HIGHWAY ROBBERY -On Tuesday evening last, a most daring and atrociou highway robbery was committed in the very limits of our town. The victim was an old man named JOHN, KARNS, who was attacked in the lane leading to the Agricultural Society's grounds, and most cruelly beaten and robbed. Amos Swigerr, who lives near the scene of this dastardly outrage, witnessed the whole affair, and recognized the robber as HENRY HIPPLE, a young rascal who seems to have taken to the road for this genteel employment.

HIPPLE attacked the old man with some sharp instrument, and with it inflicted two very severe wounds in the head. Ho then proceeded in true Jack Sheppard style to rifle his fallen victim's pockets, from which he took about one Hundred and Eighty dollars. SWIGERT followed the freebooter to tried ---his home, and rapped at the door, inquiring for him. The response was that HENRY had gone out. SwigERT answering that that was all he wished to know, tarned to go away when HENRY made his appearance and ofered Mr. S. half the money to say nothing ment of the United States the allowance about the affair. This of course was refused, of false and fraudulent claims." and information at once lodged with one of our Justices, when a warrant was issued and signatures upon vouchers, for the purpose HIPPLE arrested by Capt. CARLISLE BARRACKS, PA. Mr. Editor: SIR-Saturday the 24th inst., was a joyful day at this Post, especially for the sick and wounded Soldiers. The good ladies of Middlesex Township belonging to the Usion Aid Society prepared a dimer and the Union Aid Society prepared a dinner and if you had been present, to witness their kindness and to have participated in the grand dinner you would have said what every soldier did, God bless the Ladies. The ladies had every thing in abundance, and it was in the worth hest acids for the manine with the very best style for the oceasion and their presence made it the more refreshing to the noble patriots, who have so gallantly defend-ed the old flag of Washington. The Dr. 1. B. tWright, who is one of our most skillfull physician, was present to grace the par-ty. The Chaplain J. A. Ross attended to ty. The Chaplain J. A. Ross attended to his duty, in a brief prayer followed by some remarks—None however seemed more delighted then the efficient Steward, August Herbst, who is ever at his post striving to make the sick and wounded soldiers confor-table. In the name of the sick and wounded Soldiers I wish the Ladies of the Society a long life, and a home in the world to come.
