V ⋽ TERMS OF PUBLICATION. The Carlisle Drevala. tion again in his presence, saying, T have fought rebels three years, and had a brother killed by just such men as you are, and when 1 Square 1 insertion 1 " 2 " 1 " 3 " litional insertion, 75 cts. $1.25. $1.50 25cts. ever a traitor shouts for Jeff. Davis in my For every additi Advertisements containing more than one squ $1 per square for three insertions. hearing I will whin him or kill him. Copperhead said not a word, but took himself of $2.00. 2.00. 5.00 15.00 Estate Notices, 4 is fast as his legs would carry him. l cards without paper, o Lida tile advertisements polices, 10 cts per line. Town Growth. The cities of Pennsylvania rank in the folowing order with regard to population, as, JOB PRINTING .- Our Job Printing Office is the argest and most complete establishment in the certained by the census of 1860:. Coun y. Four good Presses, and a general variety of material suited for plain and Fancy work of every Philadelphia, 665.539 CARLISLE; PA., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1864. VOL. 64. NO, 37. Pittsburg, 98,102 23,102 17,603 18,405 9,444 9,419 9,223 8,941 8,941 8,941 8,945 8,945 8,905 5,664 5,664 5,664 5,675 kind, enables us to do Job Printing at the shortes Reading, notice, and on the most reasonable terms. Laucaster n went of Bills, Blanks, or anything in the Jobbin Harrisburg, RHEEM & WEAKLEY, Editors & Proprietors. TERMS:--- $2,00 in Advance, or $2,50 within the year. line, will find it to their interest to give us a call. Pottsville, Erie, Scranton. Bocal Juformation. er, who looked aged enough to have been | rupting him, "we want to know the cause." | communications between any two parts of | disengaged from the vehicle, that Mr. Cog- | containing 54 rose diamonds and one table Poetical. present when the first stone of the castle was "Ah !" said the venerable adjunct of the the building. We had to apologize for many gleshall, senior, had passed the night in front diamond. The total number of diamonds in Easton. Norristown. U. S. GOVERNMENT. York. THE PROSCRIBED SONG. atism, and was just one of those old nor I can tell. It cum loike that about a Our letters which came to us very late, con- warder hear. We at once hastened down to table, and 559 rose diamonds. From the Allentown, President—ABRAHAM LINGOLN, Vico President—HANNIBAL HAMLIN, Secretary of State—WM. II. SEWARD, Secretary of Interior—JNO. P. USHER, Secretary of Interior—JNO. P. USHER, Secretary of War—EDWIN M. STANDON, Secretary of Navy—GIBGON WELES, Post Master General—MONTGONERT BLAID Attorney, Gaperal—ENVIDO RAFS [The following is the celebrated poem by Whittler which was not allowed to be sung by the Hutchingons on the other side of the Petomac, certain Generals hav-ing declared it incondiary. Our readors will notice that the poem is suggested by a famous hymn of Martin Luther; "Ein" Feste Borg ist unser Gott."] the cell or lodge, and aroused the venerable upper part of the arches are suspended four servants-very unlike my servants-whose week after old Sir Cleaves died, an' they do tained apologies for being unable to accept Williamsport, our kind invitation from many gentlemen servant, who was still sleeping soundly, large pendant pear-shaped pearls, with rose pride it is to die at their posts. And a nice Carlisle, Carbondale, sav---'' whom we had calculated upon as beaux for dreaming, perhaps, of the glories of the past. diamond caps, containing 12 rose diamonds, This was sufficient for my husband, who post it was. A hole in the thick stone wall, Chambersburg, 5,255 It will be observed, by reference to a map the ladies. This is always the case in all Mr. Coggleshall, who is rather impatient, and stems containing 24 very small rose dialike a cell. Call it a porter's lodge, or give had a special dislike for the old warder's legends, and he dismissed the aged servant parties, whether in town or country; and having assured his father through the speak- monds. Above the arch stands the mound, it any fine name you will, but you cannot RY BLAIR. We wait beneath the furnace-blast of the State, that these towns are well diswithout further questioning. The next day tone note from Mr. Hall Fresco was particu- ing trumpet that his presence was observed, containing in the lower hemisphere 304 bril-Attorney General-EDWARD BATES, Chief Justice of the United States-Roger B TANE The pange of transformation ; alter the place. It was an unmistakable tributed over its area, and are the centres of we sent to the town for a surveyor-a per- | larly vexing to poor Marianna (Miss Gush-Not painlessly doth God recast very foolishly ventured to try his hand at liants, and in the upper 244 brilliants, the cell, worse than many I saw at the model trade and industry. Thus Philadelphia is And mould anew the nation. prison, where burglars and such people were son not easily found in those parts-and his ings) who I know had come for the express the portcullis. Neither he nor the old war- zone and arc being composed of 33 rose dia-STATE GOVERNMENT. -----Hot burns the fire the seaboard entrepot, and is the depot of report (which cost us fifty pounds,) could purpose of meeting him at the castle. umanely confined for their crimes. The Governor-ANDREW G. CUETIN, Secretary of Stato-ELI SLIFER, Survoyor General-JANES F. DARR, Auditor General-WAI, M. MEREDITH. Atjutant General-WAI, M. MEREDITH. Adjutant General-WAI, M. MEREDITH. State Treasurer-HENRY D. Moone, Chief Justic of the Supreme Court-GEO. W. Wood ABD. Where wrongs expire; der was able to move it. They both strugmonds. The cross on the summit has a rose the trade of the Delaware and Schuylkill. old warder's duty was to attend to the port- only tell us that, in former times, the moat BUBBLE CASTLE .- We are glad to learn gled, the firmer the old barrier kept its place. | cut sapphire in the centre, surrounded by Now spares the hand Pittsburg is the eastern depot of the river That from the land cullis and drawbridge (the only entrance was supplied with water from a spring; that this interesting, ancient, historical and It soon became evident that some hours four large brilliants, and 108 smaller briltrade of the westand of the coal and oil trade Uproots the ancient evil. across the moat), and he would allow no one this spring had dried up from natural caus- local Norman relic, has passed into the hands might clapse before the passage would be liants. Summary of jewels comprised in the of the Allegheny and Monorgahela. Read-The hand-breath cloud that sages feared to interfere with him. He had worked that | es; that there was no means at hand for a. ef Udolpho Coggishall, Esquire, a gentleman again opened; and in the meantime Mr. crown: 1 large ruby irregularly polished, ing, besides being the focus of a large and Its bloody raid is dropping; The poison-plant the fathers spared portcullis and that drawbridge before the bating the nuisance except by boring' for Coggleshall, senior, who was, no doubt, tired of enlarged views and ample property, in large broad-spread sapphire, 16 sapphires, flourishing agricultural district, concentrates present generation was born, before the water to flush the moat, or by clearing out whom we hope to see those baronial glories . ----0--out