HON. JOSEPH BAILEY.

From Joseph Bailey, now representing this District in the National Congress has been nominated for re-election to that position by a mass meeting of soldiers in this service.

It is a matter of course that he is now fairly before the people as a candidate for Congress. The resolutions of a mass meeting, nominating Mr. Lincoln in this District to determine that choice.

In order to get understanding in this matter it is necessary to know exactly how Mr. Bailey stands politically. He has always been a member of the Democratic Party and until now has never been before the people except as the nominee of its conventions.

This time he has not received the nomination of that party because of the scheming of a sapling demagogue, who not satisfied with enormous fortunes to which his political friends have helped him, has taken full measure of the honors his party has bestowed.

In the present canvass Mr. Bailey claims to be, and is a member of the Party to which he has always belonged. He openly and warmly supports the Democratic nomination and is working zealously for Gen. McClellan. He claims no affiliation with the Republican Party except devotion to the Government and hostility to the rebellion.

He has not supported Mr. Lincoln for President. He is fully committed to the Democratic nomination as any man in the District and this he announces to men of all parties.

Mr. Bailey's position in the campaign is not what we would expect. The earnestness with which he has supported the Union cause during the last and the present Congress led us to believe that he would be found doing battle for the cause of Freedom and Union with the support of Mr. Lincoln.

In this we were disappointed, and much to our regret Mr. Bailey expresses the resolution of the man who is supported by the entire Republican Party and by nearly all the War Democracy in the country. We had hoped to support for Congress a man whose voice would unequivocally be for Lincoln and who would give his earnest support to the principles of our party.

No such candidate has been nominated by our party, nor is there any man in our ranks for whom there is the slightest chance.

The choice of the voters of the District is as we have said before Messrs. Bailey and Glosbrenner. The latter gentleman has been before the people for the last two years very prominently and we well know his associations and positions. Among the most eminent of the Government and the Country in this State, Adam J. Glosbrenner is prominent. The newspaper kept alive by his spirit and of which he is the controlling power, has done more to demoralize politically the people of this District than any other paper in the country.

Under the circumstances, and between the men, the duty of the Union men of the district is clear. Mr. Bailey, though a Democrat and a supporter of McClellan, is an honest man and a man who was thoroughly disloyal and dangerous. His principles have by no means improved. If elected to Congress he would be the ready slave of the Woods, Voorhes, Long, Harris and Cox, and would have nothing to do but to embarrass the Government and promote the success of the rebellion. His election would be a calamity and a disgrace to the district of which he is nominally a resident.

THE UNION COUNTY TICKET.

As the time is rapidly approaching at which the voters of our county will be called upon to cast their suffrages for county officers, we deem it appropriate and opportune to briefly notice the several candidates placed in nomination by the People's Union Party, and to consider in a few words their individual claims upon their fellow citizens for their support.

We give our views upon the congressional question in another column, and will commence this article with the nominee for Assembly.

JAMES KELSO, of Shippensburg. Mr. Kelso is well known in the county as one of the old time battlers in the cause of freedom and right. An old whig, he early espoused the cause of the Republican party and has ever been one of the most ardent, intelligent laborers against the accursed intrigue and treason of the pro-slavery despots who so long marred our councils with their overbearing aristocracy.

When the evil counsels of these marplot-aimed-in-rebellion, and the appeal to arms was taken, he raised a company of five hundred men, and led them gallantly through the battle of Fredericksburg, Antietam and Chancellorsville, remaining with his regiment until mustered out at the expiration of its term of service. He is a clear-headed, sagacious business man, and would gladly and honestly represent this county in the Legislature.

For Sheriff we have E. P. ZINN, of Mechanicsburg. From childhood Capt. Zinn has been known to believe that the principles of the Democratic party were the only ones on which the country could be successfully governed. Up to the time of the breaking out of the present rebellion he had always voted and acted with that party.

Among the first to enlist in the Union Army, he insists that while he and his compatriots have been absent in the field battling for the free principles of the old time Democracy as expounded by Jefferson and Jackson, the Seymours, Woods, Vallandigham and Penningtons have been doing the bidding of the traitors who have sold the Union for a few dollars.

IMPUGNED.

About every Democratic paper we open contains some appeal to soldiers to vote for the Chieftainship here. They insist that the majority of soldiers are McClellan men, and we actually saw a charge in one of them that "the abolitionists were going to disfranchise these soldiers."

Considering that wherever it could be done the whole party vote of the Democracy was cast against allowing soldiers to vote, and that soldiers could vote those dangerous to entrust the elective franchise to them. Now, that they can vote they are extremely anxious to have them vote their ticket. They insist on soldiers, whom they attempted to disfranchise, to vote their ticket, and make earnest appeals to them not to vote against the Democracy who have always been the soldier's friends.

