SECOND ARMY CORPS .-- In another column will be found a circular from Major Gen. Hancock, appealing the men of Penn sylvania to fill up the decimated regiments of the gallant second corps. The appeal is that of a Pennsylvania General who has won for himself imperishable renown as a great captain; it is addressed to his loyal fellow citizens with a force and earnestness which must commend its arguments to the patriotic. It is only by promptly filling up our veteran divisions, that their organizations and efficiency can be preserved, and the war be borught to an early and anspicious close.

COURT PROCEEDINGS .- The following are the proceedings of the court of common Pleas for the January term. We are indepted for the report, as well as that of the Quarter sessions, published last week, to the courtesy of L. W. Foulke, Esq.

CARLISLE, Jan. 16th, 1864. We the undersigned, Managing Committee pleasure in announcing to the Public the signal success which has crowned our labors in thanks for your kind donation. We are glad to be able to find so much carnest desire ving help to the soldiers among you. We are yours very truly, GEO. H. STUART, Chairman.

UNITED STATES SANITARY COMMISSION, WOMEN'S PENN'A BRANCH, 1307 Chestnut St. Phila. Jau. 16, '64. Ellen E. Irvine, (Treasurer "Ladies' Mite Soçiety," (Carlisle)

DEAR MADAM-I have received this morning your letter of Jan. 15th, enclosing a check for one hundred and fifty dollars. The pleasure that I receive in this generous contribution for the Sanitary Commission, arises not alone from thoughts of the suffering soldiers, that your bounty will help to relieve; but from the confidence which your Society has shown in our organization. The people of Carlisle have worked faithfully and efficiently for the brave men who are "suffering much and perilling all" for us, and this mark of their appreciation of our efforts is truly most gratifying. With regards I am Truly Yours, C. J. MOORE, Cor. Sec.

Forthe Heiald. "THE YOUNG PARSON." Published by Smith, English & Co., No. 23 North Sixth Street, Phila., 1863, One vol., 12 mo Price 1,25.-This is a most attractive, amusing, and readable book, of unusual interest to ministers and church members, and belongs to that class of Literature which is adapted both to amuse and Delt, Motion made for a new trial by 1910's to profit. It will make you longh and weep Doft. A current of quiet humor runs through it, and the trials of a young Pastor are described with a masterly hand, and in a style so humorous and so faithful, that the Roder is both grati-field and benefitted. Its to both y to nature is so perfect, and its religious find social ten dencies are so excellent, that it cannot fail to accomplish its mission. We recognize in the Author an "old College friend," and are wel acquainted with many of the dramatis personal whose characters he has delineated with great fidelity. While this work abounds with litelike sketches, it unfolds with great clearness and discrimination, the life giving truths of the Gospel. It is a faithful exhibit of infirm itios which are, alas, too prevalant in man portions of the Church, Every Pastor can recommend this genial work to his people, as eminently adapted to do great good, to correct popular errors, and to elevate the social and religious character of his Flock. "Little Phoebe, the cripple," is an original and most touching character. And all who study it m spirit in which it has been delineated, will feel like mingling their tears with those of th "young Parson," over her grave. We recom-mend this Book to all, as one of the most charming sketches of character ever presen ted to the American Reader, and we hope that it may find its way into every church and · Poor House Visitors' Report. Something New in Philadelphia. O the honorable James H. Graham, COOPER'S President Judge and Michael Cocklin and Hugi ituart, Associate Judges of the Court of Cumberland • President Judge and Michael Cockill and Hugh Stuart, Associate Judges of the Court of Cumberland County : We, the persona appointed by said Court, as visitors to the Poor House, for the year 1863, do certify, that we have visited the same frequently during the pres-ent year, and mostly at times whon Mr. Snyder (the steward,) was not aware of our coming, and invariably found the house in excellent order, the several apart ments well adjusted and the bed chambers etcan and furnished with good and soft beds. Also, everything on the farm or pertaining to the premises in very good condition, and the management of the farm w-ll con-ducted and arranged. The rations for the inmates are very good and palatable, and everything inducates that the steward is endeavoring to make all who are in his charge as comfortable as he possibly can, as is shown Photograph & Art Gallery, their comfort provided. Everything indicates that their comfort provided. Everything indicates that the steward is endeavoring to mske all who are in his charge as comfortable as he possibly can, as is shown by his assiduous application. We might reasonably suppose that amidst the number of paupiers there, the place should seem gloomy and suddening, but on the contrary we find the greater part cheerful and morry and displaying considerable tasts in keeping their persons, (especially the females.) and all seemed as though they lived at home, enjoyed life and passed their time mirthfully and appreciated the conforts preservel and conferred upon them. Among the num-ber of paupers, there were a number of ebildren who were formed into a school a part of the year, some having brilliant minds. As remarked before, the stew-ard is very attentive and always pleasent and arrea-ble, (Mr., studer too), and his task before, the stew-ard unpleasent one, we do think5that he is n't fully compensated for this haber, and wand insist on having his stary increased. We also think it necessary to make some importements to the buildings, we would recommad having a separate apartment erected, apart from the main building, expressly for the hespital, but do not uge it strongly at the present time. Much more might be said, but we think it not necessary, inas-much as we here noticed overy point worthy of notice and our consideration, and as from what we have al-loady said you will readily infer that the steward di-charces his duty admirable remark by at the asive are well careet for and have the attendure of a very judi clarzes hystems, and the notice as sympathy of Mrs. Snyder.

mitted to practice in the several courts of der our thanks to the generous Public who Cumberland County. Mr. DUNBAR, is a bave aided us by their contributions, and acyoung man of marked ability,-a graduate knowledge our obligations to the many ladies of Yale College, and we have reason to be- and gentlemen, who by their untiring perleive has the elements of a good lawyer in sonal efforts contributed so largely to the him. May he be successful.

We notice by last week's Demoerat, that our editorial brother, E. CORNMAN, Esq., has associated his son. Jos. C CORNMAN, with the publication of the Democrat. The junior member of the firm is a young man of good character, considerable ability, and having a good knowledge of the art typegraphical, will prove an important accession to the office. The firm has our best wishes for its success in everything but politics, in which, for these stirring times, it is wofully behind the sontiment of the people.

THE HARRISBURG THESPIAN SOCIE-TT .- This amateur dramatic association has advertised two exhibitions in Rheem's Hall; the first one this, and the second and last on to-morrow evening. This company is Suldier's "Aid Society, composed of a number of gentlemen and ladies of Harrisburg, who have been performing in that city for some time, and later in Lancaster. The press of both of these cities speak in the highest terms of the merits of this company, and the Lancaster Inquirer plaims that their acting is superior to any amateur company in existence. We can as sure our readers that the performance will be chaste and respectable.

THE WHEELER AND WILSON SEWING MACHINE .- An important feature in the use of this Machine resulting from the wide range of its application is, the varying branches of business to which it is applied, as fashion changes. Thus a house or a person furnished with these Machines may, at different seagons, employ them in making Skirts or Man-Aillas or Ruffling, or Shirts, or Stitching Hats, Caps, etc. It is not as if they were limited and must remain unused unless that particu lar article be in demand. So long as Sewing is to be done, the Machines are sure of something to do. Call and examine them at the Rail Road Office, Carlisle, Pa.