with waiting all night, would lose all All clse is overtopping, East, West, South, North, 11 emeralds, 4 rubies, 1,863 brilliant diathe trade of the Schuylkilland Lebanon valfamily possessors of Rubble Castle went the mud altogether. We adopted neither of rovived which have so long lain dormant un-COUNTY OFFICERS. patience at any further delay. My husband nonds, 1,273 rose diamonds, 147 table dialeys, with all their rich mineral resources It curses earth : gradually to the bad, and sold or mortgaged these expensive suggestions; but temporarily der the icy manners of the late uncongenial conveyed the melancholy intelligence to his President Judge-Hon. James II. Graham. Associate Judges-Hon. Michael Cocklin, Hor monds, 4 drop-shaped pearls, 273 pearls. and manufactures. Lancaster is the focus All justice dies, their ancient property and he was not in the kept off the enemy by a liberal application exhausted parent through the speaking trumproprietor. of the richest agricultural district in the And fraud and lies Hugh Stuart. District Attorney-J. W. D. Gillelen. humor to be assisted by our coachman or of chloride of lime. "I think my husband felt a little pride at pet, and received, in reply, some faint words, Live only in its shadow. 163" The following article from the Pres-Prothonolary-Samuel Shireman. Clork and Recorder-Ephrain Cornman, Register-Geo W. North. High Sheriff-J. Thompson Rippey. County Treasuror-Henry S. Kitter. Coroner-David Smith State, and an extensive manufacturing cenfootman, even if either of those lazy and dis-We had great trouble with our only child. this paragraph; and, it so, it was soon the meaning of which was eked out by un-What gives the wheat-field blades of steel ! byterian-one of the most staid, steady, retre. Harrisburg the State capital, comsatisfied menials had offered their inexperi-Alexander, aged nine years, who was home checked by the receipt of a very large claim mistakable gestures of indignation. In this What points the rebel cannon? spectable and able religious papers of the mands the commerce of the Susquehanna and enced services. The portcullis and drawfor his holidays. He had made a companion for poor-rates which came among the letters. sition the idea struck my husband, that What sets the roaring rabble's heel country, edited by a gentleman who was of the Cumberland and Juniata valleys. bridge were old-absurdly old-the ma- of little Waddles, our fat page, and together Coroner-David Smith Gounty Commissioners-Michael Kast, John M Joy, Mitchell McClellan, Superintendent of Foor House-Henry Snyder. Physician to Jail-Dr. W. W. Dale. Physician to Poor House-Dr. W. W? Dale. On the star spangled pennon ? "A most unjust assessment," he exclaimed. Mr. Coggleshall, senior, might be hauled mpelled by Southern tyranny to abandon Pottsville is the emporium of the Schuylkill What breaks the oath chinery was antiquated, rusty, and gener- | they scaled such giddy heights upon the tow-"and I shall certainly appeal against it. One through the window by which Alexander and church and congregation in that region be-Of the men of the South? coal region, as Allentown is of the Lehigh ally out of order, and the process, in the old | er-battlements, that it made everybody's | hundred and twenty pounds for poor rates ! little Waddles got into the dry part of the What whets the knife cause of his loyalty, and to seek safety under and Scranton of the Lackawanna. Easton warder's hands of letting any person in or heart sick to see them. When this amuse-For the Union's life? Why what on earth do they reckon the rent the folds of his country's flag in the North, is moat. concentrates the trade of northeastern Penn-······0' r Hark to the answer : Slavery out, was a noisy creaking performance that ment was denied to them, and the ways of monthis-" he checked himself as he was about The proposal having been made to the old sylvania and north-western New Jersey, and BOROUGH OFFICERS. both seasonable and sensible. We commend Then waste no blows on lesser foor lasted nearly half an hour. necess were closed and guarded to the upper to say something disrespectful of the place, gentleman, he seemed reluctantly to give his | it to all considerate minds, and hope that the s the deput of the Lehigh and of the upper Chiof Burgess-Andrew B. Ziegler. There was little time left for moping parts of the castle, they let themselves out and added calmly, "this eastle ?" In strife, unworthy freemen : Chiof Burgess-Andrew B. Ziegier. Assistant Burgess-Andrew B. Ziegier. Town Council-East Ward-J. D. Rhineheart, Joshua P. Bizler, J. W. D. Gillelon, Georgo Wetzel, West Ward-Geo. L. Murray, Thos. Faxton, A. Cath-eart, Juo. B. Parker, Juo. D. Oorgas, President, of Council, A. Catheart, Clerk, Jos. W. Ogilby. High Constable Samuel Sipo. Ward Constable, Andrew Martin. Assessor-John Gutshall. Assistant Assessors, Juo. consent, and walked to the point indicated impatient, murmuring, fault-finding and Delaware. Eric is our only lake port. Nor-God lifts to day the well and shows about or even thoroughly examining the place, of an arrow-hole, or window, by a rope into "Ah !" replied old Mr. Crowcomb, taking by his son. He got down the outer bank of money-loving will take its rebukes to heart, ristown, the capital of the wealthy agricul-The features of the demon ! a dry part of the moat, and were lost to the for some of the visitors-whom my husband up the conversation, "I thought as much; the moat, and crossed it with some difficulty, and learn the duty of self-sacrifice when the O'North and South, tural and manufacturing county of Monthad invited, with his usual impetuosity, to inhabitants of the castle for many hours .--I thought as much. If you will be a baron, Its-victims both. and their came the all-important and heavy great interests of country, home, liberty and gomery, is also an academical town. Car-Can ye not cry, give the place a warming-were expected When they, at last, applied for re-admission Coggleshall, you'll find you must pay for it !' task of hauling him up to the window. umanity are at stake:lisle and Chambersburg derive their growth early in the course of the next day. We did across the draw-bridge, they were one mass of "Let Slavery die !" We passed the short day in viewing what Assessor-John Gutshall. Assistant Assessors, Jud, Meil, Goo. S. Beetem, Auditor-Robert D. Cameron. Tax Collector-Alfred Nhinebeart. Ward Collec-tors-East Ward, Ohsa. A. Smith, West Ward, Tueo. Cornman, Street Commissioner, Worley B. Matthews, Justices of the Peace-A. L. Sponslor, David Smith. Abrm. Debuff, Michael Holcomb. Lamp Lighters-Chas. B. Mock, James Spangler. By this time most of our visitors had join from the trade of the Cumberland valley, Unreasonable Murmurs. And Union find in freedom what we could with mouldy hangings and | dry, light colored dirt from head to foot, and ittle was to be seen in the surrounding couned us; and the general opinion seemed to be Williamsport from that of the upper Susscanty furniture, made some centuries before | they had great, difficulty in making them-Why complain of your burdens? Suppose What though the cast-out spirit tea try; made a pilgrimage to the nearest town that he was a very large and heavy man. quehanna, and