For the Herald W. B. Parker's Lecture

By the request of his friends, Mr. William B. Parker, late from Brown university, de livered a Lecture in Rheem's Hall, last thurs day evening, on "The Republic as a power," for the benefit of the Soldier's Aid Society Unfortunately the evening was untavorable and consequently the audience was not as large as it would otherwise have been. young gentleman more than met the sanguine expectations of his triends. His subject was logically discussed; his thoughts toroibly dereloped, and expressed in beautiful language The Lecture would do credit to an older speaker, and it our young friend will but ap ply himself, he will "make his mark." His lecture was listened to with breathless attention by all who heard it. We have been in formed that many who have not heard it have requested a repetition of it at some future time. It is to be regretted that such intellect ual feasts are not more highly appreciated by the thinking portion of our community .-Comparing the crowd called together to nes an E hiopian Exhibition with that which assembles to hear a Literary Lecture, we are led to infer that the former is by far the most popular, even with the refined and educate-

Mr. Parker has the thanks of the Aid Socie ty for this contribution to its funds, and also of his friends for the intellectual treat with which he favored them.

NO. 118 SOUTH SEVENTH STREET,

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 4711, 1884.

The committee on "LABOR, INCOMES AND REVENUES," invite co operation with them in the particular work for which too have been appointed. As no portion of the people are more patriotic than the working men and women of the country, it is but just and proper that they should alike have an opportunity to contribute to the objects of the Fair. The most equable plan for accomplishing this, and, at the same time the easiest one, s to ask for the contribution of a STRGE DAY'S LABOR from all classes in the community. Many will contribute a day of their labor willingly, who would not subscribe their mondy. To reach every department of industry and art will be a work of great labor, but, if attimed, will be productive of immense results.

The success of the plan will depend upon the hearty cooperation of every element of influence within our limits, and we invite all the guardians of the industrial interests and all others, to take hold with us in furthering this geat work of patriotism and humanity, the Committee is charged with the following dury, to wit:
