

S. M. PETERSON & CO., NO. 37 Park Row, New York, and 61 Broadway, Boston.

We must apologize to our readers for giving them only a half sheet this week.

On Saturday business was suspended in consequence of the assassination of President Lincoln.

AN EVENTFUL WEEK.

During the last week our town has presented some most unusual scenes. In the beginning of the week the news of the victory of our arms over the rebels was received.

Our town has never seen a more happy and joyous occasion. The streets were thronged with a happy and joyous crowd.

pending on Saturday for the surrender of the enemy was hailed with joyful demonstrations by our men, but when the terms of capitulation became known, their feelings were those of disappointment and chagrin, and not a little murmuring was heard on every side.

THE SURRENDER NOT A FORMAL ONE.

No formal surrender took place, and our troops were consequently not gratified with a sight of the ragged remnants of Lee's once great and famous army.