York from that of the lower The nation in his going, upholstery was raised to the dignity of an selves known to the old warder. Their story be true, even to the extent which the ex-We who have shared the guilt must share The pang of his o'erthrowing? -a very poor place in appearance-and reand that when elevated to a level with th Susquehanna. art : and, by the aid of enormous fires roar- was that a treacherous part of the moat had ggerators make it, that the war has imposed turned to the Castle early in the afternoon small slit of a window-hole, he would never Whater or the loss, Whate or the cross, ing up forge like chimneys, we produced the given way, and plunged them up to their upon us heavy taxes, and rendered the strict-Josh Billings wants to Make a few When we returned in front of the drawbe able to squeeze himself through. After appearance of comfort, if not the reality. necks in the ancient mud. They had run Whate Grigne cross Shall they complain Of present paints est economy necessary to meet the enhanced Bets. brige, we noticed two persons in long beards ome minutes of suspense, the purple face of I want tew make the follering bets: CHURCHES. about the common and forest until they felt | and German hats, sketching from different rices of every article which we have to buy, The servants were not at all reconciled to the Mr. Coggleshall, senior was seen through the place upon further acquaintance, and they dry and comfortable, and thought they look-First-I want to bet 7,000 dollars that First Presbyterian Church, Northwest angle of Cen-tre Square. Rev. Conway P. Wing Pastor.-Services every Sanday Morning at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 7 o'clock P. M. nave weany reasonable ground of complaint? points, and we thought we saw a photographaperature ; and it was evident to all that he considered the whole removal as something ed decent, when they had presented them- ic apparatus, moving off in the distance.-Abraham Lincoln, Esqr., and his wife, and There is no substantial good obtained with-0 For who that leans on His right and ould be hauled no further in that direction. little better than joining a gang of gipsies. selves a little before dusk, under the notion out exertion and self-denial, and no class of his son Bob will be the next President of the o'clock P. M. Second Presbyterian Church, corner of South Han-ovor and Pomfret streets. Rev. John C Bliss, Pastor. Services commence at 11 o'clock, A. M., and 7 o'çıcok P. M. St. John's Church. (Prot. Episcopal) northeast angle of Centro Square. Rov. J. C Clerc, Hector. Services at 11 o'clock A. M., and 6 o'clock, P. M. English Lutheran Church, Bedford, between Main and Louther streets. Rev. Jarob Pry, Pastor. Ser-vices at 11 o'clock A. M., and U'ç 'c'clock P. M. German Reformed Church. Louther, between Han ovor and Pitt streets. Rev. Samuel Philips, Pastor. Services at 11 o'clock A. M., and 6 o'clock P. M. Methodist E. Church (first Chärge) cornor of Main and Pitt Streets. Rev. Thomas H. Sherlock, Pastor. Services at 11 o'clock A. M., and 7 o'clock P. M. Mothodist E. Church (first Chärge) cornor of Main and Pitt Streets. Rev. Thomas H. Sherlock, Pastor. Services at 10 o'clock A. M., and 7 o'clock P. M. Mothodist E. Church (kecond charge,) Rev. S. L Bowman, Pastor. Fervices in Emory M E, Church at 1. o'clock A. M., and 3' P. M. Church of God. South West cornor of West street and Chapel Alley. Rev. B. F. Beck, Pastor. Services at 11 a, m., and 7 p. m. St. Parick's Catholic Church, Pomfret near East st. Rev Pastor. Services at 3 P. M. "Udolpho," said Mr. Coggleshall, senior. Was ever yet forsaken ? A stout, elderly gentleman in a white necknd Presbyterian Church, corner of South Han-If their situations had not been good, and | that they might enter unobserved. Alexanion is exempt from labor if they expect to United States of America. What righteous cause can suffer harn tie, with several other gentlemen of equal with as much indignation as he could com-If He its part has taken ? their master and mistress had not been in- der had spoiled a new suit of clothes, and thrive in their callings. Strength, health, Secondly-T want to bet 35 dollars that I age, but of very unequal size, were standing mand in his peculiar position, "what is this?" dulgent, I believe the whole body would have | little Waddles had utterly destroyed his liv-Though wild and loud hant vote for john C. fremont, nor no uther time, money are severely taxed by those who near the place. When Mr. Coggleshall made And dark the cloud, "I assure you," replied my husband, with nan will, who voted for Abe Linkom, the tendered their resignation without a moexpect to succeed in their various handierafts. Behind its folds the necessary signal to the warder, the stout sorrow and humiliation.--last time he run. ment's hesitation. Scarcely had we recovered from this fright gentleman, who appeared to be the elected Why, then, should we shrink from the bur-His hand upholds "Kept out all night," interrupted Mr. Cog-Thirdly-I want tew bet 16 Dollars, that The calm sky of to-morrow ! The first visitors who arrived were Mrs. den, when some great political evil is to be when we heard piercing shricks issuing from, gleshall, senior; "and now drawn up by a pokesman of the party, advanced and said : and Miss Gushington, an entherisstic widow the chicarger convenshun can't git the eleck -Above the maddening cry for blocd, averted, or some signal national good is to the north turret, where Mrs. and Miss Gush-"Have I the plesaure of addressing the common rope to a rat-hole! Try a crane, sir, with her more enthusiastic da Sater. They be achieved? We are constituent parts of toral vote ov enny stait north of Masey & Above the wild war-drumming ngton had taken up their quarters. If it had ew proprietor of this noble relic?" for you father. Try a crane !" Dixie's line, unless it is Upper and Lower Let Freedom's voice be heard with, good were in raptures with the castle, as I fully | not been for the courage of Mr. Coggleshall the nation, with which our prosperity and A sudden twinge of the face-ache, which "I am the present proprietor," returned The evil overcoming. expected, and I was very glad of it, as it was | I believe that no one would have ventured Canada. life are bound up; and it cannot suffer or Give prayer and purse my husband John Thomas felt at this moment, caused Fifthly-I want tew bet 10 Dollars that a good example to set the servants. triumph without our participating in its fate. To stay the curse to investigate the cause of these sounds of "We are the acting committee of the him to let go his hold upon the rope; and "What a dear, delightful duck of a place! So thought our revolutionary fathers who ohn C. fremont's letter of acceptance em-Whese wrong we share, terror; for Mr. Crowcomb distinctly stated West Sessex, or B Division of the British the loss of support sent Mr. Coggleshall, almost shouted Mes. Gushington before the Whose shame we bear, odiz the chicarger platform, and enuff else, freely expended their precious blood and that he was neither a hero, nor a crusader, Archeological Association," continued the senior, gliding rapidly down the castle wall Whose end shall gladden Heaven Rev