IMPORTANT ARREST.—On Tuesday . The following letter has been received morning last two assistant U.S. marshals arrived in Carlisle, and at once arrested Mr. Isaac Livingston, clothing merchant, Mr. Leeds, his cutter, and a lad Askew, his sales

The charge against these parties is that they have aided and abetted desertion from the U.S. army, by selling newly enlisted volunteers full suits of citizens clothing, knowing they were to be used as disguises, and taking for the valuable character of what you send. from them the United States clothing worn I trust that the society you represent may Ready Made Clothing for Men and Boys, at the time of exchange. The evidence by which these charges are expected to be sustained was collected by Col. Henderson, Provost Marshal, and forwarded to Philadelphia, where a thorough examination will be made. That a large num ber of professional bounty-jumpers who were sent to Carlisle Barracs escaped from the service through the conmivance of parties in Carlisle, is certain; and it is equally certain that the guilty persons, their heavy crime.

That a man who has for so long a time the act was done either with his knowledge his zeal to bring wrong doers to justice is handkerchieffs, reading matter, Towels and always tempered with that unbending sense of justice which would preclude the possibility of his countenancing the arrest on any slight suspiciou.

We anxiously await the result of the investigation.

U. S. 10-40 BONDS. PHESE Bonds are issued under the THESE Bonds are issued under the Act of Congress of March 8th, 1864, which provides that all bonds issued under this act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any state or municipal authority. Subscriptions to these Bonds are received in United States notes or notes of National Banks.—
They are to be REDEEMID IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than fort, years from their date, and until their redemption Five Per Cent interest will be public in Coin, on bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually and on all other bonds somi-annually. The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year.

year. Subscribers will receive either Registered or Couper Some rivers will receive river registered to coupul Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered bonds are recorded on the books of the U.S. Tressurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. C. upon Bond are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses.

Subscribers to this lean will have the option of have ig their bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accrued interest in coin—(or in United States otes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fif y pu notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fif y p reart-for premium.) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit. As these bonds are EXEMPT FROM MUNICIPAL OR STATE TAXATION, their value is increased from one to the per cent. per annum according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay OVER EIGHT per cent interest in currency, and are of equil convenience as a permanent or temporary investment. equil convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptio. s of U. S. bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, he futh or ability of private; arties or stock companies or separate communities only is pledged for payment, while for the dobts of the United States the whole property of the country is bolden to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to a-y magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefitor the interest.

It may be useful to state in this connection that the
