The Keeper of the Rebel Prison at Andersonville Arrested and under Trial at Cincinnati.

[From the Cincinnati Commercial, Jan. 18.] This individual—S. B. Davis by name—was arraigned yesterday for trial before the court-martial, of which Lieutenant Colonel Webber is President, and Lieutenant Bond Judge Advocate, charged with being a Rebel spy. The circumstances of his detection and arrest were as follows:

years of age—detected him on a train going from To'edo to Newark. The soldier had prisoner at Andersonville, and recognized his Rebel friend. Approaching him, the said: "Is this not Mr. S. B. Davis?" "No, sir; my name is Cummings." Don't you live in Georgia?" "No, sir, I live in appearance of an official passport, giving the bearer. Willoughby Cummings, permission to go into the United States—except the t States. The young soldier was not satisfied, but did not press his inquiries further just then. Cummings invited him out to take a drink at the next station, when he said: "You certainly are the man whe had charge of the Rebel prison at Andersonville." Cummings protested that he was not, but the soldier kept a close watch on him. At the next station he found a train of cars waiting, on which were a number of soldiers. He went over to them and said : who had command of the prison, is over saying: "How are you Davis? You are not found feeding Yankees on corn meal and mule meat now." The fellow still protested ments. his name was Cummings, and again produced his passport; but he could not fool the boys, and they compelled him to acknowledge he was their old keeper. Two of them guarded the car, and sent a despatch to the Provost Marshal at Newark, were Davis was

A colored man was murdered, not far from Wellsville; a coroner's jury, sat upon the case, a verdict was rendered which pointed toward the guilty parties; and yet the grand inquest of York county utterly ignored the whole proceeding of the coroner's jury, and refused to find an indictment against the parties charged with having committed the crime! And this right should be most vigilantly guarded to secure a fair and impartial exercise of it. The greatest caution should be used in selecting jurors, and penalties be enforced for violation of the statutes. To tamper with the right of will hold a grand Fireman's Fair in Rheem's trial by jury is to make a mockery of justice, and trial by jury a delusion. An exchange says, "the security of life, the protection of property, the administration of justice, and, in fact, all the rights which a free man may legally exercise, are affected and unheld be

The trial was conducted with 11 Democrats, and (it is alleged) 1 Republican.
Was this accident or design? Yet both parties in this county polled about the same number of votes.

Some men are anxious to be jurors. Such men should not be put in the wheel, who are very anxious to attend Court, but selec-tions should be made from the honest and conscientious men of community. None but the sworn officers, whose duty it is to draw jurors should be allowed to have any thing to do with this matter. Busybodies should and must be excluded. Hereafter the Commissioners and Sheriff will be held to a strict account of the manner in which jurors are drawn, and the character of such jurors. The people are becoming alarmed at the character of juries, and intend to hold the officers responsible for the manner in which they perform their duty in the selection of jurors.—Perry County Advocate.

January 13, 1885-3t* Poor House Visitors' Report. CARLISLE, Pa. Jan. 1865. To the Hon. Judges of the Courts of Cumberland County:

THE undersigned having been appoint-HE undersigned having been appointed by your Honors Visitors of the House of Employment of the Poor of Cumborland county, heg leave to report that they have made frequert visits to the said House of Employment, and feel great satisfaction in saying that the inmates of the house are all comfortably situated and well provided fr. We have conversed with them, and they have expressed the most entire satisfaction with Mr. Snyder, as Superintendent of the Institution, and with Mrs. Snyder as their Matrou. They say they have good and whole some provisions provided for them, and comfortable lodging, the rooms nice and clean, and in good condition. There are but few sick among them considering the number and the age of those that are in the house. We have viewed the premises, and are well satisfied that the business of the farm is well attended to. Mr. Snyder is agood farmer, has the work on the farm well done and in the right time. There is a large amount of stock on the farm in good order, which plainly indicates that they are well attended to. Everything about the establishment in our judgment looks as it good care and attention had been taken by those who have the establishment in our judgment looks as it good care and attention had been taken by those who have e and attention may occur,

GARDNER & CO., now manufac-I ture and keep constantly for sale, at their extensive Steam Works on East Main street, Carlisle, a large assortment of AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS. of well known, approved usefulness to farmers, among which they would call especial attention to WIL-LOUGHBY'S Celebrated Patent

GUM SPRING GRAIN DRILL. GUM SPRING GRAIN DRILL, which has taken over fifty First Class Premiums at State and County Fairs. To the Farmers of Cumberland, York and Perry counties we need not speak in detail of the merits of this drill, as scores of them are now in use on the best farms in those counties. Its reputation is established as the most complete Gran Drill now manufactured in the United States. It sows Wheat, Rye, Oats, Barley and Grass, evenly and regular, without bunching the seed. The gum springs pass the drill over stumps and stones, without breaking pins or the drill. For even and regular sowing, the Willoughby Gum Spring Drill is unequalled by any other. We also manufacture and self the following articles, which we can recommend to Farmers we