Paster, Sortholle Church, Pomfret near Eastst. Rev Paster, Services every other Sab-bath, at 10 o'clock, Vespers at 3 P. M. Gorman Lutheran Church, corner of Pomfret and Bodford streets. Rev. C. Fritze, Pastor, Sortices at 11 o'clock P. M. first salutations were over. treasure, that they might enjoy the blessings tew dam enny man. and the servants were already beginning to nce more into the moat. tout gentleman who paused for reply. In vain the bells of war shall ring "And so old, mamma!" interposed the Sixtly-I want tew bet several 100 Dolof a free government, and transmit this blesbelieve in strange stories of white and red We rushed to the battlements, and saw him "It is a proud but an onerous position Of triumphs and reveloges, adies who walked by night with great which you occupy," continued the stout genars, that this war gods rite on, and enny däughter. sing to their posterity. We so far from While still is spared the evil thing neiting the shabby groom to put the horse thing that gits in the way ov it, whether it wounds in their breasts up and down the tlemon, inquiringly. "Yes my dear," returned the mother blaming, applaud their sacrifices, and fully That severs and estranges. 9. When changes in the above are necessary the oper persons are requested to notify us, in the fly as quickly as possible ; and, when so very old! Where did your respected is Jeff. Davis's or the Démocratic platform, believe that the end achieved was worthy of But blest the car corridors. Mr. Coggleshall, with most the vehicle was ready he got into it. With-""I don't exactly understand you, sir," re-That yet shall hear gits knocked higher than the top ov. Mt. the cost. Now, it has become our turn to husband pick up such a dear, quaint, feudal praiseworthy promptitude, seized a thick | plied Mr. Coggleshall, while we all listened out giving one look towards the castle and The jubilant bell DICKINSON COLLEGE. relic, Mrs. Coggleshall?? his penitent relatives, he drove away in the life. An unboly war has been thrust upon struggle, after their example, for national Etner. stick, and went direct to the room. Mariana That rings the knell with interest. Seventhly-I want tow bet mi note for Rev. Herman M. Johnson, D. D., President and Pre "It was left us a legacy," I replied Of Slavery forever ! (Miss Gushington) was preparing herself for -"SWhen T say feasor of Moral Science. William C. Wilson, A. M., Professor of Natural Science and Curator of the Museum. Rev. William L. Beswell, A. M., Professor of the Greek and German Languages. Samuel D. Hilliman, A. M., Profe sor of Mathemat-Then let the selfish llp be dumb how charming !" returned ,000 Dollars, payable six months before it dinner. He found that young lady with diss, and as to the evils which it brings in its gentleman. "I mean in owning the roof : It was several hours after this event 1 And hushed the breath of sighing; hevelled hair, crouching in a corner of the which once sheltered the great Rufus (called is due, that Geo. B. McClelland, esq., the train we are compelled to encounter and Jushington, with enthusiasm; "how very Before the joy of peace must come fore the portcullis was again raised, my hus Rev. Fernando Wood, or Vallandigham, the room, and staring wildly at two large bats, charming—so unexpected !'' vercome to the best of our ability. The The pains of puryfying. Rufus the pug-nosed) after the siege of Mud- band standing by in a fretful temper all th pilgrim, will have tow be the nominee at the " Don't you like the middle ages ?" asked who were starting at her from two opposite war is a stupendous one, and the cost of it enor-God Live us grace ports when I say onerous, I mean in referwhile. The first use he made of his freedom John K. Stayman, A. M., Professor of the Latin and Chicarger convention, else the Democratic Miss Gushington, in a tone very similar to Each in his place corners. Mr. Coggleshall led the romantic mous: and why should not every eitizen, ence to what you may do with that roof." was to take a horse, and gallop after his fathrench Languages. Hon. James if. Graham, LL. D., Professor of Law. Rev. Henry C. Cheston, A. B., Principal of the party will have to make a new platform tew To bear his lot. her mother. who appreciates the benefits of a good govyoung lady out of the room; and, after a A murmur of approbation ran through er. It was quite dusk when he returned ; but And, murmuring not. "Not much," I answered. suit some decent man. short struggle, he put the two animals to rnment, he willing to bear his share of the Endure and wait and labor ! John Hood, Assistant in the Grammar School. the committee, or deputation, at this speech; the old gentleman was not with him, having "Oh, I do," returned the young laly, in flight. It turned out afterwards, that Mari-Eightly-I want tew bet awl of the rest ov ourden? The sacrifice, severe as it may be, and tall gentlemen stooped to whisper to started for London by another road. He ____0_ my real and imaginary Estait, that General it is hoped will be but temporary. We are a most rapturous manner. ... I think they ana had opened the turret window to gaze BOARD OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS. Miscellängons. short gentlemen, while short gentlemen had missed the station, when he came, down . S. Grant kant be induced to runaginenny passing through the stages of a dangerous were so nice !? at the rising autumnal moon, when the two James Hamilton, President, H. Saxton, P. Quigley, E. Gornman, C. P. Humerich, R. C. Woodward, Jason W. Eby, Treasurer, John Sphar, Messengor. Meet on the let Monday of each Month at 8 o'clock A. M., at Education Hall. by going to sleep in the carriage and had to stretched themselves to whisper to tall genther man but Jeff. Davis, and if he dont lluess; and why should we complain of the ⁴ Do you know, Mrs. Cloggleshall," said brutes flew suddenly in, and nearly knocked tlemen. retrace his lost ground by an up-train. Thi run agin him wuss than a steel-pointed ram. Mrs. Gushington, "what I should call this her down in their entry. remedies because they are not palatable? It LIVING IN A CASTLE. "I suppose," replied my husband, "that] prought him to the required point at a lat within the next two or three years, enny man place if it were mine?" The other visitors arrived before we sat should be well considered, what would have have the usual liberty to do as I like with iour of the night and he had hired a fly to -----0---It came into our possession quite unexpect "Something very pretty, I'm sure, dear," down to dinner-the Misses Tutbury, maidmay have me, my heirs, and assigns forever. been our inevitable fate had we submitted to my own property ?" bring him over to the castle. When he ar CORPORATIONS. I returned, with politeness. en sisters, living on their property; and at and ever, amen. 1 want tew bet the above dly, as a legacy left by an old friend of my the domands of the rebellious without resis-" No, sir, pardon me," returned the stout OvRLISLE DEPOSIT BANK .