Town and County Matters.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop Potter, and the clergymen composing the South-Central Convocation of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, will meet for public services in St. John's Church, Carlisle, on Tuesday next. (12th inst.) at 7 o'clock A. M. Also on Wednesday and Thursday at 11 o'clock A. M. and at 7 o'clock P. M. On one of these occasions the apostolic rite of confirmation will be administered. The public are invited to attend.

ANNIVERSARY.—On Tuesday, the 22d ult., the Belles Lettres Society of Dickinson College, held their anniversary in Rheem's Hall. The programmes were well arranged and displayed good taste on the part of the committee of arrangements. The speakers also deserve great credit for their selection of subjects, and the able manner in which they treated them. The exercises were much enhanced by the splendid music from the U. S. Garrison Band, under direction of Sergeant Box.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE COMMISSIONERS.—The following appointments were made by the Commissioners, on the 1st instant

Clerk.—James Armstrong.
Attorney—H. Newsham.
Physician to Jail—Dr. W. W. Dale.
Mercantile Appraiser—James A. Green.
Keeper of Public Buildings—Rudisil Natcher.

THE LADIES FAIR.—The fair of the ladies' Aid Society held during the holidays was, we are glad to say a perfect success.—The net profits will not fall far short of Eight Hundred Dollars. This handsome sum will be religiously devoted to the alleviation of all the suffering and distress of Cumberland County soldiers and soldiers' families. Too much credit cannot be awarded to those ladies and gentlemen, who besides giving of their means contributed their unremitting labors to render the fair at once pleasant and profitable. The cause in which such hearts and hands are enlisted cannot fail.

☞ Our thanks are due to Gen. JAMES M. ALLEN, for a most valuable present. The gift is a cane cut from the main mast of the U. S. frigate Cumberland. The Cumberland, it will be remembered, participated in the fight with the rebel ram Merrimac, off Fortress Monroe, and after being perforated with balls from the latter, went down with her colors gloriously flying from her mast head. We prize the cane, both for the hallowed associations connected with the noble ship of which it formed a part, and for the courtesy and kindly remembrance of the gallant donor.

FOUND DEAD.—Mr. JACOB WOLF, a highly respectable citizen of this place, was found dead in his room, on Saturday evening last. Mr. WOLF boarded at SHREINERS' hotel but lodged in his own house about half a square off. He was not at supper on Friday evening, nor at breakfast or dinner on Saturday, and in the evening Mr. SHREINER sent a boy to his lodgings to ascertain the cause of his absence. On attempting to open the door of his room the boy discovered the body of Mr. WOLF laying on the floor, so close to the door that it could not be opened, when an entrance was effected through the window, and the body found to be rigid. From all the circumstances it is evident he died the previous evening and had been dead perhaps twenty-four hours before he was found. Coroner SMITH held an inquest, and a post mortem examination by Dr. KIEFFER disclosed the fact that he died of apoplexy. Mr. WOLF was about 65 years of age.—Democrat.

We learn that a death as sudden and unaccountable as that of Mr. WOLF, occurred in the family of Mr. E. McCOOL, of West Pennsboro' township. On Sunday morning last, Mr. McCOOL's wife was found dead in her bed. We have not learned the particulars.

THE ICE CROP.—The recent cold snap has, we are glad to say produced an abundant crop of good clear ice, and we notice our citizens are taking advantage of Mr. Jack Frost's presence to secure a bountiful supply of this important staple for next summer's consumption.

☞ Ladies, Mrs. S. A. HUTTON, is now opening at the sigh of the Big Bonnet, North Hanover street Carlisle, a large and beautiful assortment of Winter Bonnets, Hats and millinery, of the latest styles. The ladies are particularly requested to give her a call, as she is satisfied that an examination will satisfy them that the largest and most splendid assortment of millinery articles can be obtained at her establishment.

AID FOR OUR SOLDIERS.—The following letter which explains itself, gives at the same time the gratifying assurance that our suffering braves are not forgotten by those of our fellow citizens, whose posts of duty are over the great waters. God bless Prof. Marshal and Mr. Stevenson. May their hearts ever be warmed with love for the native land. We feel especial pride in the latter gentleman, for he is a graduate of the Herald office.

CARLISLE, Dec. 29, 1863.

