller and Ritner for defendants.

Com. for use of Nancy Weise vs. Abra ham Warner, ce-obliger in a bond.—An action on a bond to recover the $1000 penalty. Plaintiff took a non-suit last week. Wattand Parker for plaintiff, Penrose for defi-John H. Viller for use vs. Coble -Action on a sealed note given to plaintiff by Coble. Defendant refused payment on the ground of failure of consideration. The case was settled by the parties, the defendant paying the full amount of plaintill's claim, with the costs. McGlaughlin for plaintiff, Watts and Parker for defendant.

Carlisle Deposit Bank vs. Saml. Hepburn. -Action in assumpsit. Continued by reason of referring to referce. Watts and Parker for plaintiff, P. P. Hopburt, Miller and Newsham for defendant

Jacob Jacoby vs. C. Lalev, S. Kutz, and J. Thudiam .- Attachment execution. Continued at the instance of Mr. Thudiam, who asserted that he had no counsel; that Mr. Sharp had been employed by him, but who is now in the army. The Court consented to a continuance for this time, on condition that he pay the costs of the term, but told him that the case would not be postponed for the same reason another time. Miller and Newsham for plaintiff.

Joseph Ebright and Wife vs. P. Kiehl and W. S. Świgert. Executors of George Kicht, deceased .- Assumusit. The will of George Kiehl left a child's share to the executors in trust to pay Mrs. Ebright $25 a year. In stead of paying the instalments, they pur chased a judgment on a property she had bought, and allowed the lien to expire. She and her husband sold the property, and this suit was brought to recover the $25 per an num since the death of testator. McGlaughlin for plaintiffs, Shearer, Watts and Parker for defendants.

Joseph W. Patton, Administrator of Robert Noble, dec'd., vs. Christian Laley, George Laley and Susan Laley. Trespass in case for conspiracy to defraud, and in assumpsit. Plaintiff's counsel being compelled to elect upon which count they will try, chose the clause in assumpsit. Whereupon the defendant's counsel confessed a judgment in fa vor of plaintiff as to Christian and George, and the trial proceeded as to Susan. It appeared that decedent had bailed George and Christian for horses that they bought, being engaged in horse dealing, and by reason of losses were unable to pay the same, and they failed.—Susan-havir to a considerable extent, it is alleged that she holds it for the rest, and only assumes the ownership in order to defraud their creditors, and that she is a partner, and has been. She proved that she had property before the rest went into any business-that | RED she had always been industrious and saving, | and that she never was in any partnership with her brothers. Watts, Parker and Miller for plaintiff, Hepburn and Penrose for defendants.

Christian Long vs. John C. Walborn and Joel Shapley .- James Mackey et. al. vs. Same -Continued by consent of parties, by reason of having been referred to referee .-Watts and Parker for plaintiffs, McClure for detendants.

Philip Arnold vs Jonathan Cornman.-Trespass on the case. Continued. Watts and Parker for plaintiff, Todd, Miller, and Newsham for defendant.