-- Prosident, R. M. Heuder-son, W. M. Bestein Cash. J. P. Hassi-r and C. B. Piahler Tellers, W. M. Pfahler-r. Claus, J. no. Underwood Mes-senger. Directors, R. M. Henderson, Prasident, R. O. Woodward, Skiles Woodburn, Mosse Bricker, John Zug, W. W. Dale, John D. Gorgas, Joseph J. Logan, Jos Stumet Ir. ived in front of the mont, everything wa-JOSH BILLINGS. usband. It was described in the will as a " The Moated Grange, after Tennyson's last, after many difficulties in the series of bets. tance. We should have had a shattered and gontleman, very excitedly, "not exactly so perfectly still ; and, as both he and the dri nessuage or tenement, although it was actupoem vou know." vaults which did duty for the kitchen, the disjointed government, and such a dismemin this case. If I may be allowed the exer could find nothing but very small stones QLD THINGS .- Give me the old songs, ally the remains of an old Norman castle "Very happy, indeed, mamma," replied great meal of the day was served at exactberment of our confederacy, as would have pression, your country has an historical lien to throw at the portcullis, they failed to a those exquisite bursts of melody which thrill-Logan, Lawyers are precise in their language, but ly half past eight P. M., railway time,forever precluded the possibility of future the daughter. upon these hallowed walls, and we wait uprouse the old warder, and had to encamp for ed the lyres of the inspired poets and min-Jno. Stuart, jr. FIRST NATIONAL BANK.--President, Samuel Hepburn Cashier, Jos. C. Hoffer, Teller, Abner C. Brindle, Mes-senger, Josse Brown. Wm. Ker, John Dunlap, Kich'd Woods, John C. Dunlap, issue Brenneman, John S. Sterrett, Sam'l. Hepburn, Directors. The repast was plain, but ample-baronial, on you, as guardians of local archeological ertainly not descriptive; and there was no Unfortunately many of our guests were stability and peace. Had Southern insolence been permitted to dominate and dictate. the night. He positively refused to be ree strels of long ago. Every note has borne getting any correct idea of the place without iot disposed to exchange the comforts of in fact, and satisfactory enough, in its way; monuments, to satisfy ourselves that the on-ciled to his son until he took steps to disupon the air a tale of joy and rapture-of personal visit. The small wood-cut and modern civilization for the barbarity of the but the footman and coachman thought propthere would have been no nationality. The nose of his barbarous legacy. place will receive no injury in your hands." sorrow and sadness ! They tell of days gone the two inches of history which we found remiddle ages, without an unamiable struggle. er to wait at table wrapped up as if prepared unity of the North would have been broken, CUMBERLAND VALLET RAILROAD COMPANY .-- Presiden "Then, sir," replied my husbaud very "Which," said my husband, "I have do by, and time hath given them a voice which specting it in a book upon the Antiques of ederick Watts: Secretary and Treasurer, Edwa Biddle: Superintendent, O. N. Luil. Passem ins three times a day. Carlisle Accommodati stward, leaves Carlisle 5.55 A. M., arriving at C Such were old Mr. Crowcomb and his wife. for a long journey outside a coach. The dress and wasting wars would have been our future coolly, "with every respect for my country. ermined to do; for, though an English speaks to us of those who once breathed these They had got the best apartment in the cas- first caught my eye, but I said nothing; and Sussex were sufficient to excite our curiosity; and the association you so ably represent, I history. In such an event how inconceivaman's house may be his castle an Englishmelodies-of what they now are, and what tlo-stony, of course,-that could not be then it caught my husband's eye, who said a but not sufficient to satisfy it. With as litbly greater would have been our sacrifices, must decline to satisfy you upon that point." Hele 5.20 P. M. Through trains Eastward, 10.10 A, M and 2.42, P. M. Westward at 9.27, A. M., and 2.55 F man's castle will not do for his house." we soon shall be. My heart loves those meltle delay as possible, my husband went down, than those we are now called to make! It helped; but a room fit for a queen-in the great deal. "You are not the possessor of a vulgar odies; may they be mine to hear till life und his letters were enthusiastic, not to say middle ages. M. CARLISLE GAS AND WATER COMPANY.--President, Lou-uel Todd; Treasurer, A. L. Sponsler; Superintendent George Wise: Directors, F. Watts, Wm. M. Bestem, R. M. Bildie, Heary Saxton, H. G. Woodward, J. W. Patton, F. Uardner and D. S. Croft. "John Thomas and James Williams. would have been a permanent and hopeless house," returned the stout gentlemen, with THE IMPERIAL CROWN OF ENshall end, and as I "launch my boat" upon capturous. He had always a strong passion They did not complain direct to me or Mr. Mr. Coggleshall shouted across the table tax upon our property, our comforts and our | the sea of eternity, may their echoes be waftmuch energy; "you are the recipient of a GLAND. for the middle ages (which, I must say, Coggleshall; but Mrs. Crowcomb's maid, "what is the meaning of this?" lives; and the history of past prosperity ed to my ear, to cheer me on my passage sacred trust. Remove but one brick of that Mr. William Pole has reprinted, for pri-I never thoroughly shared), and I was not There was a little hesitation. Then the would never have been repeated. If we made frequent application for impossible trust,-desecrate but one stone,-and the voice vate circulation, a few notes on diamonds _____0_____ from the seenes of earth and carthland ! surprised when he suddenly returned, and things in the kitchen. Our servants in their potman, although the junior, put himself love our nation-if we condemn its violators of civilized Europe will be raised in one uni-SOCIETIES. Mr. Tennant has added to these notes a post Give me the old paths, where we have gave an order for our immediate removal. present temper took care too convey this to forward to speak. -if we cherish our dearest rights and privilversal yell of indignation against you !" script on the imperial state crown of Queen Cumberland Star Lodge No. 197, A. Y. M. meets at arion Hall on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of every wandered and culled the flowers of love and It was rather late in a very fine autumn, me, as a hint of their own deplorable condi-"I know what it is, sir, to which you The drawbridge, governed by the feeble eges, we should cease to murmur that we have friendship, in the days of Auld Lang Syne,' Victoria. Mr. Tennant thus describes the and although we had only just come back eludes but roomatiz is a thing that will come month. Bt: Johu's Lodge No. 280 A. Y. M. Meets 3d Thurs day of each month, at Marion Hall. Carlisie Lodge No. 91 I. O. of O. F. Meets Monday tion. to pay for security. We are involved in a sweeter, far, the dells whose echoes have anand ancient warder, had by this time descencrown: from a lengthened stay at the seaside, we A communication was opened with the to us all sir, sooner or later, an it's wrong, it frightful war with those who would be our swered to our voices; whose furf is not a ded slowly to its place, and we prepared to " The imperial crown of her majesty Queen closed our London establishment once more, neighboring village (four miles distant) for is, to fly in the face of Providence. tyrannical and cruel masters, and the only evening, at Trout's building. cross it. Victoria; was made by Messrs. Rundell & stranger to our footsteps, and whose rills as my husband was bent upon passing the the purpose of victualling the garrison. Con-____0__ The speech produced a sympathetic grunt alternative is a base submission or a contin- have in childhood's days reflected back our "Good day," said my husband, turning Bridge, in the year 1838, with jewels taken Christinas at his new property. There was from Mr. Crowcomb; but it only enraged FIRE COMPANIES. sidering the extent and the unusual characued and successful opposition. Precious | forms, and those of our merry play-fellows, politely to the stout gentleman, and the from old crowns and others furnished by The Union Fire Company was organized in 1789.