A Memorial to the Union Leagues,

Editors of newspapers throughout the Northern States are requested to give insertion in their papers to the following Memorial. Mr. WILLIAM DRIVER is generally known as "Old Glory" in connection with the rehoisting two years ago of the American Flag on the National Capitol of Tennessee.

A Committee having been appelnted by the National Union League of Tennesse, Council No. 1, to prepare a Memorial to their fellow-leaguers, the following is respectfully

WILLIAM DRIVER, Chairman of the Committee.

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, Dec. 4th, 1863 ROOMS OF THE UNION LEAGUE, COUNCIL NO. 1. To our Brethren of the Union Leagues through out the Land, Greeting

We, the co laborers, of the Grand League of Tennessee, beg leave to lay before you our views of the necessities of the present hour. Satisfied, as we are, that there can be no permanent peace whilst the institution of Sla very exists in our midst, we protest against its further continuance in any form, or under any circumstances, whatever; and recommend nat Congress now in session be petitioned, at once to pass such laws as will produce its immediate abolishment, without an "if."— Consequences belong to God. Duty to us. In hours like these, God and our country "ex-peet every man to do his duty,"

Further. We recommend that Congress be called on to act at once with respect to con fiscation of rebel lands. That they say to the world p at to us, what is to be done in the prem; is; and pass such laws as will insure the decisions being carried out to the full extent. There is no time for delay. The cu tire poor and working class of the South lie helpless at our feet. They look to us for aid and protection. They were driven along the dark track, a helpless mass, into the bloody vortex which has swallowed up their sub stance, and given their sons, "their first born," to the sword. Those of them who have thus far out lived the common ruin, are now with out money, without stock of any kind to till the soil; and without protection for the production of that soil, should they have means to till it. We might further say they are, most of them, without land at their own; for nearly all the lands in the revolted States belong to the Rebel Dictators, AS WE ARE PRE PARED TO PROVE. We must act at once, or another year's sun will shine on miseries without a parallel among the poor of our State and the South, such as have no histo-

In the name of these poor; in the name of civilizain the name of the nineteenth century cipation of all slaves, and the confiscation of the entire property of all influential rebels.

This done, advertise the confiscated lands far and wide. Call upon the free and good of the entire land, and of every land, to come down among us, buy these lands, settle on them, employ our freed men, as far as possible, to cultivate these lands. Give our soldiers a portion therein. Do this, and ours will be a land of promise, the neutral ground of nations; the column of civil liberty will raise its head above the clouds, above the con-

FROM FORTRESS MONROE. Gen. Butler Sends an Expedition to the Penin sula.—Immense Captures.—Rebel and Ne groes, Jews and Valuable Stores Taken.— Official Dispatch of Gen. Butler.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 The following has been received at the War Department:

FORTRESS MONROE, 26th January, 1864.--To Hon. E. M. Stanton :-- Brig Gen Graham, by my directions, went with three armed transports and a competent force to the peninsula and made a landing on the James river '7 miles below Fort Powhattan, known as the Brandon Farms, and captured 22 of the enemy, 7 of the signal corps, and brought away 99 negroes, destroyed 24,000 bbls of pork and a large quantity of oats and iron. They also captured a schooner and sloop with 240 boxes of tobacco, and five Jews preparing to run the month. blockade. The expedition returned without the loss of a man.

FORM MORRIS ISLAND.

A "Big Scare."

New York, Jan. 26. A Morris Island letter of the 21st inst., says there was a big scare in the fleet a few nights since, caused by some rebel obstructions floating out to sea. If our iron clads were nearer Charleston, neither torpedoes nor sea horses obstructions in the channel between Sumter and Moultrie are entirely gone, and the opinion of the naval officers is that there are no the middle ground. Of their nature it is im possible to judge, though they are probably not half as formidable as imagined
A rebel iron-clad, probably the Chicora, was seen yesterday west of Fort Simkins. No less than three rebel iron-clads are seen daily.

We, the persons appointed by said Court, as visitors to the Poor House, for they year 18/3, do certify, that we have visited the same frequently during the present year, and mestly at times when Mr. Snyder (the staward,) was not aware of our coming, and invariably found the house in excellent order, the several apartments well adjusted and the bed chambers clean and furnished with good and soft beds. Also, everything on the firm or pertaining to the premises in very good condition, and the management of the farm well conducted and arranged. The rations for the inmates are very good and palatable, and everything necessary for their comfort provided. Everything, Indicates that the steward is endeavoring to uske all who are in his clarge as comfortable as he possibly can, as is shown by his assiduous application. We might reasonably suppose that amidst the number of paupers there, the place should seem gloomy and saddening, but on the contrary we find the greater part cheerful and morry and displaying considerable taste in keeping their persons, (especially the females) and all seemed as though they lived at home, enjoyed life and passed their time mirthfully and appreciated the comforts procured and conferred upon them. Among the number of pupers, there were a number of children who were formed into a school a part of the year, some having brilliant minds. As remarked before, the steward is very attentive and always pleasant and agreeable, (Mrs. rayder too), and his task being a wearisome and unpleasant one, we do think that he is not fully compensated for his labor, and would insist on having his salary increased. We also think it necessary to make come improvements to the building, we would recommend having a separate apartment erected, apart from the main building, expressly for the hospital, but do not urgel strongly at the present time.