T. C. STEVENSON, M. D.:

My Dear Sir:—In behalf of the Soldiers Aid Society of Carlisle, allow me to acknowledge the receipt on Christmas-day, of One Hundred Dollars, sent through you and Miss Paine, by Prof Marshal, now the U. S. Consul at Leeds, England, in aid of our sick and suffering soldiers. This generous donation seems to have excited no surprise in the minds of those who have the pleasure of an acquaintance with him, being apparently deemed such an act of thoughtfulness and liberality as is quite usual for him. It very plainly evinces his patriotism as well, and commends the wisdom which chose him to represent our country in an important post of usefulness abroad.

We are also under obligations for Twenty Dollars received through you from your son, Mr. Raymond M. Stevenson, Consular Agent at Sheffield, England.

Please to return to both gentlemen the thanks of the association, and the assurance that we will endeavor to make their gifts very effective for the relief of our brave defenders.—Wishing them and yourself the blessing of God and the compliments of a happy New Year.

I am, very truly yours,
FRANCIS J. CLERC,
Pres. C. S. Aid Society.

INTERNAL REVENUE.

UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVENUE,
1ST DIS. OF E. PENNA.
MECHANICSBURG, Dec 23d, 1863.

UNDER Section 6 of the act of March 3d, 1863, all Town, County, City, Railroad and other Corporation bonds must be stamped at the rate of ten cents on every sum of Two Hundred Dollars or any fractional part thereof. All persons are hereby cautioned against making or using any such bonds without the same being properly stamped. The following regulations by the Department are published for the benefit of all concerned:

"Revenue Stamps may be used in lieu of any upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B of the act of July 1, 1862, except proprietary stamps for which a special use has been provided.

The use of the postage stamps on instruments is strictly prohibited.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp required thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whose use it is made may stamp it before it is used; but in no case can it be legally used without a stamp; and if issued after the 1st of June, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot be afterwards effectually stamped.

Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument to appropriately stamp it subjects him to a penalty of fifty dollars.

A good rule to observe in acknowledging or recording instruments is to make a note in the acknowledgment, or on the record, of the amount of stamp duty affixed, and the date of cancellation."

The penalty will be enforced for every violation of the law, and persons are requested to inform the undersigned whenever a violation of the law comes under their notice.

L. KAUFFMAN, Collector,
15th District, Penna.

South Middleton Institute.

The Institute met in the "Red School House" on Saturday, December 26th 1863, and was opened with prayer. The roll being called, Messrs James R. Stuart, John W. Mountz, A. H. Howard, Wm. B Butler and Miss Thompson were absent.

The first business in order, was the reading of Selections, by Miss Rebecca Nailer and Hiram J Good, Essay, by Miss Alcinda M Longnecker, Subject, Teacher and his work, Miss Culver drilled a class in Mental Arithmetic.

AFTERNOON SESSION,

President in the chair, Roll being called, Messrs Stuart, Howard and Miss Thompson were still absent. The minutes of last meeting, were read and adopted. Mr Elias Mountz delivered an Extemporaneous Oration, Written Arithmetic was again taken up, by Mr. Mountz. He formed the teachers into a class and drilled them, thereby giving his method of teaching Arithmetic in his school. The class was also drilled by Miss Sue E. Fleming Dr. H Mowers, was requested to give the class some problems for solution, and responded. Col. Maish, of York County, addressed the Institute upon the subject of General Education. He very satisfactorily contended, that teachers should make their explanations as practical as possible.—He said that too many, confine themselves entirely too much to theory. If we are not taught the practical value of an Education, the object of the present School system, is not attained. In teaching Arithmetic, we should give our pupils questions for solution, which they will be certain to find in business life.—Mr Schriver, of Monroe Twp, entertained the Institute for a short time, by addressing them upon the propriety of teaching practical things. On motion, it was resolved, that Miss Longnecker, re-read her Essay, which was done, in a distinct and elegant manner. The Essay was well written. Thanks were tendered to Col. Maish, Mr Schriver, and Miss Ann Fleming for their attendance. On motion, it was resolved, that the thanks of the Institute be tendered to the Patrons and citizens of the "Red School House" for hoisting the Stars and Stripes over the School house for the occasion:

On motion, it was resolved, that Miss Florence Henderson of Dickinson District, be invited to read an Essay, at the next meeting, Read Selections, Miss Alcinda M. Longnecker, and James R. Stuart, Essay, Miss Henderson, Address, Smith H Kauffman, Mental Arithmetic, Sue E. Fleming, Grammar, Andrew H Howard, Critic, Wm. B. Butler.