The assurance of these fellows is amazing. That the Corps will be likely to make much of this dodge is shown by the following record of votes taken by the soldiers in their hospitals and camps in anticipation of the Presidential election.

Lincoln, McClellan, C. S. Hess, York Pa., 1109 411
Cavalry Regt. 224 84
Energy do do 373 150
1st New York Dragoons, 578 237
Camp Parole, Md., 150 237
Cavalry Regt. 224 84
Soldiers' Hos. do 217 92
14th West Virginia Regt. 415 36
4th Brig. ad. Artillery, 401 98
C. S. Hess, Frederick, Md., 237 211
do do Wilmington, Del., 235 39
1st Md. Light Artillery, 105 12
2d New York Artillery, 117 8

Total, 7,509 1,291

These are but a few of the many evidences which come to us, as to how the soldiers will vote. Considering that the friends and supporters of Gen. McClellan are 1,293 VOTES AGAINST allowing our Pennsylvania soldiers TO VOTE, it is a piece of consummate impudence for the Corps to ask the votes of the soldiers for their double-faced party.

The soldiers of Vermont voted for Members of Congress at the election held on the 5th inst. So far as the returns have been received, they are as follows:

1st Brig., complete 100 0 0
8th Regt., 2 companies, 110 0 0
9th Regt., 2 companies, 200 47 1
10th Regt., 2 companies, 100 0 0
17th Regt., 2 companies, 68 2 0
Cavalry, 4 do 81 6 0
3d Artillery, 30 4 4
3d Sharpshooters 17 0 0

Total 1,238 155 58

Union over Democrat, 1,083: Union over all, 1,021.

These are rather ugly figures for the friends of Gen. McClellan, and show that especially in the army of the Potomac, where we are told, the soldiers all say "Give us back our old commander." The figures show about eight to one against the Democracy in spite of McClellan's nomination.

We would like to know how all this comes about. Possibly these stupid Yankees, who were raised where there are no schools, don't know that McClellan belongs to the Democracy. Do you account for it in that way, Caps?

Political Intelligence. Gen. John C. Fremont has written a letter withdrawing from the contest, and advising all the Union men to vote for President Lincoln. This withdrawal will unite the opponents of the Democracy and give us an easy victory over the party who are so anxious for a cessation of hostilities.

Hon. John C. Fremont candidate for Vice President on the Fremont ticket has written a letter "to the War Democrats of the United States" withdrawing his name from the canvass. He urges his friends to give a hearty support to Lincoln and Johnson.

Senator Ben. Wade, and Secretary Chase, of Ohio, Henry Winter Davis, of Maryland, Daniel S. Dickinson, of New York, and fighting Joe Hooker, are on the stump in favor of Lincoln.

Hon. John C. Fremont, Benjamin F. Brewster, Daniel Dougherty, Hon. John C. Knox, and Judge Cunningham, all old Democrats and men of the first ability are supporting Lincoln.

Hon. Wm. M. Hester, formerly a prominent Democrat but now an ardent supporter of Mr. Lincoln has been nominated by the Union men of Berks county for Congress.

Horatio Seymour has been re-nominated for Governor of New York. If there had been any doubts of our success in that State before, this nomination would remove them. The New Yorkers are not desirous to have the "friend" of the rioters for their Governor for another term.

Let those who have sons and brothers in the army remember the efforts of Democratic politicians to deprive our brave soldiers of their rights of citizenship. Whenever the laws had an undisturbed control, of any district, immovable majorities were cast against the Amendment to the Constitution. No means were left untried to defeat it. The most absurd stories were circulated to influence men to disfranchise those who were fighting to protect them in their homes and property, and now these same politicians ask soldiers to vote for their candidates, and boast loudly that they will have a majority of the soldiers' votes. Will the brave men now in the field battling against Democratic trouson, vote with the party that has done its utmost to deprive them of their rights? Will the friends of the soldiers at home, fellow leaders who, in order to elevate their party to power, would degrade our soldiers to the level of felons? We rather think not. No party ever committed so base an act of ingratitude, as did the Democracy when they cast their votes and influence against the soldiers, and their manness will surely not be forgotten. The soldiers in the service will cast their votes almost solidly against the Democratic nominees, and in favor of those who have restored to them the right of suffrage. And will their friends and relatives at home do better? Let every man who has a son or a brother in the service, exert his influence to this end, and to the party which attempts to disfranchise soldiers, but now goes begging for their votes.

But, my dear sirs, when that peace does come, you may call on me for anything. Then will I share with you the last cracker, and watch with you to divide our homes and families against danger from every quarter. Now, you must go, and take with you the old and feeble; food and nurse them, and build for them in more quiet places, under the shelter of the hills, until the mad passions of men cool down, and allow the Union and peace once more to reign on your old homes at Atlanta. Yours, in haste, W. T. SHERMAN, Maj.-Gen.