-House in Louther, between Pittand Hanover. The Cumberland Pire Company was instituted Feb. 18, 1809. House in Badford, between Main and Pom omething so novel and exciting in transter of the demand, we were tolerably well Mr. Coggleshall still further. blood has been shed, untold treasure expend- from whom we have parted, and meet no deputation, who seemed to be astonished at command of her majesty. It consists of diplanting ourselves direct from a rather dull served; and it was amusing to see the old " Take off that comforter, John Thomas," the unsatisfactory result of their spokesman's amonds, pearls, rubies, supphires, and emer- ed; and if more blood and treasure are re- more in the old nooks we loved so well. odern square, with not even a black statue warder going through all the forms of chal- he said, "directly; and that ridiculous overquired, let them be freely offered on our countact and eloquence. Give me the old house upon whose stairs alds, set in silver and gold; it has a crimson fret. The Good Will Fire Company was instituted in March 1855. House in Pomfret, near Hanover. The Empire Hook and Ladder Company was institu-ted in 1859. House in Pitt, mean Main. f a statesman to give it an historical flavor, lenging the butcher's boy in his cart, on the coat; and you, James William, either make try's altar. To abandon the cause at this we seem to hear light footstops, and under "Good day, Sir," replied the stout gentlevelvet cap with ermine border, and is lined to a veritable castle in one of the oldest other side of the moat, as if as if he had been yourself a Christian waiter, or lease the work juncture, would be a stigma affixed to the whose porch a merry laugh seems to mingle man raising his hat with dignity. "Rememwith white silk. * Its gross weight is 30 oz. counties of England, full of legends and tranoble and brave who have surrendered their | with the winds that whistle through old trees, an invading army. When he came for or- to John Thomas. You're not driving the ber your trust; the eyes of your country-5 dwts. troy. The lower part of the band, ditions, and venerable with age, that I was ders, to save the trouble of letting down the Carlisle Highflyer against a north wind !" lives in obedience to their country's call, as beneath whose branches lie the graves of RATES OF POSTAGE. of the Archeological Association - are upon above the ermine border, consists of a row of rather pleased than otherwise with the pros-"Werry well, sir," replied the coachman, you." well as an abandonment of the country itself, those who once trod the halls, and made the old, cranky drawbridge they were shouted Postage on all latters of one half ounce weight or nder, 3 cents prepaid. Postage on the HERALD within the County, free. (king the State 13 cents per annum. To any part 112 pearls, between which, in front of the "If you wish it; but goin hout o' this warm We were disappointed upon our return at ect of the change. through a speaking trumpet thrust through in all that has hitherto rendered it illustrious. crown, is a large sapphire, (partly drilled,) chambers ring with glee.-And OI above all, Postage on the HERALD within the training of the Within the State 13 conts por annum. To any part of the United States, 26 conts. Postage on all transformers, 2 conts per ounce. Advortised letters to com-which warm it is, compared with not finding an expected visitor, Mr. Coggle-Our arrival produced no very great excite a slit of a window. We repeat, then, that until the rebels have give me the old friends-hearts bound to purchased for the crown by his majesty King aent in the surrounding neighborhood, for these passidges-" shall, Sr., the father of my husband. He George IV. At the buck is a sappphire of The first serious difficulty that I experilaid down their arms, and renewed their al- mine in life's sunshiny hours, with a link so cient papers, 2 cents per ounce. Advised with cost of advertising. the position of Rubble Castle (that was the An impatient gesture from Mr. Cogglehad writton to say he would arrive at the smaller size, and six other sapphires, (three legiance to the government, it is the duty of enced in the victualling department was strong that all storms of earth might pot title it went by) was somewhat lonely. There shall stopped any further conversation, and all citizens to sustain, in all lawful ways and break it asunder, spirits congenial, whose with the cook, who could find nothing in the railway station by a certain train, and we of each size,) between which are eight emer-5,000 YARDS shape of kitchen utansils with which she felt | the dinner was finished in silence. were several bleak hills, a scrap of moorat every sacrifice, the cause of law, liberty hearts through life have throbbed in unison had sent the coachman over with a carriage alds. Above and below the seven sapphires Good Dark Calico Just Received like common, and a bit of ragged forest near During the afternoon, the wind had shift to meet him. The train arrived, but no Mr. are 14 diamonds, and around the eight emerand human rights, in which we are now en- with our own, OI when death shall still disposed to risk her professional reputation AT the place, and the village was four miles dis-Coggleshall, and the servant had come back alds 128 diamonds. Between the emeralds ed round to the north, and our position was gaged .- Presbyterian. before company. this heart, I would not ask for aught more GREENFIELD & SHEAFER'S, tant. How such a baronial dwelling came no protection against the keepness of the "It's all very well, mim," she said, " for as he went. and sapphires are 16 trefoil ornaments, consacred to hallow my dust, than a tear of an East Main Street, South Side. into the hands of the late owner. (Mr. Vanblast. Our screen from the south, composed born saviges, which was content to eat their 2d Door, Dinner passed over much the same as the taining 160 diamonds. Above the band are A Righteous Retribution. old friend. May my funeral dirge be 2d Door meat raw from the points of daggers, but it of the bleak hills before mentioned, was perdal) we never precisely knew, though we day before, except that one of the maids had eight sapphires surmounted by eight diachanted by the old friends I loved so fondly, On Thursday morning, says the Peoria, 18% ruessed it was an unredeemed mortgage. fect; but found the east and the north we won't suit my books." who have not yet passed away to the spirit's

