Martial in the foregoing case, having been aubmitted to the Major General Commanding, the following are the orders thereon : In the case of Joseph Fisher, a spy, the proceedings, finding and sentence are approved. The Specification to the First Charge gives the date as on or about the 22d of July, 1863: this is evidently a clerical error, as the original charge specifies the time as on or about the 22d of June, which the evidence goes to prove as being the time.

Appended to the record on this case is a document, referred to in the body of the proceedings, which states that a milder punishment would have been inflicted by the Court, owing to the peculiar character and situation of the prisouer, had there been discretion allowed them in the matter, but recommended him to the favorable consideration of the President of the United States. This document was not signed by any member of the Gourt.

It is shown that the prisoner has but one arm and that he is a drunken, loating vagabond. The sentence of death is commuted to imprisonment for ten years in the Penitendiary of this State, or such other place as is directed by competent authority. By command of Major Gen. Coucu: JNO. S. SCHULTZE. Assistant Adjutant General. Official : ROBEËT LE ROY, Capt., and Ass't Adj't Gen'l.

HEAD QUARTERS,

Department of the Susquehanna. Chambersburg, Penna., Jan. 20, 1864. To the people of the Dept. of the Susquehanna, I very cordially invite the attention of all persons within the Department of the Sus uehanna to the address recently issued by Major Gen. Hancock Cound'g. 2nd Army Corps in which that distinguished officer an mounces that he has come to Penna., under authority from the War Department for the purpose of recruiting his Corps to 50,000 men with a view to special service. The gallantry and Military ability of Major Gen. Hancock and the courage and discip-line of his Corps have been tested on many battle fields and have justly won the admira-tion of the people. Those who shall enlist under him will find comrades with whom it will be an honor to be connected, and a leader whose past career gives the assurance that he cannot fall short of the full performance of all his dutics as an officer, a soldier and a gentleman.

Having been associated with Major Gen. Hancock on many trying occasions I heartily commend him to the patriotism of the people of this Department and earnestly advise those fit for Military duty to embrade this opporunity of taking a position in which they will gain honor and distinction for themselves and render pasential service to their country.

D. N. COUCH, Major Gen. Commanding, Dept.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of Manor Lodge, No. 460, I. O. of O. F. held in Leesburg, on Friday evening, January the 22d, 1864, the following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted : WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, in the dispensation of His providence, to call from our midst, our well beloved brother, P. G. JAMES K. KELSO, therefore resolved, 1st. That in the death of P. G. JAMES K. KELSO, we are gain reminded of the shortness of life, and called to mourn the death,

Poor House Visitors' Report.

10 the honorable James H. Graham, President Judge and Michael Cocklin and Hugh art, Associate Judges of the Court of Cumberlaid

County: Associate Sugges of the Court of Cumberal a County: We, the persons appointed by said Court, as visitors to the Poor House, for the year 1843, do certify, that we have visited the same frequently during the pres-ent year, and mostly at times when Mr. Snyder (the we have visited the same frequently during the pres-ent year, and mostly at times when Mr. Snyder (the steward,) was not aware of our coming, and invariably found the house in excellent order, the several apart ments well adjusted and the bed chambers clean and furnished with good and soft beds. Also, everything on the farm or pertaining to the premises in very good condition, and the management of the farm w. II con ducted and arranged. The rations for the inmates are very good and palatable, and everything necessary for their confort provided. Everything increases that the steward is endesvoring to make all who are in his charge as comfortable as he possibly can, as is shown by his assiduous application. We might reasonably suppose that amight the number of paupers there, the place should seem gloony and suddeding, but on the contrary we find the greater part cheerful acd merry and displaying considerable tasts in Keeping their persons, (especially the females) and all seemed as though they lived at home, enjoyed life and passed their time mirthfully and appreciated the comforts pocurs I and confirmed upon them. Among the num-ber of paupers, there were a nu abor of children who were termed into a school, a pri of the year, some and unpleasant one, we do think that he is n t fully compensated for bis labor, and yould insist on having his salary increased. We also think it necessary to make some improvements to the buildings, we would recommend having a sep rate apartment created, apart from the main building, expressly for the benefital, but do not urge it strongly at the present time. Much more might be said, but we think it not necessary, inas-much as we have noticed every point worthy of notice and our consideration, and as from what we have al-leady said you will readily infer that the steward dis charges his duty admirably an it in regard to what we have add on his merits, is nothing more than what we have add on his merits, is nothing more than what we have add on his merits, is nothing more than wha steward,) was not aware of our coming, and invariable
