The extra session of the Legislature commenced on Tuesday last. We have received the message of the Governor just as we are going to press, but are unable to lay it before our readers this week. In our next we will give it together with the importance will be done by the Legislature.

We must congratulate our readers on the favorable result from every military department. Last week it was our misfortune to chronicle the repulse of our forces at Petersburg, the defeat of Gen. Meade at Chambersburg, and the very imminent danger of an invasion of Pennsylvania, by the rebel forces. This week we have much cheering news. Richmond papers admit that Farragut's fleet has passed Fort Morgan and Gaines and has destroyed the rebel fleet in Mobile Bay. This constituted the main defense of Mobile and we may soon expect to hear of the capture of that city. Gen. Sherman has won another glorious victory at the battle of Atlanta. This is his third defeat since the 2d of July, making their losses that time more than 20,000 men.
Gen. Sherman and Thomas both say Atlanta will be ours before another week. On the Potamac Averell has defeated the rebels capturing a large number of prisoners, horses and guns. Thus from all quarters the news is most encouraging. A few weeks more of these successes and the rebellion will be crushed.

Majority for the Amendments.
Returns from all the Counties in the State, except five make the majority for the first Amendment some what over 50,000. The County yet to be heard from will not change these figures materially. The majority for the other two amendments will be very much larger.

THE 7-30 GOVERNMENT LOAN.
We call attention to the advertisement of this loan in our columns to-day and also to the published address of the Secretary of the loan with respect to it. This is the first time a people's loan and we hope to see it taken just immediately. It is based on Treasury notes payable three years from August 15th, 1864, bearing interest at the rate of seven and three-fourths per cent. per annum payable semi-annually in lawful notes.
These notes will be convertible, at the option of the holder, at maturity, into six per cent gold bearing bonds, or demand notes payable and payable after twenty years from August 15th, 1867. The notes are issued in denominations of $1 to $5000.

Every feature of this loan commands its popular attention. The amount of the determinations is low enough to bring the loan within the reach of every one, while the low rate of interest and freedom from taxation of all kinds renders it the most valuable permanent investment possible. The present rate of interest is now below the outside of Government securities at six per cent, and the taxes and expenses attending the proper arrangements for making other investments secure, reduce the actual rate of interest of ordinary 6 per cent loans to about 4 per cent. Here then is a clear gain of three per cent over the best investment that can be made outside of this loan. In addition to this there are but little loads that these bonds in a short time will command a premium. On the score of direct profit a loan, it is the interest of every man in the community who has money, to invest every dollar he can spare in this loan.

There is another consideration, however, which should not be forgotten. The Government has most urgent need of money. There are enormous demands on the Treasury every day. Our soldiers have for many months been unpaid, and their demands must be met at the earliest date possible. If money is not raised promptly on these loans there must be an increased issue of Treasury notes and a consequent expansion of our currency. The evils attending this can easily be foreseen. The price of gold will advance and the value of the currency diminish.
Every man who advances rapidly, and the interests of the whole Union will be injured.
The speculators and gold gamblers will reap a rich harvest, while all other classes will suffer from increased prices and diminished incomes. In a time like this it is the duty of the people to support the Government with their means as well as with their arms.

It is essential that our Treasury should be supplied with money as it is that our armies should be filled with men. The one is necessary for the crushing of the rebellion as the other. No other borrower pays a greater interest as the Government or pays that interest so promptly. Every dollar furnished the Government by the people strengthens it.

Every dollar furnished speculators who are making fortunes for themselves, by combining to increase the price of every article of food, clothing or convenience used by the people, is just so much contributed towards embarrassing this Government, increasing the necessity of borrowing of the people, and prolonging the war. Can men hesitate when self interest and patriotism urge them to the same course?

It is currently reported in Washington, that while the invaders were threatening the city, President Lincoln was safely concealed in a cellar in order to escape a capture by the Confederates. Volatile.

Of course. It was just as accurately reported that the President had escaped to Harrisburg and was concealed in Gen. Cameron's house, when the rebels attacked Washington.
There is a class of persons in Washington and elsewhere who give currency to all sorts of slanders concerning the President.

This is the case. Mr. Lincoln was in the outside defenses of the capital, exposed to the fire of the rebels when the attack was made, as hundreds of soldiers certify.

THE RESULT OF THE SPECIAL ELECTION.

Pennsylvania has nobly redeemed her pledge. On last Tuesday week by an overwhelming majority she restored to her brave soldiers the elective franchise, and thus gave them again the rights of citizenship so long denied them by the decision of a partisan judiciary. The result of the special election should make glad every friend of the country, as it is a success which justice, gratitude and patriotism demanded. The men whose love of country has caused them to sacrifice all else in her defense never relinquished or intended to relinquish the right to a voice in the choice of her rulers. They who have exposed their lives to the dangers of camp life and battle, and but for whose efforts our Government would have been destroyed, might have reasonably asked this as a deserved acknowledgment of their services. If even they could not claim it as a right. And surely no one will pretend that denying the soldier already in the field his rights, as a citizen, would not have a tendency to prevent many from enlisting to fill our wasted and depleted regiments. Because it has removed the State from the degree of having disfranchised her soldiers, and has shown them that those who are at home value their services and defend their rights, and because it will stimulate others to join them in the field, so that they know that no surrender of their rights as freemen is required to be soldiers, we rejoice that the amendment has been adopted. We regret only that a single vote was cast against it.

But while the friends of the Government may feel proud of the success which has crowned their efforts on behalf of the soldier, their opponents might blush in account of their hostility to a measure which had a right to demand unanimous support. The Democratic leaders, true to their hostility to every thing that looks like supporting the war against Spain, libelously and meanly did their utmost to defeat it. Fearing to expose the measure openly, they contrived to create false impressions as to the effect of adopting the amendments. In the face of the words of the amendment providing that the "qualified electors" of the State would be entitled to vote, it was contended that it was an abolition scheme to allow negroes the right of suffrage. Through such cowardly lies thousands were induced to vote against it lest they might raise negroes to an equality with themselves. Their ignorance was indeed pitiable, but what can be said of the villainy that would use this ignorance to disfranchise our soldiers? The men who were thus showing their anxiety to prevent white men from being disgraced by allowing negroes the same privileges as themselves, did not hesitate to degrade white soldiers to the level of negroes by refusing them the right to vote. The real reason of their opposition was their knowledge of the political sentiments of the men who compose our armies, and the certainty that all soldiers' votes would be cast against the party which opposes the cause for which our soldiers fight.

But in spite of the efforts and misrepresentations of Copperheads, the people have triumphantly ratified the amendments, and at our coming election all our qualified citizens will vote, no matter whether they are at their homes or in the field. Then will Pennsylvania have an opportunity of speaking with her full voice in favor of the principles to which she has been committed since the commencement of the war, and to which she will remain steadfast to the end. Loyal men hope and copperheads fear that her majority next fall will be no less in favor of Freedom and Union than it was last week in favor of Justice.

A PORTRAIT.

The Hon. JOHN CASSA of Bedford, Pa., long and widely known as a leading Democrat, in a recent speech described a kind of people who he had observed in Southern Pennsylvania. We print the description of such people as they may judge whether any such people inhabit the Southern neighborhoods. He certainly has seen them. Hear Mr. Cassa:

"There are unfortunately those among us who cannot discuss the question of a single man without showing that they are at heart loyal to the Government and enemies of their race. The people soon learn to find out and know these men. Humankind and ingenuity are not deceived. They are not long succeeded in concealing their real sentiments.
They hang back or sneak away from our public gatherings on our national holidays; they are absent from the meetings of the Union officers and committees of their