Good Dark Prints, Botter, " Extra, "

Extra, " Buper Extra, do., 25, 30, 35, and 40 conts, Unbleached, from 20 to 40 conts, Summor Pants stuffs, at last year's prices, having purchased our stock of Summor Pants stuffs last Fall we can and will sell them from 10 to 15 cents a yard cheaper than any house in town. Romember the place. GREENFIELD & SHEAPEH, Opposite II. S. Nittor's.

A T THE PARIS MANTILLA EM-PORIUM, No. 920 Chestnut St., Philadelphi NUW OPEN-Paris-Made MANTILLAS and CLOAKS.

Also, SPHING and SUMMER GARMENTS, of our own Manufacture, of the Latest Styles and in great variety. J. W. PROCTOR & Co.,

The Paris Mantilla Emporium, 920 CHESTNUT Street. PHILADELPHIA.

United States 5 percent 10-40 Loan. We are prepared to furnish the 10-40 W. 5 also prepared to turnish the 10-40 W. United States Loan authorized by the act of blarch 3d, 1864 eithor Registered of Coupon Ronds, as parties may prefer in denominations of $50, $100, $500, The interest on the $50, and $100, Donds is payable number and all other donominations somi-abnually in coin. The Bonds will bear date March 1st, 1864 and are redeemable at the pleasure of this Government. af to 10 years and payable, 40 years from date in coin. with interest as porcent per numm. W. M. BEETEM, Cashler. Carilulo Deposit Bank, April 25th, 1864, most singular part about it was an old ward-

