All who know the gallant Llancock, and all who ever served under the brave Birney, need no inducement to join us after they have made up their minds to return to the front. Besides this, make yourselves recruiting officers, and talk the matter over with the "boys." Bring all you can with you, and you shall be put in the same company, and we will have a brigade without jealousless or strife. Think of this, and don't take much time to decide. We want to put the thing through before the first of May.