Our removal was attended with considera-I presume that she alluded to the manners ble inconvenience. Our servants were anoved at leaving Londo,n and more annoyed t being conveyed to what I heard them call a downright "penictentsharry." The more discussion. I took her to the armory, achman and footman became friendly and made a selection of helmets, breast-plates, or the first-time-since they had been in and a-variety of odd metallic-things that-Iur service; the old female cook, presum ing on her length of servitude, was rebelious; the two house-maids were sulky and obstinate; my own maid was unusually could I do? The most was one of the most obtrusive prim and severe; and the only one who seemed to enjoy the change was little Waduisances that we had to deal with. It was, in parts, half-fall of a green, slimy mud, and dles, our page. Every room of our dreary castle was a we had not been in the castle many hours before we became painfully aware of its exbassage, and every passage was a vault. It looked an imposing place from the outside, istence. with its turrets, its drawbridge, its portcullis, There was no concealing the fact, not its towers, its moat (which made the lower loubting the cause, and the old warder, he apartments very damp), its arched doorways, past, was summoned to render an explanabattlements, and littlepeep-holes of windows; tion, and suggest a remedy. but inside there was not a room-to use a "Well, sir," he said," "I remember the were, of course, sulky, especially Mr. Orowvulgar expression that you could swing a cat in, if we except the two principal halls. vear."

had scarcely the shelter of a blade of grass. and the customs of the middle-age barons at Leaving the banquet hall, as it is called. their repasts; though I did not inquire to go across the dark passage to that other further. To get over the difficulty, without | tunnel fitted up as a drawing room, we all felt that the two men-servants were not so very much to blame.

-We retired to rest ear'y that night, only knew nothing about, sufficient to set up to awaken to fresh troubles the next morna cook in business at a public club-house. I | ing. Everybody had, of course heard strange knew I was committing sacrilego ; but what | and uncarthly noise during the night, (the howling of the wind along the tunnels and passages,) and almost every one was full of discovering a large owl standing calmly before their toilet-glass on their dressing table.

Unlike Miss Gushington with the bat, they were strong-minded enough to drive it away with an open umbrella. Both Mrs. Gushthe only living link that bound us to the ington and her daughter were a little pinched up with the cold, and a trifle-just a trifle less onthusiastic. Mr. and Mrs. Orowcomb to wait in the place of John Thomas. the footman, who had gone to bed with a violent cold and face-ache. The soup was greasy and the meat was half-raw, for the cook had become more rebellious, having been with. out any authoritative supervision during the day. The night was even a little colder than the last, and we retired to our stony chambers, if anything a little earlier.

my eye, as I looked somewhat early out of is pierced quite through after the Eastern the bare country in front of the castle, was a filled up by a small ruby. Around this ruomplaints when we met at breakfast. . The shabby four wheeled fly, standing immediate. by, to form the cross, are 75 brilliant diatwo Misses Tutbury had been horrified by ly opposite the portcullis entrance on the out- monds. Three other Maltese crosses, formtorside of the moat. Near the fly was a bony horse, endeavoring to graze, and a shabby groom-trying to warm himself by dancing, and flinging his hands under his arm-pits Presently an old gentleman put his head out of the window of the fly, and Lat once rec ognized Mr. Coggleshall, senior. I called ed by rose diamonds, containing respectively my husband, and, by the time he reached the window, his father, who was very stout old moat wur like that for more nor fifty comb who had shouted for one hour in had, with some difficulty reached the ground vain for shaving water in his lofty chamber | and began to make signs towards the castle monds, between which are eight festoons (III.) Transcript, as a returned soldier named consisting of 148 diamonds. In the front of Thompson, residing in Washington, was enthe crown, and in the centre of a diamond gaged in conversation, with some parties in Maltese cross, is the famous ruby said to have the saloon of the Peoria House, an individbeen given to Edward Prince of Wales, son ual entered, and as he passed the soldier of Edward HI, called the Black Prince, by shouted, "Hurrah for Jeff. Davis !" In an Don Pedro, King of Castile, after the battle | instant the soldier turned and asked, ""Did of Najera, near Vittoria, A. D. 1867,-This you shout for Jeff Davis ?" Copperhead surruby was worn in the helmet of Henry V In the morning, the first thing that met at the battle of Agincourt, A. D. 1415. It that he meant mischief, replied that it was ways be remembered that in putting by not he. . 'Well,' said the soldier, 'I believe our window, which commanded a view of custom, the upper part of the piercing being that you did, and if I was aure of it I would a certain amount of mental tranquility, and again declared that he had not, when at this juncture one of the men Thompson had been ing the two sides, and back of the crown. conversing with, and who has always acted have emerald contres, and contain respectivewith the Democratic party, stopped up, sayly 182, 124, and 180 brilliant diamonds. Being to the soldier, 'I am a Democrat, but I twoon the four Maltese crosses are four ornamonts in the form of the French flour do-lis. Davis, and now pitch into him.' The vetoran. with four rubics in the contres, and surroundthe smallest he went at the Jeff, Davis sym-85, 86, 86, and 87 rose diamonds. From the pathizor and administered a most awful drub bing, concluding by compelling him to shout Maltese crosses issue four imperial arches composed of oak leaves and acorns, the leaves | twice, as foud as he was able, for Abe Line your age?" containing 728 rose, table, and brilliant dia- | coln. Then, allowing him to get on his feet, "Yes, yes," said Mr. Coggleshall, inter- in the battlements, there, being no bells or Something struck us both, seeing the horse monds, 32 pearls forming the acorn, set cups he cautioned him nover to repeat this opera- three years younger than mother !!

bright home! SAVE UP SOMETHING .- It unfortunrtely appens that as no man believes he is likely to die soon, so every one is much disposed to defer the consideration of what ought to be done at once. The determination to lay by often oreates the power to lay by, and the veyed Thompson for a moment, and, seeing first effort is the most difficult. Let it alcomething for a rainy day, a man purchases give you a cause to remember it.' Secesh thus he may actually extend his life by providing against the results of his death.

Kar A lawyer having some legal business to transact with a widowed lady, took occasion to inquire her age. The matron, who can't stand that ; he did hurrah for Jeff. had long since dolled the "widow's weeds," attempted to look prim, and much younger hesitated not a moment, and, though by far than she really was, as she replied : Then turning to the daughter, he said : "Thirty-five years, sir." "May I be so bold, miss, as to inquire

"Certainly; I and a littly past thirty-two ;

a. 1.